MR. ED ASHWORTH WEDS MISS LILLIE BOYLES

An event of special interest in the social realms on Wednesday afternoon was the wedding of Miss Lillie Boyles and Mr. Edward Ashworth of Martindale. At four o'clock at the home of the brides parents in the presence of a few special friends and relatives the Rev. Mr. Leonard of LaFayette united these popular young people.

As the bride-to-be entered the lovely decorated sitting room of autumn leaves and ferns, leaning on the arm of the groom-elect holding on her left arm a bower of pure white chrysanthemums, those present witnessed a scene of exquisite loveliness.

Preceding the contracting parties came the best man Mr. Chas. Henry and the brides maid Miss Ada Dello Rutledge. Following the concluding words uniting them, all present gave hearty congratulations and soon thereafter, in the car of W. J. Jennings accompanied by Mrs. Jennings and the best man and bridesmaid they sped to the station and departed for a 14 days trip South, stopping for a short while at La Grange, Columbus and Americus, after which they will be at home to their friends in the newly fitted home near Martindale.

Many lovely and useful presents were received and were a fitting testimonial to the popularity of the bride and groom.

A fine girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Westmoreland Tuesday of last week.

KINARD—NEELY

Sylvester, Ga., October 28.—A very pretty home wedding was that of Miss Jessie Mae Kinard, of this place and Mr. Milas Wellborn Neely, of Umatilla, Fla., which took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kinard. The rooms of the home were darkened and only the light of waxen tapers revealed the decorations, which were effectively carried out in white and green. Aside from little Miss Elizabeth Landy, who was flower girl, there were no attendants, the bride and groom entering unattended to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Jessie Carswell, of Waycross, on the piano, accompanied by Mr. A. M. Durts on the violin. Miss Carswell sang an exquisite solo just before the ceremony to a piano accompaniment by Miss Eva Belle Cameron. Rev. H. L. Crumley, of Richland, performed the ceremony which united the two lives. The bride carried a shower bouquet of roses and valley lilies. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Neely left on a wedding trip to various points in Florida, after which they will be at home to their friends at Umatilla, Fla.

The marriage of Miss Annie Morrison, of Rossville, to Mr. George Littman, a successful druggist of Jacksonville, Fla., will interest many Messenger readers. The bride is a granddaughter of Mr. McFarland, the late, well-known pioneer citizen of Rossville, and a resident in and owner of the famous John Ross house.

LINWOOD LOCALS

Mrs. Clennie Bridges who had been ill for several months with paralysis died Sunday morning at 4 o'clock. She bore her suffering patiently and tried hard to get well. Funeral services were conducted from the home Monday morning by Rev. F. S. Coon, after which her remains were carried to the Lafayette cemetery and laid to rest by her father, G. W. Goodwin, who preceded her only a few years. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. There were enough flowers to cover her grave and that of her father. She leaves a mother, one brother, A. A. Goodwin and one sister, Mrs. D. H. Kemp, and four children to mourn her going away. We sympathize with them in their sad loss.

A fine son was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hanson Thursday night, but it was not permitted to live and was buried at the Shaw graveyard Friday afternoon.

One of the saddest deaths of our community occurred Thursday night when the grim reaper claimed as its victim little Lucile Shahan, daughter of J. W. Shahan. IN MEMORIAM OF MRS. LOUISA MYERS

In the early morning of Oct. 19, 1916 the death angel spread the dark shadow of his wings over the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davis and took the precious mother, Mrs. Louisa Myers; as the day dawned her spirit took its flight from this world of sorrow and cares to that bright home beyond. She had been ill for sometime at her home near Chickamauga, Ga., where with all her children around her bedside every wish and desire was granted. Her friends also were numbered by the score who ministered to her during her sickness. She expressed a wish to be carried to the home of her youngest daughter and all the loved ones thinking perhaps a change would be beneficial, had an ambulance take her to her daughter's. On arriving she seemed better, and pleased at the change. She requested all the loved ones to take their rest that night, saying she felt like she could rest too. The family did as she requested. As the day dawned she was "quietly resting." When the loved ones came to her bedside she was peacefully sleeping the sleep that knows no waking in this world, she had fallen asleep in this world and awoke in the brighter, better world above, where there is no sickness or death, or pain or parting. Her going from among us causes the tears to flow and hearts to ache, but we feel that she went rejoicing, so quietly so peacefully she passed from death unto life eternal. But there will always be a vacant chair, a longing for mother in the home and hearts of the loved ones. And we sigh for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is stilled. And for many long years we can hear that sweet voice in memory and feel the presence of her loving spirit with us. She still lives in the lives and hearts of her children.

She was born in Chattooga county, Ga., Jan. 21, 1853. She was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hayslock who were pioneer settlers of Chattooga county. Her father served the government by helping put the Indians out of this country. They lived near Chickamauga during the

We have been having some warm drizzly weather, though it does not rain enough to fill up the wells, which need replenishing so much.

The angel of death has visited our town twice in the past week. Miss Kate Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gilbert, died at her home Thursday morning. She had been sick for a long time with tuberculosis. The funeral services were conducted in the Gilbert home Thursday night by Rev. Charles Cromer. They had the service at night so that her lady friends who work in the mill might have a chance to be present. Her remains were laid to rest in the Shaw graveyard Friday afternoon. We sympathize with the bereaved ones.

Also Mrs. John Fugatt, who had been ill for several month's suffering with a complication of diseases, died Thursday night. She was buried at the Gordon graveyard Saturday morning, funeral services being conducted at the grave by Rev. I. S. Leonard. She leaves a husband two children and other relatives who will miss her very much.

MRS. CARRIE CROW

On Oct. 27, 1916 the death angel visited the home of Mr. Ike Crow and took from them their loving wife and mother, whom they loved so well.

Mrs. Carrie Crow was a good christian woman and loved by all who knew her. She was deprived of going to church for a long time on account of her health. She had been confined to her bed for a long time with that dreaded disease, consumption.

She leaves a husband and seven children and a host of friends and relatives to mourn their loss, but their loss is her eternal gain. I would say to the bereaved ones: "Weep not for her for she is at rest, but only live up to the Master's command and you will meet her in that sweet bye and bye, where there will be no more good byes." She leaves four sons and three little girls motherless in the world. Her baby girl is only five years old, the next boy only eight. They have my greatest sympathy. I would only say to the family, "Look to the Creator who doeth all things well, God giveth and God taketh away, and God knows best."

May God's richest blessing rest upon the bereaved ones.

CAPT. J. C. WARDLAW PASSES TO OTHER SIDE

ONE OF WALKER COUNTY'S MOST HIGHLY ESTEEMED AND WORTHY CITIZENS ANSWERS LAST CALL—IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL SERVICES

In the death of Capt. J. C. Wardlaw, which occurred at his home on North Main street last Friday night at 11 o'clock, there passed out of life one of Walker County's oldest and most prominent citizens.

Capt. Wardlaw was a native of Lawrence county, Ga., where he was born June 20, 1827 and was therefore in his eighty ninth year. He was a member of the old Wardlaw family, members of which have been noted over the South in various walks of life.

As a young man he entered the mercantile business, in which he made a decided success. In 1855 he went to Chattanooga and opened up a general merchandise store on Market street, which he conducted with marked success for a number of years. In 1860 he came back to LaFayette and opened up a store on the site now occupied by the Messenger. He was soon interrupted by the Civil war. His war record is most noteworthy. He enlisted in the sixtieth Georgia and was rapidly promoted to the captaincy of his company. After the war he again opened up his mercantile establishment here and continued actively in this business until 1875, when he retired from active business.

By industry and good business judgment Capt. Wardlaw amassed quite a nice little fortune, accumulating a large lot of real estate and farms in the county as well as some valuable city property in Chattanooga.

Capt. Wardlaw was twice married, his first wife being Miss Mary Holden, of Murphreesboro, Tenn., and his second, who survives him, Mrs. Carry Jones. No children were born to the second marriage, but three sons by the first marriage survive him. These are J. A. Wardlaw, of Chattanooga, W. H. Wardlaw, of LaFayette, and John Wardlaw, of Trion.

Always loyal to the church, the Methodist being his choice, Capt. Wardlaw served a long number of years on the official board. He was generous toward the church and took an active interest in all of its various operations, contributing liberally to all of its institutions. He also gave of his time and energy untiringly.

The funeral services which were held Sunday morning from the residence, were conducted by his pastor, Rev. N. A. White, in the presence of a valuable city property in Chattanooga.

CATLETT

Miss Eva Stephenson died the first day of December at her home at East End, Tenn. She was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stephenson, formerly of this place. Miss Eva died of typhoid fever. She was 17 years old. It is sad for her to be taken so young, but God doeth all things well, so we should rejoice to know she is at rest. She was truly a good christian girl. We won't say to the loved ones, "Weep not for Eva, for she is peacefully resting in the paradise of God." She was buried Dec. 3, her remains being laid to rest in the McIntyre cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Pettigrew. There was a large crowd of relatives and friends to attend the funeral to pay the last tribute-of-respect to this bright girl. She leaves a father and mother, three brothers and three sisters and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community.

IN MEMORY

Of Glennie E. Leming, Age 24 Years
November 6, 1915.

Sweet be the rest of Glennie Dear,
We knew her, thus we loved her;
And all who ever knew her here
Knew nothing but to love her.
Sweet her rest; her slumber hold
Through all the busy change of hours;
With gentle touch—November 6
Her hands were clasped with fair white flowers.
So, sweet her rest, she will not wake,
Pain was vanished from Glennie's sleep,
While here with hearts that yearn and break
In voiceless agony we weep.
Our grief comes freshly with the dawn,
Glennie's sorrow vanished with twilight,
In shadows we must journey on—

IN MEMORY OF ROY DICKERSON

Is he gone forever from my mortal sight?
Behind the cloud is there no ray of light?
Be still sad heart, a sweet voice calleth thee,
"My child cast thou thy burden on me."
I'll murmur not nor question thy design,
My father chastens, I to Him resign;
But may I be with resignation blessed,
To bear each evil however distressed.
Oh! loving Father, chide me not for weeping
For Jesus Wept while Lazarus still was sleeping;
My flower is gone, I'll take me to the can wipe them all away.

Rest in peace dear departed child, rest,
And quiet now the aching head and heaving breast.
No more dear Roy your cheerful voice will greet my ear,
In sweeter strains it will sound, again with Christ forever near.
Oh, Roy, dear, how fervently I prayed that God thy life would spare
But the gift was mine, the love was yours, it was thus He heard my prayer.
Oh glorious hope! Oh blessed thought with earthly trials done
If faithful here, we will meet again around our Father's throne,
I'll trust God's love His purpose now He'll not reveal.
He has enough, He doeth all things well.

FALLS FROM WAGON AND BREAKS NECK

One of the most tragic deaths that has occurred in the county in sometime was that Tuesday morning when Monty Carroll, who was hauling some hay for L. L. Clarkson, was thrown from the wagon, falling on his neck and shoulder, completely breaking his neck. He lived about forty minutes.

It was baled hay he was hauling and one of the bales slipped off the front end of the wagon falling on the team, which frightened them and unbalanced Mr. Carroll, who never succeeded in gaining a footing again and was thrown to the ground, resulting in almost instant death.

Funeral services will be held from Trinity church this afternoon, Wednesday. Interment will follow in the Trinity cemetery.

Mr. Carroll is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll, one brother and four sisters. Many friends of the deceased offer sympathy to the bereaved ones in their sad hour of bereavement.

B. F. THURMAN ENTERS THE REALMS OF DEATH

HIS CAREER AS A SOLDIER, STATESMAN, MASON, CHURCHMAN, FATHER AND HUSBAND MOST NOTEWORTHY—DIED AT THE AGE OF 73—FUNERAL SERVICES HERE TUESDAY

The death, Monday morning, of B. F. Thurman in his 73rd. year, ended a long and useful life. Though only a youth in teens he had gallantly worn the gray and seen hard service for the Confederacy in the Civil Strife. The hardships and exposure in the war was the cause of the frail health, that was his affliction for many years. Happily married, the Reconstruction period found the young soldier a farmer on a farm in Shinbone valley.

In the early seventies Mr. Thurman bought the Harvey Sampkin place at Center Post, successfully merchandising at the store there for several years. An attack of western fever carried himself and family to Comanchee, Texas. On his return to Georgia, Rome claimed him for a citizen, a short while, but soon he located at LaFayette, buying a home and entering business for himself, and was a successful and popular merchant for many years.

His political career was most noteworthy. He served in the Georgia legislature in 1888-89-90 and also in 1907-8. In 1908 he was elected by his friends in the county without solicitation, and after 1908 he was insisted upon to make the race again, but feeble health prohibited his desire for service in this capacity. He also served on the board of county commissioners in Walker a number of terms.

Equally as brilliant was his Masonic record. Besides serving as Master of Western lodge for several terms, he attended the Grand lodge meetings for twenty-six consecutive years and held the office of Grand Junior Deacon for fifteen years and Grand Chaplain of the Grand lodge of the state for three years.

He joined the Confederacy at the beginning of the war in 1861 and was with General Lee at the surrender in 1861.

In the sixties, he was happily married to Miss Mattie McConnell, a splendid woman, whose love and comfort and help at the last, cheating death by her wonderful love and care. To few men were ever given a happier home life, and warm and devoted friends.

A Methodist born and bred, his beloved church had in him a faithful, zealous worker, especially in the Sunday school. For a number of years the LaFayette Methodist Sunday school was under his care as superintendent, a happy memory of many of the town's best men and women. Old Trinity, his first church, will ever hold his work there in loving remembrance.

The sunset shadows brought years of struggle with a hopeless disease, but his cheerful courage and invincible spirit never failed. To the last his mind was keenly alert and his knowledge and interest in world affairs was wide and varied.

Frank Thurman was born in Marthasville, now Atlanta, Jan. 10, 1844, and was the eldest son of David and Alice Boyles Thurman, who in his infancy removed to Cherokee, Ga. On his father's side, he was descended from a prominent South Carolina family of Hugounot extraction.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. A. Partridge and Rev. B. F. Gullic, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Interment followed at the LaFayette cemetery

Mr. Thurman is survived by his daughter, Miss Annie, one brother, John T. Thurman, of Harrisburg, and a sister, Mrs. Emma Boyd, of New York.

IN MEMORIAM
MRS. MATTIE STEPHENS HELMAN

Cassandra, Ga., Dec. 14, 1916.—As friends and neighbors we wish to add this public tribute of respect and extend our sympathy to her mother, husband, brothers and sisters as we all walk in the shadow of this great bereavement. We check the question Why? We say "Thy Will Be Done." While pain and grief our souls benumb, in all our weakness leaning on His might, we know at eventide it shall be light. We shall understand why hers was a brief life—journey—a path of suffering which she bravely trod. The sunset of her life was beautiful. The crossing was so peaceful and happy as the brave sweet spirit was borne gently to rest from the intense suffering, that pervading our sadness is a spirit of praise and thankfulness that her pain is over forever! In the new heaven and new earth there are no tears, no pain, no heartaches for God himself shall wipe away all tears with His own hand, and we shall be at home eternally.

"One Less At Home"

One less at home!
The charmed circle broken— a dear face
Missed day by day from its accustomed place,
But cleansed and saved and perfected by grace
One more in Heaven!

One less at home!
One voice of welcome hushed, and evermore,
One word of farewell spoken; on the shore
Where parting comes not, one soul landed more—
One more in Heaven!

One more at home!
This is not home, where cramped in earthly mould,
Our sight of Christ is dim, our love shall behold,
Is home and Heaven!
But there, where face to face we is cold,

One less on earth!
Its pains, its sorrows, and its toils to share,
One less the pilgrim's daily cross to bear,
One more the crown of ransomed souls to wear
At home in Heaven!

One more in Heaven!
Another thought to brighten cloudy
Another theme of thankfulness and praise
Another link on high our souls to raise,
To home and Heaven!

One more at home!
That home where separation cannot be,
The home where none are missed eternally.

Lord Jesus, grant us soon a place with thee
At home in Heaven!

Farewell Mattie until then.

MRS. J. W. SHUMATE.

IN MEMORY

Of dear little Lucile Shahan, daughter of J. M. and Lela Shahan, died at her home near Villanow Nov. 2, 191[illegible] near the age of 14 years.

Lu[illegible] was a bright loving little girl and was loved by all who knew her. She has gone over the river of Jordan to meet her mother who passed away to her bright eternal home nearly four years ago.

Oh, how sad it is to give her up. We miss her so much in our Sunday school for she was such a faithful worker and lover of the Lord.

Lucile taken the place of her mother in the home nearly four years ago and was such a sweet little lady to do her work. But now she has gone where sad partings will be no more. But our loss is her gain.

We look the place of her dear little sister and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Farewell Jesus far from thee,
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

Written by her friend—Bridgie.

Thos. Stephenson, who died last Sunday night at 10:45 was laid to rest in the McIntyre cemetery Tuesday, funeral services was conducted by Rev. W. M. Pettigrew. LINWOOD LOCALS

Donaldson and was performed by him. About forty friends were present. The young couple will make their home at Summerville.

IN MEMORY OF OUR BIRD

On the 23 of November 1916 the dark angel entered our home and took from us our loving brother. He leaves a wife, father and mother, three sisters and one brother to mourn for him. We all loved him so much.

We loved you, yes we loved you.
But Jesus loved you more
And He has sweetly called you
To yonder shining shore.

He was born May 12, 1883, being at the time of his death 33 years old. He had been a sufferer of rheumatism and Bright's disease and paralysis set up which proved fatal. All was done that loving hands could do but all in vain. John was so loving and kind all who knew him loved him. He leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn but our loss is his eternal gain, for Christ said "Where I am there you shall be also." John said all was well with him. He talked of the home not made with hands. He said he was ready to go and talked of Jesus and His love. He called his loved ones around his bed and asked them to live, "God be With You till We Meet Again."

IN MEMORY OF W. M. RANSOM

"O, strange and sweet it seems to me,
That ere this day is done,
The voice that now is speaking
May be beyond the sun."

When a great and beautiful life has gone on there lingers an effect like unto a concordance of solemn sweet sounds, in the blending of whose perfect harmony "echoes roll from soul to soul" and go on forever and forever. How very true is this when the silent voice was once that of a loving counselor and sincere friend. Nor can too much be said to cherish its influence in living memory.

W. M. Ransom has departed, but he is not dead. His soul has been wafted out into God's great infinity, but in this region of the Super-Man, he now lives a fuller life and still fills a plan transcendently greater than that which we saw him lead here.

To a large extent this was his philosophy. To him time was not a thing apart but part of eternity itself—just as good, as pure and as sacred. Life was life, always interesting and intensely worth while. It existed to be seized upon vigorously, improved, and interpreted rightly. One of his favorite phrases was, "Opportunities fly low but fast". But from the side of lethargy and carelessness he feared that the higher life and the truer self were often depreciated. Often this was taken to heart almost with tearful grief.

His personal life was the outward expression of the very soul of the idealism as contained in classic literature—exhalted and far above the fabble—and in the language of a modern writer was, "anything to be different from the mob." Still he "walked with men and kept the common touch." Moreover he acted no mere drama, but lived a vital and full life. For long years his name will live as a synonym for honesty; not alone in the scope of practical square dealing but in that broader and more wholesome sense of the term—honesty thrice-fold to man

"UNCLE" ZACK LANEY FOUND DEAD IN BED

Z. W. Laney, aged about 65 years, known to his many acquaintances here as Uncle Zack, was found dead in bed early Tuesday morning. Frank Wardlaw, who was rooming with him was startled when he awoke and found Uncle Zack dead. Immediately he sent for a physician Dr. Hagood responding and pronouncing him dead. An inquest was held later in the day by Coronor Ray Johnston, who held that death was due to a stroke of apoplexy.

The remains were taken Wednesday to Bronco and laid to rest in the cemetery there. Mr. Laney is survived by his son, W. L. Laney, of Bronco.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. VIRGIA FORSTER

On Monday, Dec. 25, 1916 the angel of the Lord came and bore away the sweet and gentle spirit of Mrs. Virgia Forster. She was about 22 years old at her death. Nearly all of her life she was a witness for her Savior. She was loved by all who knew her; ever ready to lend a helping hand to the unfortunate, doing all she could to relieve and cheer the sick. No one possessed more commendable traits and had them so fully developed as Virgia did. Often have we heard her praising God for His redeeming grace. It was her chief desire to see sinners born into the kingdom of God. It is hard to realize that we will never see her on earth again, but we can say that her life was such that we feel assured she has eternal life with the redeemed. Virgia will be sadly missed in our community. Nobody was beneath her notice and tender care.

Her last illness was long and very severe but she bore it patiently and in cheerful resignation yielded her life back to Him who gave it, looking forward to a better home than this.

She leaves a husband, little baby, father and mother and one sister of this place and a host of friends and relatives to mourn their loss. I would say to the loved ones: "Weep not for you will see her bye and bye."

Her funeral was conducted by Rev. S. T. Hearn at the Baptist church in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends. From it the mortal remains were borne to its last resting place in the New Lookout cemetery.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.
Sleep on Dear Virgia and take thy rest,
God called thee home, He thought it best.

W. L. CONNALLY

When it was announced Sunday morning that W. L. Connally of Clareville was dead, it was a great shock to his host of Beeville friends, but few of them knowing that he had been operated on the previous day as a last resort in an effort to save his life.

Just a day or so previously he had been seen on the streets of Beeville and was apparently in his usual good health and spirits. It was when he had returned to his Clareville home, after attending to business here, that he suffered an attack of acute gastroditis from which he suffered so much that he arose early Thursday morning and drove to town for medical treatment. It was 4 o'clock when he started to town alone and an hour and a half later he was taken to a hospital. The physicians at once pronounced his condition as critical. He soon lapsed into unconsciousness and was never conscious again.

His death, coming so suddenly and unexpectedly, was a great shock to his family and cast a shadow of sorrow over the entire community. The remains were laid to rest in Glenwood cemetery here Sunday afternoon, the religious services being held at the residence of I. J. Miller, while the services at the grave were in charge of the local Woodmen lodge. The obsequies were largely attended from all parts of the county.

W. L. Connally, "Bill," as he was known to his more intimate friends, was born in Walker county, Ga., on Feb. 7, 1859, and was, therefore, 57 years 9 months and 27 days old. He was united in marriage on Dec. 31, 1881, to Miss Laura Ida Garmany. To this union six children were born, five of whom survive their father, as follows: Mrs. E. C. Caldwell, Odem; Dr. I. N. Connally, Beeville; Mrs. J. P. Jepson, Tom and Will Connally, all of Clareville. A daughter died in infancy.

Mr. Connally moved with his family to Texas in 1889, locating in McClellan county, remaining there one year and then moved to Skidmore, Bee county. The following year they moved to Clareville and have resided there continuously since. Mr. Connally was industrious and the application of good farming methods soon made him a prosperous tiller and stock farmer. He and some of his neighbors, locating there at about the same time, soon caused Clareville to be known as the best farming section in Bee county.

"Bill" Connally is going to be missed in Bee county. He was a kind husband, a loving father, a good citizen and a splendid neighbor. He was always found in the forefront of every movement that had for its object the upbuilding of his community in particular and the county as a whole. He was a familiar figure on the streets of Beeville and has always been the picture of health. It is hard to realize that he is no more. Verily, in the midst of life we are in death.

Besides his widow and children, deceased is survived by three brothers and two sisters, as follows: Tom Connally, Globe, Ariz.; Paul, Charles and Miss Delia Connally, Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. G. E. Hunter, Kensington, Ga. Four children of his father preceded him in death.—Beeville, Tex., Picayune, Issue of December 21, 1916.

MRS. MARTHA MORRIS

When on Sept. 21, 1916 the beautiful spirit of Mrs. Martha Morris took flight to its eternal home all who knew her were made to say, "A real mother of Isreal has passed away."

Sister Morris was a daughter of Rev. Z. D. Clark and was born in Catoosa county, Ga., Nov. 12, 1851. She professed faith in Christ at 12 years of age, joined the Missionary Baptist church, and a christian life of 54 years had indeed made her a lovable character.

She bore her sufferings with great patience, never ceasing to tell those around her about the goodness of God and when the summons came she was singing His praises and rejoicing in a Savior's love.

She was married to W. G. Morris Jan. 18, 1874. To this union were born seven children, six of them survive her. She was a true devoted wife and mother and to sympathizers it seems hard to know that after this true companionship of 42 years one must pass away and leave the other to travel alone for awhile. May God in his Wisdom fill the vacancy as he alone can.

Her life was a very active, industrious one, ever ready to assist those around her. Surely one of the brightest stars in her crown will be for obeying Christ in his saying, "In as much as ye did it unto one of the least of these ye did it unto Me." To the her relatives and friends we extend our heartfelt sympathies and may her christian life be a guide post for each one.

"Why should we mourn departed friends,
Or shake at death's alarm?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call us to His arms."

IN MEMORY

Of Jimmie Dearing, who died December 29, 1916.

Jimmie leaves a father, one brother and a host of friends and relatives to mourn his death. He was a good boy. He joined the M. E. church in 1915 at Trinity and lived a true christian life and when his Lord called for him he said he was ready to meet him.

Jimmie was born in Cherokee county, Ala., but had been in Georgia three years. His body was carried to the mosley cemetery at Jamestown, Ala. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Chandler.

We wish to say to the loved ones, "Weep not for Jimmie for he is not dead he is just asleep in the arms of his Savior."

C. A. CAMERON DIED AT MENLO SUNDAY

WAS A CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN AND HIGHLY ESTEEMED BY ALL WHO KNEW HIM

C. A. Cameron of Menlo, who for several years past has bought cotton every season for the Union Cotton Mills, and who is widely known throughout the county, died Sunday morning after an illness of several weeks. Last Wednesday his condition was considered hopeful, but extreme weakness from great suffering, made recovery impossible.

Mr. Cameron was a native of Walker, born in the late 1850s at Sharpe's mill, now the property of Mrs. L. J. Hammond, at the home of his grandfather, Thomas A. Sharpe. He was the second son of Russell and Harriet Cameron. His mother died when he was quite small, and with his older brother, Robert, he spent his youth in the home of his uncle the late A. Y. Sharpe, of Demopolis, Ala., where he was educated in its fine old male academy, and had some business training in its mercantile houses. In '70 he tried the west for a short while, where his father and younger brother, Millard, were successfully located in Arkansas, but ill health drove him back east. In the early eighties he was some years in the employ of a prominent Rome firm, where as cotton buyers he had the hard practical training that made him an expert grader and all 'round cotton man.

After his marriage in '86 to Miss Minnie Lee Dickson, of Sharpe, a younger sister of W. E. Dickson, the "lure of the land" found him farming at Center Post. In the Alliance movement he became an enthusiastic follower, worker, officer. He was the first manager of the Farmers' Co-operative store located near the depot, in the building now owned by W. R. Craig. Disliking to leave LaFayette, business interests caused him to move to Sharpe, where he built a nice home and looked after his farm there and the mineral rights in the Bronco ore beds. In the summer of ninety-one, he lost his lovely young wife. Several years after her death, he was happily married to Miss Mary Gamble, eldest daughter of Mr. William Gamble, of

COLE'S COLUMN

I was sorry, b see that big-hearted Bill Cobually was gone. He was a good man all round, but the good must go as well as those that are not so good. And another old veteran of the civil war has answered the last roll call, old Uncle Watts. That makes four inside of one month, just here. They are going fast, just a very few years and there won't be any of them left. They are the connecting link between the old times and the new ideas of the 20th century, a sole remainder of antebellum days and old things. Peace to their ashes.

LON ELLENBURG DIED FRIDAY AT HIS HOME

Mr. Ellenburg is survived by his wife and two children.

DUCK CREEK

We were sorry to learn of the sudden death of Uncle Henry Haralson. We have known the old colored brother for more than 40 years, worked in the same field with him with only a furrow between us for three years. He was kind, courteous, honest, and one of the most polite colored men it was ever our pleasure to know. Remember one Sunday not many years ago coming from Sharpe with the family of a special friend of ours who we had given a special invitation to spend the day with and cut many jons with us. On our way to our home we met Uncle Henry and Aunt Bettie who were, in a buzzy. Uncle Henry politely raised his hat as he said good morning. Our esteemed friend, who was and is a very pleasant and polite gentleman, from the force of habit, tipped his hat to Uncle Henry and after noticing what had done made this remark: "All this keeps colored folks from receiving politeness is the fact they are not polite themselves." Yes. Uncle Henry was the very elat of politeness as well as the other attributes that long to make up the perfect gentleman. We regret to realize that he is no more, but we are glad to realize that his influence is not dead and his acquaintances of both races in this section would do well to emulate the example he set before them. We tender our sympathy to Aunt Bettie and all the bereaved ones.

We were not surprised to learn of the resignation of the Hon. John B. Henderson Trout, the board of roads and revenue. He is a conscientious man and wants to see harmony and goodwill exhibited in all the affairs of our good old county. We, for one, regret very much that he has decided to do so, but no one can blame him for the course he has taken. He has made the county a faithful ser-

MYSTERY OF DEAD MAN STILL SHROUDS COMMUNITY

The unknown and unidentified dead man found in the woods near the Williams spring last Saturday was a week ago was buried at Conchat. He was roughly but neatly dressed and looked to be about 45 years of age. In height about 6 feet, weight about 165 pounds, dark hair. The verdict of the coroner's jury to the effect that it was a case of suicide is not borne out by the general opinion of hundreds, including two experienced detectives from Chattanooga, who viewed the body the day following the finding of the dead man. It's true the earmarks of a suicide on first thought appeared to be correct. There was a bullet hole through his temple, a pistol with one empty chamber and a small hand grip by his side, a cheap watch and $0.54 was found on his person, but it is thought he was murdered and hauled to the spot in an automobile. If a crime was committed the perpetrators purposely tried to disguise their victim so as to destroy identification. His clothes did not seem to fit him very well, he was clean shaven, hair cut close and his eyebrows had been clipped as with a pair of scissors. No powder burns on the face, there was not a particle of dirt on his shoes or clothes to indicate that he had walked over these muddy roads. The body was found in a secluded spot 150 yards from the ridge road opposite could be seen the tracts of an automobile where it had backed up into the edge of the woods.

I. O. O. F. PASS RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF B. F. THURMAN

We, your committee on resolutions of death of Bro. B. F. Thurman, beg leave to submit the following resolutions:

Whereas, it has pleased the Grand Master of the universe, in His Divine wisdom, to call from among us to take his place in the celestial lodge above, our beloved brother, B. F. Thurman, and thus break the links that bound us here on earth but only strengthens the tie that binds us to that city not made with hands, therefore be it resolved

1st. That in the death of Bro. Thurman this lodge sustains a grevious loss and the order is deprived of the services of a true and loyal member and one whose record shows a long and honorable membership among us. Bro. Thurman having united with the order in the year 1903 and from that time to the date of his death, always showed a lively interest in its work and was ever ready to lend his aid to the advancement of the principles for which it stands.

2nd. That while Bro. Thurman has passed from among our ranks here on earth and our hearts are sad because of his passing, yet we know that his influence still lives and will bear its impress on the lives of those with whom he came in contact through the coming years. Wherever there were hearts to cheer, sorrow to relieve and tears to wipe away, Bro. Thurman never failed to use his best endeavors to apply the benevolent principles of Odd Fellowship to the relief of distressed humanity.

3rd. That LaFayette lodge, No. 25, I. O. O. F., adopt these resolutions as a memorial to Bro. Thurman, that a page of our minutes be inscribed to his memory, and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Walker County Messenger.

UNCLE MOSE BOYLES DIES AT HIS CABIN HOME IN WEST LAFAYETTE

Uncle Mose Boyles, another one of our old timers, and known to almost every citizen in the lower half of Walker, was found dead in bed Friday morning at his cabin home in West LaFayette. He had been suffering from asthma for a week or more. The summer the sewers were laid, many were struck by his independence and strength in keeping up with the younger men on this work. His big frame, white head, and strong Indian features made a picture not to be forgotten.

He was supposed to be perhaps eighty years old, his wonderful strength and endurance held out almost to the end of his life. Last summer he dug ore at Shackleton, in Chattooga, and was in the woods as a chopper most of the winter.

Uncle Mose believed in living well, but he had saved enough to pay for his little home, which he leaves to his faithful wife, Aunt Kittie.

His pastor, Rev. Mack Wilson, conducted the funeral, Saturday morning, from the Mt. Zion Methodist church, and the burial was in the town cemetery.

MYERS LOWRY DIED AT COLUMBUS, O.

WAS AT POST OF DUTY IN U. S. ARMY—REMAINS WERE BROUGHT HOME FOR INTERMENT

Myers Lowry, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lowry, died at Columbus, Ohio, Thursday with pneumonia. At the time of his death Mr. Lowry was twenty one years of age.

For a few years Mr. Lowry held a position in Chattanooga but some weeks ago he enlisted in the United States Army and was on duty in the army when he contracted a cold which rapidly developed into pneumonia, resulting in his death Thursday.

The body of the deceased was brought to LaFayette Saturday. Funeral services were held from Wesley Chapel church, conducted by Rev. J. A. Partridge. Interment followed in the Wesley Chapel cemetery.

Mr. Lowry was a student in the LaFayette Public School in 1913 and his many school mates and friends in the county will regret to hear of his death.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lowry, four brothers and one sister.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF MRS. F. W. COPELAND

In so much as God in His ever wise and divine providence has removed from our midst our sister, Mrs. F. W. Copeland, we, as a Womans' Missionary society, wish to give expression to our deep sorrow, in the passing of one of our most beloved and consecrated members. We feel that we have sustained an irreparable loss, and the influence of her sweet christian life, and ever sunny cheerfulness, will be greatly missed in both the church and society.

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, That we extend to the bereaved husband, daughters and sons, our deepest sympathy. May the Great Healer pour the balm of His love into their broken hearts, and may the sweet influence of her unselfish devotion shine as a beacon light, ever guiding them on to that bright upper world, where God has promised a place to those who love Him.

Second, That these resolutions be recorded on our minutes, and a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

MRS. T. J. WILLIAMSON,
MRS. FRANK QUARLES,
MRS. J. H. TOWNS,
Committee.

IN LOVING MEMORY

On Wednesday evening Jan. 31, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hixon of Pittsburg and took from them their oldest daughter, Vera. She was in her 18th year and the future seemed bright and full of promise. The dark valley had no fears for her for she was just in the bloom of innocence and purity. She left none but sweet memories behind for she was kind to everyone.

She was sick only a few hours and all that loving hands could do was done but to no avail. She leaves a father, mother, brother, and sister and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her departure. The home once brightened by her presence is now darkened by a pall of grief, but we should not weep for Vera, dear ones, but live in a way as to be able to meet her in the sweet bye and bye. We should look for comfort to Him who said, "I am the resurrection and the life," for He has promised to comfort those that mourn.

Vera thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze,
Pleasant as the air of evening,
When it floats among the trees.
Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in the grave so low;
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our songs shalt know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lee LeCroy, assisted by Bro. Bruce Lee, after which the remains were laid to rest in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

—Her Cousin, Virgia.

Last Week's Letter

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Wood was found dead in bed Thursday morning and was buried Friday at Center Point.

IN MEMORY

On the night of Jan. 7th the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Travillian and claimed for its own the sweet spirit of little John Henry. He was sick only a short time, but oh, how he suffered. Yet he bore it without murmuring.

He leaves a broken-hearted mother and father, sister and two brothers and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family. But will say, "Grieve not, dear ones, for little Johnie is at rest." We know how impossible it is to allay your grief with words, and it seems hard that the bud should be taken before it has even opportunity to unfold its blossom, but in nature fruits fall, and so do blossom and buds in the way of kind nature. This is perhaps best, and in the taking from your home this little one, you should try to accept the cross and bear it, believing that you will meet him again.

Your beloved has departed,
While you tarry, broken-hearted;
He has ended life's brief story,
And has reached his home in glory.
Hush your sobbing, weep more lightly,
On your travel, daily lightly,
To the rest that he has found.

A FRIEND.

How sad is it is give up little Cecil to never meet on earth no more, but weep not for some day in heaven, we will meet and never part no more.

Little Cecil was a sweet little boy, he was loved by all who knew him, he had a host of friends and relatives far and near. He leaves behind a father, mother and four brothers and two sisters to miss him.

IN MEMORY OF

J. B., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Myers, who died Feb. 16, 1917, aged 2 years and 10 months and 2 days.

How mysterous are the workings of providence. In a few short hours a father's hope, a mother's joy has been blasted. It is indeed hard to associate one so full of life and love and health with the tomb, but his sun has gone down while it was yet so early. However we sorrow not as those who have no hope. We know that it is well with little J. B., but oh it is so hard and sad for all of us who loved him so. But after life's fever he sleeps well. We shall see his face no more until the resurrection morning and then we will see him among the angles of God resting in the bosom of his who said, "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for such is the kingdom of Heaven." Then weep no parents and loved ones for you will see our loved J. B. again in the resurrection morn.

May we all live so we will meet him in that happy home where he has gone on before to welcome us at our coming.

Written by one Who Loved Him.

IN MEMORY OF CECIL PARRISH

"The golden gates were opened wide,
A gentle voice said, 'Come home,'
And an angel on the other side,
Welcomed their dear one home."

On Feb. 5, 1917 the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Parrish and took from them their little son, Cecil. He suffered for 7 months with rheumatism. Cecil was a sweet, cheerful little boy and will be missed throughout the whole neighborhood, but oh, how much more he will be missed in the home where for five years he had been the light and sunbeam.

It is so sad to know that we will never hear his voice or see his sweet smiling face here on earth no more, but if we trust in the Lord we will meet him in that beautiful home not made with hands. Everything was done by father, mother and physician, but God saw it to take him to dwell with him.

He leaves a father, mother, four brothers and two sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. To the bereaved family we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. G. Tallent and the body was laid to rest in the High Point cemetery to await the resurrection.

"He is gone but not forgotten,
Never will his memory fade;
Sweetest thoughts will ever linger,
Round the grave where he was laid."

Written by his friends,
MARY AND BESSIE.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. DIXIE ROBERSON

On Saturday, Jan. 27, the angel of the Lord came and bore away the sweet and gentle spirit of dear little Dixie to that great and happy home that was not made with hands. She was always kind and good and was loved by every one who knew her. She always told the truth in everything. She was so sweet in every way.

The Lord gives and takes away. She was laid to rest in the Chickamauga cemetery.

She leaves besides a host of relatives and friends, a husband, mother and two brothers and three sisters to mourn their loss. Weep not for she is at rest with the Blessed Saviour.

Sleep on Dear Dixie and take thy rest,
God called thee home. He thought it best.

DAVID C. PAYNE FOUND DEAD IN WOODS

SATURDAY NIGHT ABOUT 8 O'CLOCK—WAS 83 YEARS OLD—A CONFEDERATE VETERAN AND A MASON—BURIED MONDAY

David C. Payne, of Rock Spring, aged 83, was found dead in the woods about three hundred yards from the home of his son, James Payne, with whom he was living, Saturday night. He left home Saturday morning and was missed Saturday afternoon, when a searching party found him about 8 o'clock Saturday night. His death is thought to have been due to heart failure.

MT. CARMEL

We were sorry to hear of the death of W. M. Roberson. The last time this writer saw Mr. Robinson, he looked stout and looked to be in the very bloom of health, but the strong must go as same as the weak, and the young as same as the old. The thing for us to do is to be prepared, for we know not the day nor the hour.

IN MEMORY

Of Mrs. M. A. Wallin, who departed this life Jan. 13, 1917. She was born and reared in McMinn County, Tenn., and lived there until her marriage with R. L. Wallin in the year 1867. She was the mother of two children and stepmother to five. They all loved her as their very own because she loved them. Love begets love always. She was a woman of few words, yet she followed close in the footsteps of her Savior.

"None knew her but to love her, none named her but to praise," for she was ever ready to do a kindness to all with whom she came in contact. She lived to a ripe old age, being 77 when the dark winged messenger came and claimed her as its own.

She was preceeded to the glory world by her husband, fifteen years, lacking four days.

They were both members of the Methodist Episcopal church and had been subscribers to the "Methodist Advocate Journal" for 40 years.

Truly a good woman has passed to her final reward.

ONE WHO LOVED HER.

IN MEMORY

On the 20 day of December, 1916, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loggins and took from their midst their darling baby, Bonnie Ruth was only two months and one week old. She was only given to us long enough for us to love her, but God, who doeth all things well saw fit to call Bonnie Ruth home. She was struck with paralysis and only lived a few hours. We have the blessed assurance that Bonnie Ruth is sleeping in Jesus, where she will know no more pain. I would say to the bereaved family, "Weep not for Bonnie Ruth is not dead but sleeps and if we live right we can meet Bonnie Ruth over yonder where there will be no more tears shed."

Sleep on dear one and take thy rest,
God called thee home he knoweth best.

A sad death to everyone was that of Mrs. A. L. Cooper which occurred at her home Wednesday morning, after a brief illness of only two days. Her death was a great shock to her family and friends and relatives.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF OUR DEVOTED FRIEND AND FELLOW CLASS-MATE, MONTIE CARROLL

It is with the deepest regret that we are caused to express the sentiment of our hearts in this way, but as we let our minds become concentrated upon the thought of our deceased friends, it always renews our grief, although, we are faithful enough to put our trust in our God, and receive the great and only consolation "Let God's Will Be Done," and go forth again with contentment

But in this particular, circumstances we are caused to mourn the loss of one who has been faithful as a member of our S. S. class at Trinity M. E. church, since we first became organized, and as we miss the bright face in class, as well as his usual happiness of heart, we are even yet caused to grieve, but more especially are we stricken with grief in behalf of his good mother who always freely loved and cherished him.

So we as a class join you dear mother, father, sisters and brothers, as you mourn the loss of the dear one we all love, and say that we will profit by the loss of Montie, our class-mate, and at all times be ready to meet death in any way our God sees fit.

So we extend to you our tenderest sympathies, and urge that you accept the sweet consolation which we as a class accept, "That we trust our loved one with our God."

WESLEYAN S. S. CLASS.

IN MEMORY

On the 12 of Feb., late in the evening, the angels of the Lord visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner and took from their arms their little son, Matthew, and wafted his little spirit into the presence of God and angels.

Matthew had been a frail child for nine months and called for the closest attention of his parents, who cared for him, so patiently and lovingly Matthew was a very smart lovely child, he was always ready to hail those who passed him with his childish greeting. It's hard to give him up and we will miss his childish presence but Jesus said, "Let the little children come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

We can afford to let him go and live without him here that he may live with Jesus and live in that heavenly home with angels and loved ones He lived only a short life of 3 years, 8 months, but filled on earth the place that God intended he should fill. Like a sunbeam he was here to lighten and gladden the home and hearts of loved ones, but almost suddenly he was gone.

A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

Funeral services were conducted at Antioch church by W. C. Tallent, on the morning of the 14th, after which his remains were laid to rest at that place, to await the resurrection morn. Loved ones, weep not he is not dead but sleepeth.

W. C. TALLANT.

LAFAYETTE R. 6.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marks on the 11th, a fine girl.

Mr. John Ball came from Chattanooga Wednesday and stated he found four of his brothers and one sister had died within two weeks. The last two were buried Tuesday.

Little Maurine Suggs, age 9, daughter of B. Suggs, died Friday morning, death being due to measles. Funeral services were held Saturday at the Chickamauga Baptist church by Rev. R. S. Leonard. Interment took place in the Chickamauga cemetery. Maurine was sweetly remembered by beautiful floral offerings given by the town officials, the masons, the West Lafayette school class of which she was a member, Mrs. Ludie Morton and others. The many friends of the bereft family tender their deepest sympathy.

A TRIBUTE

As a friend and neighbor of Howard Blakemore, who was drowned in the back waters at the Pipe Works during the recent flood in Chattanooga, I desire to express my sincere sympathy to the members of the family and loved ones.

His body was brought to our family graveyard for interment. It was one of the saddest sights I ever witnessed. The news of his death was shocking and it is hard to give him up, and I thought I would try to express my feelings through the Messenger.

I want to thank the good friends, neighbors and good people for their kindness and for the beautiful flowers which decorated his bier. While it was impossible for me to be with him and his friends on account of the high waters, my heart was going out to him and his loved ones in sympathy.

Our loss is his eternal gain in heaven. The music at his funeral was the sweetest I ever heard I think and I don't believe I will ever hear sweeter. He is missed and will be missed every day.

Written by a true friend,

A. S. HUMPHREYS.

MT. CARMEL

Fletcher Kinsey's baby was buried at Mt. Carmel last Monday. We sympathize with them in the loss of their baby.

Mrs. Arthur Ledbetter of Linwood was buried at Mt. Carmel last Thursday. Mrs. Ledbetter had been sick for a long time and the people of this community sympathize with Arthur in the loss of his young wife, as he lived in this community for a number of years and is a good boy.

We were made to feel sad to hear of the death of Mrs. Shields who died last Saturday at 5 p. m. We were not surprised at all to hear of her death as she had been sick for a long time and had been very low for some two or three weeks. Mrs. Shields was a good Christian woman and was loved by all who knew her. Our sympathy reaches out for the orphan children as their father left them years ago. They are good boys and girls. Bro. Lupo preached Mrs. Ledbetter's and Mrs. Shields' funeral.

IN MEMORY

On Thursday, Jan. 4, 1917, our All-wise Father called from her earthly labor to an eternal rest, one of our sisters, Mrs. Mary Clement.

She was born Nov. 16, 1852, and in early life became one of God's children, uniting with Macedonia church.

Sister Clement was a wife of F. W. Clement, who she outnumbered here on earth several years. A faithful, loyal and attentive wife and mother, sharing equally their joys and sorrows and in the delightful service of the Lord. She won many friends by her kindness, ever ready to assist those around her and always carried sunshine and encouragement where she was needed.

Sister Clement will be greatly missed by all who knew her but especially by her children, but may they take comfort in the thought that God who makes no mistakes and who redeemed and took care of our deceased sister and who has called her to an eternal home of peace and happiness and guard her loved ones too.

Her spirit shines from that bright shore
And softly whispers, "Weep no more"
Her toils are past, her work is done.
She fought the fight, the victory won.

AGED CITIZEN PASSES TO REWARD

Mr. Doc McWhorter, doubtless the oldest member of the local Presbyterian church, died at his home near Fairview Saturday and was buried at Fairview cemetery Sunday afternoon. Mr. McWhorter was about 80 years of age and had been in feeble health for about two years. He was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church, being honored by the church with many positions of high trust. He was a royal mason, a confederate soldier and an esteemed citizen of the county.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, after which his remains were laid to rest at Fairview with Masonc honors.

IN MEMORY OF GRANDMA GILBREATH

On Feb. 1, 1917, the death angel came to the home of Mr. Willie Gilbreath and took his mother, Nancy Gilbreath. She was born Aug. 25th, 1829. Her age was 87 years and seven months.

Mrs. Gilbreath was converted at a busharbor meeting near where the Valley Head church now stands, 40 some odd years ago. After the church was organized she united with the church and lived a faithful member. Grandma had been unable to attend church for several years. Rev. James M. Mathis preached for her in her home under the old walnut tree. His text was "If a man die shall he live again?" Last year Rev. Alfred Ezell preached for her under the same old tree. His text was John 14:3; "And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto Myself, that where I am there ye may be also." Now she has crossed over the dark stream of death, and we trust that her spirit is now at rest, for Paul said: "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.'

She leaves three sons and several grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn over the loss of her. We would say to the relatives, "Weep not as those who have no hope; she is not dead but sleepeth," for Christ

Uncle Doc McWhorter passed away last Saturday afternoon. He had been in feeble health for sometime. When Uncle Doc was able to travel around you would see him very often driving his little grey pony up and down the road, and when the children saw him they would start to meet him. He always had candy or something to give them that caused the nto never forgel him. He has been greatly missed by the children since he has been disabled to travel around. He was a christian man and a splendid citizen and an old soldier. He used to get the children together and tell them all about the war and what he had to go through with. We know that Uncle Doc is at rest.

EFFIE MAE PHILLIPS

The eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Phillips died at the home of her parents on the afternoon of December 12, 1916, after a short illness. She was only 8 years of age and leaves besides her father and, two little sisters, Deryl and Ruth, who sadly wonder at the vacant chair by the fireside.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. N. S. Fowler at the Coulter cemetery and the remains were laid to rest by her sister, Ethel Louise.

Her favorite song was "Will the Gates be Open for Me."

Whereas our Father has deemed best to remove from our midst one of our little friends in the 2nd grade. We as teacher and pupils, school mates of New Prospect school do hereby express publicly to the parents and relatives of Effie Mae our sympathy in their bereavement, which is also our loss, and would look up through our tears and grief as a tattered tent where through God's light, we glance up at every tent will catch a rag divine.

We will claim his grace and comfort now in this rugged way for we will remember it will only be a little while at best until we shall all be safe a home in the new nation whose Capitol and Government protect its inhabitants from any disappointment, tears or sorrow; where too we shall see the children gone on before us developed into the complete manhood and womanhood of its perfect citizenship.

Sincerely,

Mrs. J. W. Shumate and Pupils.

MRS. M. L. SHIELDS

CATLETT

I have been requested to announce that Rev. Geo. Goad will preach at the Baptist church on the fourth Sunday in May at 11 o'clock A. M. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

It is always with a sad heart that we report a death, and it is with a very sad heart indeed that we report the death of Mrs. Tom Stephenson, who died last Thursday just four months after the death of her husband. Mrs. Stephenson was a good girl and loved by all that knew her. She leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her death. Funeral services were conducted Friday morning at the McIntyre cemetery by Rev. John Jones, after which her remains were tenderly laid to rest by the side of her husband. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved mother, brothers and sisters.

MT. CARMEL

J. G. McWhorter and Miss Alice White, of this place were married in LaFayette at ten o'clock by I. S. Leonard last Sunday. Mrs. McWhorter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe White, of this place, and is one of the best girls of Mt. Carmel, while Mr. McWhorter is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McWhorter and has taught several schools in the county and is a splendid young man. This is the fourth couple for Mt. Carmel in the last three weeks. This community wishes for all four of these couples much joy and happiness through life's journey.

LINWOOD LOCALS

Mrs. Joe Lindsay died about two weeks ago of consumption, after a lingering illness. Her remains were carried to Catoosa county for interment; also Mrs. Lula Deboard died Friday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. Holtzclaw. Funeral services were conducted Sunday morning at ten o'clock from the residence by Rev. A. T. Donahoo, after which her remains were laid to rest in the LaFayette cemetery. She leaves a little son, Thomas Deboard, with whom we sympathize very much.

Though I have been absent so short a time many changes have taken place. There have been some weddings and some deaths as well. Miss Zula Hundy was recently married to a Mr. Simmons and Miss Georgia Hampton was married to Mr. Arthur Fonder. To both couples we extend congratulations and good wishes.

VILLANOW

Mr. Felton Goodson and Miss Minta White were married last Sunday. I assure you that Felton is not a slacker though. Everybody couldn't get married in time of peace, and most of us can't get married at all. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Goodson well.

IN MEMORY

The death angel visited our home Tuesday morning, April 16, 1917, and claimed our dear mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones. Her death was due to heart trouble.

She was born at Rock Springs, Ga., Walker county, on Jan. 10, 1849, and lived there until she was married to Mr. John Jones, of Lafayette, Ga., on Feb. 19, 1871, and lived at Lafayette, Ga., until the death of our father, August 29, 1889. She was left a widow with seven little children and in five weeks the good Lord sent his angels and took the darling baby, so dear mother moved to Trion, Ga., in 1890, and lived there 16 years. She worked and toiled and raised six children to be men and women, then she moved to Alabama City, Ala., in 1906 and lived there until her death. She was a faithful mother, tender and affectionate and a good neighbor. She was loved by all who knew her.

She professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist church in her girlhood. She lived a true christian life. Oh, how sad it is to give up mother, but God does all things for the best, and never puts more on any one than he makes them able to bear, but what a great consolation to know she is through with the troubles of this life. I realize my mother has gone to never return, but I thank God that he through Christ has given us a sweet privilege of meeting our dear loved ones in that beautiful home beyond the skies. Dear mother gave us the sweet assurance of a mansion in heaven, with those sweet smiles upon her face while passing away. Dear mother is the dearest friend on earth. We miss her so much her chair is vacant, her place at the table is vacant, and around our fireside are so lonely without mother. There is no one on earth who can take the place of mother. Jesus is the only one who can take her place.

Mother always looked on the bright side of life. She was good to visit the sick and was always jolly. When her neighbors were blue or bothered would come to her for comfort. She was a blessing in her community.

She leaves four daughters, Misses Dora, Lidie and Minnie Jones, and Mrs. Addie Gregson, and two sons, R. H. Jones, of Rome, Ga., and A. J. Jones of Alabama City, Ala., and six brothers, Jim Rogers, of Rossville, Ga., J. R. Rogers, of Chattanooga, Tenn., O. G. Rogers of East Lake, Tenn., and Andy Rogers, of Rock Springs, Ga., and Bus and George Rogers, of Dallas, Texas, and four [illegible] Temple Dunn, Mrs. Mollie Stephenson and Miss Mattie Rogers, of Rock Springs, Ga., Mrs. Alice Foster, of East Lake, Tenn., and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. But our loss is heaven's gain.

DUCK CREEK

We were sorry to learn of the death of Uncle Theron Crowder, which occurred last Thursday a. m., a week ago. Although he had lived to the ripe old age of 90 years, it is sad to realize he has passed away and that we will see him no more in this life. We have been personally acquainted with him for over 32 years. Always found him the same good citizen, obliging neighbor, good husband and father, and earnest, devoted christian gentleman. A large concourse of relatives and friends attended his funeral at Trinity Friday at 11 o'clock, following his death the previous morning. The large floral collection very forcibly demonstrated the love and esteem of his many relatives and friends. We sympathize with those bereaved. Peace to his ashes.

LITTLE MISS MARGARET ANDREWS DIED MONDAY

Friends of the family of Mr. And Mrs. Garnett Andrews thronged the residence yesterday afternoon attending the funeral service over the body of "Miss Mag," the little ten-year-old girl who died early Monday morning. In one of the reception rooms that was literally filled with flowers where the casket had been placed, and the fair head of the dead exposed. The little one's face escaped even the touch of the fire that had charred the tender body, and despite the three weeks of her acute invalidism the comeliness of the bright young face was unimpaired. She seemed as if in the innocent sleep of precious childhood, her couch a bower of fragrant and beautiful flowers. Lines of former companions, little girls and boys, their young, fresh faces signaling the grief of their hearts, passed the bier for the last view of their mate who had been called to the higher Sunshine Band by the Master of all destiny.

Rector Clark, of St. Paul's, and Father Robertson, of Christ church, officiated, alternating in the reading of the solemn Episcopal service. Mrs. Pryor and Miss Baylor sang two hymns, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me."

On a knoll in Forest Hills the body was laid to rest, the casket lowered into a flower-lined grave as Dr. Clark said a fervent prayer for the beloved dead and for all troubled souls bereaved.—Chattanooga Times.

Friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Andrews sympathize with them in the loss of their little daughter.

IN LOVING MEMORY

On the evening of April 24, 1917 the sad angel of death entered the home of Mrs. M. M. Church and claimed as its own, her granddaughter, the gentle spirit of Ola Mae Franklin.

On Sept. 5, 1897 she just opened her eyes to the light of this world. She was 19 years old. She was a victim of that dreadful disease, pneumonia fever. She was sick only 13 days, but there is only one who knows what she suffered; she bore her pain with a smile.

Ola was such a good girl, always kind to those about her. Then to know her was to love her.

She leaves a heart-broken grandmother, two sisters, one brother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss, but our loss is her eternal gain. Oh, how sad and lonely we are without her.

When we go to the home to visit the loved ones still there it is sad, for there is no Ola to greet us with a smile, but she has gone to that heavenly home and is waiting to greet us there. So let us try to live nearer to God and try to meet dear Ola beyond the pearly waters.

"I go and prepare a place for you, and if I prepare a place for you I'll come back and receive you." Let us try to console ourselves and know that Ola is at rest. We ought to rejoice that her suffering is ended.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Tallent, after which her form was laid to rest in Chickamauga cemetery.

A precious one to us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Sleep on, dear Ola, and take thy rest,
God called thee home, He knoweth best.

—Written by one who loved her.

COUNTY MOURNS DEATH OF T. J. EDGE

PROGRESSIVE AND PROMINENT CITIZEN OF WALKER COUNTY DIED IN HOSPITAL SUNDAY EVENING

Sunday evening at 7:45, the spirit of T. J. Edge, passed into the realms beyond, and Naomi community as well as Walker county lost one of its well-known, well-loved and progressive citizens.

At the time of his death Mr. Edge was 52 years of age. He had been ill only a few weeks, when he was taken to the West-Ellis hospital in Chattanooga for an operation, where he remained eight days when the end came.

Mr. Edge was a prominent citizen of the county, holding many places of responsibility and trust, and always discharged his duties with commendable faithfulness. In his community he was recognized as a leader. He was one of the founders of the Baptist church at Naomi, was a deacon in the church at the time of his death, and was a regular attendant upon its services. He worked for better schools and higher ideals in his district and made his contribution to the progress of his county.

IN MEMORY OF LITTLE DOUGLAS LIVINGSTON

On last Saturday morning the death angel visited the home of Mrs. Belle Pickle Livingston and bore her little son back to the one who gave it. The little jewel was only spared to live five days for being a little sufferer, the allwise Father saw fit to call the little one home where there is no pain. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord," so we would say to the grief stricken mother, "weep not for your darling" for the Father knows best for he said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

A FRIEND.

Tribute to R. T. Trundle

We were sorry to learn of the death of uncle Bob Trundle. We have been intimately acquainted with him for over 30 years. Have visited his home many times, always found a pleasant welcome there. He was a good, clever, genial hearted man, whose place in Wood Station valley will be hard to fill. His children most of whom were once pupils in our school, are all well respected citizens and doing well, which tells, as nothing else can, what kind of a man Mr. Trundle was. He was a special friend of ours and we hate to give him up, but nearly a year ago while visiting at his pleasant home, he told us that when he left this old world he expected to go to a beter place. He is realizing the pleasures of that home now. Peace to his ashes, and our sympathies to his bereaved children.

HENRY BOSS KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

ENGINE LEAVES TRACK NEAR ROSSVILLE—FOUR OF CREW INJURED

Chattanooga, Tenn. — Engineer Henry Boss of the Central of Georgia engine No. 1753, was killed instantly at 8:30 Saturday morning when the engine, which was pulling a string of dump cars loaded with dirt, jumped the track. Four of the crew were slightly injured. Boss' head was crushed.

R. L. Adams, conductor, received a sprained ankle.

Frank Williams, colored fireman, had his right knee sprained.

Sawyer McDaniel and Andrew Hensey, two colored laborers on the train, were slightly bruised.

The engine, at the time of the derailment, was backing down the cut on the east side of Missionary ridge to Rossville, where dirt is being dumped to make a bed for the new tracks that are being laid by the Central of Georgia. The train had just taken on a load of dirt at Brumby, where the Fort Oglethorpe line branches off from the main line.

The train was going twelve or fifteen miles an hour when it jumped the track. The engine and tender turned over and seven of the cars were derailed.

Engineer Boss stayed with the engine until it started over the bank. He jumped and his life was crushed out beneath the tendor. After leaving the track the train ran along the ties, in a course parallel to the rails, for about thirty feet.

Williams stayed with the engine until he was buried from the cab. He landed about fifty feet away in a cornfield. His ear was cut by a barbed wire and his knee was sprained when he struck the ground.

Officials of the Central of Georgia were notified of the wreck by those who witnessed the overturning of the engine and the derailment of the cars. Ambulances belonging to Wann & Son were hurried to the scene of the accident. Dr. George R. West and officials of the road were also on hand. The injured were given first-aid treatment and hurried to the West-Ellis hospital. The body of the engineer was taken to Wann's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial.

Engineer Boss had been with the Central of Georgia about seventeen years. He is a son-in-law of D. V. Musgrove, of Chickamauga. He had been an engineer for twelve years. Surviving him are his wife, one child, and his father. They reside at Co-

MRS. ELIZA SHROPSHIRE

1827—1917

(By Mrs. C. Ellis)

As the morning light was breaking on the fifteenth day of June, the spirit of Mrs. Eliza Shropshire passed to its reward.

Her endurance was long but at last the strength which had sustained her for more than ninety years was spent and she was gone.

Though death feeds upon her mute voice, I know she strove to live for the right and be a blessing to those around her. She died as she lived—unassuming andunafraid.

Early she was impressed with the feeling that she must serve her Lord if her earthly happiness was complete, and so she marched in to living breast front, and never faltered or looked back, but kept on with a firm determination and when at last she met the last enemy, she was not unprepared.

For years before her passing she realized that with a rapid gradualness she was nearing the place and would sometimes remark that her life though seemingly useless was spared for some purpose and that she was glad to live though not afraid to die. Thus in a sacred joy of life she lived, thus in an eternal hope she died.

Hers was a long life, well spent in usefulness and her rare intelligence and personal charm made her, not only loved and respected in her own home, but among her friends and in every circle she entered she was received with a glad welcome.

She met every obstacle in lifewith the sweet dignity that so well befit her and every trial that she underwent made her, as it seemed, more refined and gentle in her manners. Around the standard of truth her character grew and she had thehappy art of remembering and stating accurately facts as witnessed by her or repeated from others.

She was first married in 1849 to W. T. Ellis and to this union was born one son, R. H. Ellis, with whom she lived at the time of her death. She was left a widow in 1861 and with a courage rarely found in one reared in a home of colonial invironments, such as was hers. She set to work, with the aid of her small son, to rebuild the shattered home and all through the dark days of reconstruction, with the same quiet dignity and gentle grace she performed her duty and had the pleasure of seeing the period of peace and plenty, which followed the long turmoil.

In 1882 she married to Col. Wesley Shropshire and after his death in 1890 she again made her home with her son.

We could pay no higher tribute to her life than to say she was a good woman. She is sadly missed in the home where she lived so long and where for six years she was a helpless invalid, no pains was spared to rob her last days of their suffering, but nothing brought the much sought relief and so she quietly and peacefully passed through thevalley of the shadows and fell asleep.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Della Wall Mitchell, daughter of brother and sister, David Wall, and wife of brother Lee Mitchell, was born April 23, 1888. She professed a hope in Christ, and was baptized by Rev. L. S. Leonard into the fellowship of Naomi Baptist church in 1914.

She died March 31st., 1917. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones but we all do bow in humble submission to Him that we know doeth all things for the best. We as members of Naomi church have sustained a loss.

Can we think that it pleased his loving heart to cause us a moment's pain?

No, but he saw through the present cross the bliss of eternal gain.

While we as a church mourn her death, we mourn not as those without hope, for we have the blessed assurance that she was a child of God.

Therefore, be it resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the church record and that a copy be sent to the Walker County Messenger for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
D. N. KEOWN,

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Cooper departed this life March 13, 1917. At the time of her death she was fifty years, ten months and seven days old. She is survived by her husband, A. L. Cooper and nine children, four boys and five girls; A. B. Cooper, R. H. Cooper and A. D. R. Cooper, of Catlett, C. Cooper, of Kensington, Mrs. W. C. Duckett, of Rock Springs, Mrs. H. C. Delay, of Catlett, Mrs. A. H. Dalton, of Chickamauga, Mrs. D. C. Clark, of Catlett, Mrs. T. Vanhorn of Catlett, and two sisters and thirteen grandchildren, as well as a host of other relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Our allwise creator saw fit to take her from her suffering, realizing that she suffered from year to year out with an ulcer on her limb. Still she would not stop for that, she was always doing something. She seemed to enjoy life though in great agony most all the time. She was always ready to lend a helping hand to the needy. It was never too cold or too rainy or too hot for her to help those who needed help. When she heard of any one ill in her community she went there. She would go over to see them and help in any way she could.

We hated to give dear mother up but God's will, not ours be done. We realize that she fought the fight of the faithful to the very end and God has rewarded her for her labors. I realize that mother was prepared to meet Him in peace. Her life in this troublesome world taught me that, and proved it beyond a doubt. My steps and my aims are to meet her in heaven some sweet day by and by.

May God bless my father and brothers and sisters in these sad hours that we have to pass through. Let us realize that our mother and companion is resting in heaven, and that the toils and pains she once bore are turned into peace and happiness now.

Sleep on dear mother and take thy rest.
God called thee home, he knoweth best.

Written by two that loved her dearly, her son and daughter,

CLAY AND ETHEL COOPER.

IN MEMORY

On the beautiful morning of June 1st., 1917, before the light began to dawn on a glorious day, the death angel caught up the kind and gentle spirit of Mrs. Mattie Baker and wended its way to heaven.

Mrs. Baker had been sick but a short while and all that doctors, loving relatives and friends could do was done for her, but she was too good to stay in this world of sorrow, and God called her to come up higher.

She was about 30 years old. She lived a true christian life and tried to live every day as she would wish to die.

Mrs. Baker leaves a husband, father and four sisters, and three brothers, and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. This once happy home is now clouded with darkness. The voice one loved is still; a place in this home is vacant, which never can be filled. One only consolation is in our heavenly father, who alone can help and give us strength to bear what we feel we alone cannot. She has gone away not to return but it gladdens our hearts to know that if we live right we can meet her again.

The funeral services were held at LaFayette by Rev. I. S. Leonard. Everybody that knew her loved her for she was good and kind to everybody, always ready to lend a helping hand to some one that was in need, but her work is done and the crown of life is won.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.

Written by her cousin,

MRS. B. F. GOODSON.

OBITUARY

Brother A. M. Smith, the subject of this short sketch, was the youngest of a family of five children. He was the son of Abraham and Phoeba Smith, was born near Cedar Grove, July the 18th., 1863, and died here at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Massey, on the morning of June 21, 1917.

He was married thirty one years ago to Miss Dova Stout. To them were born five children, who still survive their father, Matvin and Mixon, of Chattanooga, Misses Jewel and Maud Smith, and Mrs. Leva Massey, of this place. His devoted wife preceded him to the better land three years ago. Physically, Bro. Smith was a weak man, having never known the pleasures of a real well day, in his life. The last three months of his life he was a great sufferer, being afflicted with jaundice and dropsy. During all his afflictions and suffering, he was never heard to murmur, or complain, always saying that the Lord's will was his pleasure.

Bro. Smith professed religion, and joined the Methodist church in his boyhood, and was ever afterwards a true christian, and faithful member of his church. His father was a gallant officer in the confederate army, and was killed while leading his men in a skirmish near Dunlap, Tenn., when his son was only three or four months old.

His parents were Godly folks, and when his christian mother realized that she must be father and mother both to her children, she reconsecrated her life to God, casting all her cares upon Him and set about to bring up her children in

Sunday night, May 20th., 1917, at the West-Ellis hospital, Chattanooga, Tenn., after a short illness, the death angel visited and took our beloved brother, T. J. Edge from us.

He was born July 31, 1864. Joined Wood Station Baptist church in 1892, was ordained one of its deacons in 1894 and came from there as a charter member of Naomi Baptist church in 1898, and remained as one of its loyal and faithful members, deacons and treasurer until his death.

We will say to his wife, who was Miss Laura Moon before their marriage October 5th, 1890, and his two sons John and Tom, that we extend to you our heartfelt sympathy and love.

Like Jesus, his Master, he was an humble man, therefore criticism did not thwart or confuse his plan to do good to all men in this world. Likewise, his faith being firmly fixed in God, the Father, through belief in Jesus, he was exalted to a place as heir of God and joint heir of his Christ. So nothing could be said or done by Mary that would exalt mind or soul and hinder it's bearing the likeness of his creator.

If every one to whom he did a kindness had laid one flower on his grave the flowers would say more to commend his life of help to the needy, comfort and consolation to the orphan and widows, care and painstaking to defend and declare the unsearchable riches of the words of Jesus of Nazareth, than these words of this committee, approved by his church to place upon our book of record a page to the memory of his life. Like his life we to seek to point all who read this memorandum to the "Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world."

D. N. KEOWN,
H. A. EVANS,
CARLTON BROCK,

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Little Miss [illegible] H. Kilgore, who was 21 and Mrs. J. [illegible] 13 days old when God in months and [illegible] knowledge saw fit to take His allwise [illegible] his world of pain and him from [illegible] sorrow.

We cannot understand why little Darwin was taken from us. He had always been the very picture of health until February 28th., when he contracted a case of scarlet fever. When we began to think the crisis was passed he took measles and his little body was racked with untold suffering for many days, but the little sufferer bore his suffering with such patience that all were made to wonder at his strength of endurance. Again as we began to hope for our little darling another affliction seized him in the form of dropsy; and for several weeks caused him much suffering. As he began to recover for the third time malarial fever set up and he lingered with that dreadful disease until pneumonia took its course. His agonizing pains were great but the bravo little sufferer would never forget to wave the sweet little hand at his many friends and loved ones when his strength was almost exhausted. When the doctor began to say that it might be also seized him there everything was done that human hands could do. But alas! the Giver of all good gifts know best and the dreadful disentery must have its course. For two long weeks we had to see our precious little darling suffer miseries untold, when it seemed that there was nothing else to be done for his recovery. God then in his loving kindness relieved him of his suffering here and took him home to heaven as a precious jewel for his kingdom.

AUNT LIZZIE.

IN MEMORY

On June 12, 1917, Brother William A. Weaver, a venerable citizen of Walker County, and beloved member of Wood Station Lodge No. 233, F. & A. M., departed this life. On the 14th., his remains were interred in the Rock Spring cemetery with Masonic honors. Pastmaster James P. Shattuck, conducting the solemn ceremonies in the presence of a large concourse of Masons and friends.

Brother Weaver was made a Mason in Washington Lodge, No. 19, at Cuthbert, Ga., in 1868, affiliated with Wood Station Lodge No. 233, at its institution and held membership therein until the day of his death. He served as secretary from 1891 to 1897, re-elected in 1900 and served to 1906.

Brother Weaver saw four years of active service in the Confederate army in the Civil War, being first lieutenant in the 39th. Georgia Regiment. He was a member of Pearline Baptist church and served his church for more than sixty years. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, and a true and worthy Mason. While we weep with those who are revel the light break's through the cloud of our tears and our hearts rejoice that we shall meet again.

Be it resolved, that a copy of this memorial be furnished his family, and a copy furnished the Walker County Messenger for publication, and a page in our record be dedicated to his memory.

M. H. MAYFIELD GETS 8-YEAR SENTENCE

WAS CONVICTED OF VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER AND RECOMMENDED TO THE MERCY OF THE COURT FOR KILLING R. L. GIBBS

The case of M. H. Mayfield charged with the murder of R. L. Gibbs on Dec. 4th. last year, was tried Tuesday in the Superior court. Many witnesses were introduced by the both sides, however, the evidence of Mr. Mayfield's daughter was not permitted to be heard before the jury. J. T. Higgins and his son, Lamar Higgins, swore that they were picking cotton in the field when they saw Gibbs and Mayfield coming down the road together, and the former called to Higgins to come to the fence. Higgins told Gibbs to come over the fence if he wanted to see him and just as Gibbs started to climb the fence, Higgins swore, Mayfield shot Gibbs.

The case created much interest on the part of the citizens of the county, and the case took most of the day Tuesday. The jury came in Tuesday afternoon late with the verdict of voluntary manslaughter with a recommendation that the mercy of the court be extended the defendant. Wednesday morning the judge passed sentence of eight years on Mayfield.

W. H. PAYNE DROWNED EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

The news of the death of W. H. Payne, who was drowned in the Tennessee river early Sunday morning, will be read with deep regret by many county people. He had planned a fishing trip in honor of one of his friends in Virginia and the party left the docks about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, expecting to return about 8 that night. Engine trouble delayed the party on its return trip until 2:30 Sunday morning, when they arrived at the docks from which they departed. Mr. Payne in stepping aside to let his guests pass out over the gang plank, missed his footing and fell into the river. While the place where he fell was not deep water he was caught in the barge and his body was not found until four o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Payne had won the friendship and esteem of many county people, having been in attendance at the Walker Superior courts for a number of years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning. His body was taken to Woonsocket, R. I., for interment.

LINWOOD LOCALS

I am spending this week with my friend Mrs. J. H. Pollard, of Summerville.

Last Thursday evening the Boy Scouts entertained at the Community house. Quite a crowd were present and a degree of Tenderfoot was conferred on quite a number of the boys. Mr. Probasco addressed them on how to be good citizens. He made a strong appeal to them to be honest and truthful, and Dr. Underwood talked interestingly on how to keep the body in a healthy condition. He also told the boys to remember their Creator in th edays of their youth.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Hanly died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gossel, Friday and was buried at Villanow Saturday. She had been suffering for several months from a complication of diseases.

Born last Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Deed Surrett, a little daughter, who has been named Mary Francis.

OBITUARY

Wellborn Smith was the son of J. F. and Mrs. Roxana Smith. He was born at Cedar Grove, Ga., July 31, 1871, died at Shrevesport, La., June 15, 1917. He professed religion and joined the Baptist church when a young man in college at Guilford, N. C., and lived a faithful christian life to the day of his death. He was a member in good standing of the Woodmen of the World. He was buried by the order with its highest honors.

He left here some 16 or 18 years ago. After spending sometime in Oklahoma, he settled in Louisana. He began life there as an overseer on a farm. At his death he owned a half interest in the farm, the stock, tools, cotton gins and other property that it took to run a farm of 1500 acres. Wellborn did all this by pluck and energy. He was a man of fine intellect, well educated, polished manners and clean habits. He did not fret himself because of evil doers, but by example tried to lead them to a higher life; neither was he envious against the workers of iniquity, he trusted in the Lord and did good. From childhood he seemed to commit his way unto God, feeling that he would bring it to pass. His life was all smiles, all sunshine, he seemed to never see any dark side to life, he seemed to love everybody and everybody seemed to love him. He was the best natured man from childhood I ever knew. I doubt if he had an enemy on earth. His many friends, and his wonderful success as a business man, speaks for his life more than we are able to write, yet we delight in doing honor to such a life as was Webb Smith's.

The Lord knoweth the upright, and their inheritance shall be forever. Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace. Such was the end of Webb Smith's short but useful life. When the summons came he was ready. He laid down his labors here to enter eternal rest in that blessed clime where his pleasures will never more be disturbed.

To his people, weep not. Rejoice and be glad, Webb is at rest. Just hold to God's unchanging hand and you will meet him again. A. T. W.

JOHN SMITH KILLED BY WIFE MONDAY

CAR STRIKE STILL ON IN CHATTANOOGA—THE ROSSVILLE BI-STATE COURIER MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE

Rossville, Ga., Sept. 17.—Report reached here early Monday morning of the killing of Mr. John Smith, by his wife Mrs. Sallie Smith, a farmer, about 55 years old and resided about three miles South of Rossville. The killing was at the Smith home about 6 o'clock Monday morning. The report is that on Sunday evening Mr. Smith made a threat that he was going to have satisfaction over a disputed matter about the misplacement of his bank book with his wife. It is said that when Mr. Smith entered the room of his wife Monday morning that it was in a threatening manner and that his wife picked up a revolver and shot her husband. The only eye witness was a daughter so we are informed who is about 16-years old. Mrs. Smith was later arrested by Constable J. P. Tucker, and brought to Rossville, where she has since been under guard. The committal trial will probably be Tuesday, and before Esquire D. H. Hixon. The remains of Mr. Smith, it is said will be interred Tuesday at Mission Ridge cemetery. The family has several children, some of whom are married. Both parties are well connected.

The Street car strike of the Chattanooga Railway & Light Company is still being actively contested by both sides. Cars are being operated by non-union men. Sunday afternoon when a Chickamauga Park car was returning from the Park and passing through Rossville, and just after passing to the Tennessee side, it is said that the car was being showered by brick bats, and that while this was going on one of the guards on the car fired his shot gun into the large crowd that was gathered, above the heads of crowd as he said, one of the shots taking effect, striking Mr. Wm. Eaves, an innocent bystander who was in the F. W. Sorrell's Furniture store. Mr. Eaves was hit by three of the shots, one hitting him in the forehead, the other about the shoulder, and another near the hip. It is thought that the wounds are not serious. The car after the shooting made its run on to the city where the guard was placed under arrest, who after gave bond for his appearance before the court.

Rev. J. Bernard Tallent, who has been pastor of the First Baptist church at Rossville for three years has tendered his resignation to take effect Oct. 1, 1917. Bro. Tallent has accepted a call to the Baptist church at Douglassville, Ga. The church and town regrets very much to give up Bro. Tallent, as he has done a great work here in his church, and made a splendid citizen for this town.

It was with much sorrow that we learned of the death of Mr. W. H. Payne, of Chattanooga, who lost his life by drowning in the Tennessee river at Chattanooga. The funeral which was held at his late residence

DUCK CREEK

Miss Lula Rodgers, who has been confined to her bed for several years with rheumatism and tuberculosis, died Sunday morning about 9 o'clock. She suffered a great deal, but bore her suffering with christian fortitude, never complaining at what her creator had permitted her to pass through. Now while her wrecked remains lie under the silent sods at old Trinity cemetery her spirit is basking in the eternal bliss of heaven, with loved ones gone before. May her life be emulated by those left behind, both relatives and friends. She was about 60 years of age. Her remains were deposited at Trinity graveyard Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock. Her pastor, Rev. J. G. Lupo, conducted the services. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all in this hour of sadness.

JAMES H. HILL DIED AT HIS HOME SATURDAY

WAS A LEADING CITIZEN OF CHATTOOGA COUNTY—WELL-KNOWN TO A WIDE CIRCLE OF WALKER COUNTY FRIENDS

Jas. H. Hill, one of the most prominent citizens of Chattooga county, and well-known to a wide circle of friends in Walker, died almost suddenly at his home at Lyerly Saturday afternoon. He went to his store as usual Saturday morning, but about noon complained of not feeling well. No alarm was caused by his illness until about 2 o'clock, when a physician was summoned but before the physician arrived Mr. Hill had passed away.

Mr. Hill was about fifty years of age, and had been a merchant for about ten years. He was a member of the Chattooga county board of roads and revenue at the time of his death, and was considered one of the county's leading citizens.

The deceased is survived by his wife and one son, Archie W. Hill, of Lyerly, and one brother, Archie H. Hill, of Chattanooga, and two sisters, Miss Annie Hill, of Lyerly, and Mrs. Nell Lewis, of Tallapoosa, Ga.

The remains were brought to LaFayette Monday morning, and funeral services were held from the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. L. A. Seymour, of Lyerly. The beautiful floral offerings, and the large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives from Lyerly and Chattooga county, as well as from LaFayette, attested to the high esteem in which Mr. Hill was held.

The Masonic lodge at Lyerly, of which Mr. Hill was a devoted member, assisted by the LaFayette Masonic order, took charge of the remains after the services at the church, and he was laid to rest in the local cemetery with full Masonic rites and honors.

IN MEMORY

Sister Elsberry, nee Hulbert, who departed this life on Oct. 7, 1916, was born June 13, 1853, was reared in Polk county, Ga. On April 29, 1883 she was married to John W. Elsberry, to whom were born five children, three boys and two girls. Her husband and two sons still survive her, two girls and one boy having gone on before.

Twenty years ago she united with East Armuchee church, where she lived a humble, consecrated christian life until death. Her mind was a little unbalanced at times but when she was at herself she always gave God the praise. We believe Sister Elsberry is now basking in the sunlight of His glory. She was a good, kind neighbor, ever doing what she could for the sick in the community. She loved her church, her home and her neighbors, was a very affectionate wife and a loving, indulgent mother. Oh, how she longed to see her two boys become good useful christian men.

Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones, but we would say to the husband, sons and relatives, "Mourn not for her as one having no hope. For blessed are they who die in the Lord."

She was laid to rest in the East Armuchee cemetery to await the resurrection of the just, in the presence of a large congregation, J. W. Kinsey conducting the services.

Mrs. Dr. L. Griffith, G. A. Hames, Mrs. Martha Parson.

WARREN

Death has again been in our midst and claimed for its victim, the gentle spirit of A. J. Wheeler. When the news was sent over the telephone that he was dead, there were never sadder hearts in this community. To know him was to love him. He had a kind word for everybody. Was always ready to lend a helping hand. We would say to the bereaved, "weep not but live so you may meet your treasure in that land beyond this vale of tears.

Just before the break of day Monday morning, the Lord needed another jewel to fill a vacant place in heaven and claimed for its victim Howard Rutledge. The little one was the pet of the home. But oh, how he is missed, never to hear that childish voice on earth anymore. but he will call for you in that land where there is no tears and parting. He is survived by father and mother, three brothers and two sisters. The remains were carried to Center Point and the funeral was conducted by Rev. I. S. Leonard in a very impressive manner.

TROUSSEAU SHOWER IN HONOR OF MRS. JOHN RHYNE

The home of Miss Beacie Steele was the scene of a very pretty party on Monday evening, when the Glee Club tendered a trousseau shower to one of its former members, Mrs. John Rhyne, a recent bride.

The dining room and parlor, where the guests were received, were tastefully decorated with fall vases of cut flowers, ferns and potted plants. After a pleasantly spent social hour the dining room was thrown open and the bride escorted to this room where the club's colors, green and white, prevailed. A pleasing feature of the evening was the bride's table with its central decoration, a basket of white chrysanthemums tied with green ribbon. Green and white streamers were festooned from the chandelier and held at the four corners of the table by tiny cupids, while about the table were laid the dainty gifts for the bride.

During a delicious salad and sweet course, which was served buffet style, toasts and wishes were given to the bride by each member of the club. Mrs. Rhyne was then unanimously elected an honorary member of the club.

Mrs. Robt. Barnes died the 17 inst. and was laid to rest at Fairview the next day. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Bradley. She was a young and beautiful girl and it was sad to see her go although Mr. Barnes is so young. This is the second time he has had to go through the ordeal of giving up a companion.

IN MEMORY

Of W. C. Hendrix, whose home was at Lenox, Ga., at the time of his death and who was 67 years of age at his calling away.

He was well known in LaFayette, also in Summerville, having lived at both places a number of years before moving to South Georgia five years ago.

He was born May 9, 1850, married Miss L. Isabelle Housch in 1873, who died in 1882. Two years later he married Miss Hester Ann Polk, who yet survives him. He died June 4th, 1917 at Tifton, Ga., hospital, following an operation for appendicitis.

He was a prosperous farmer. So exact was he in all his dealings that none could have cause to find fault with him. Perhaps no one tried harder to manifest the right spirit to all, and to give to each full justice in everything.

He reared to manhood and womanhood two sons and five daughters, all of whom survive him, and hold in highest honor and love his memory and truly we can saw, "Father was a man of noble, honest and upright character, provided well for his household and was very kind and good to each of us, and always ready to give aid where it was needed."

He was an ardent christian, a faithful member of the Methodist church. His last few days on earth were attended with much suffering, but in it all, and when well nigh unconscious of earthly surroundings

IN MEMORIAM

Thomas Jefferson Moreland, the subject of this sketch was born May 19, 1838, in Monroe County, Tennessee. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Robt. Jones, at Rossville, Georgia, September 4, 1917, at 9:30 o'clock a. m. He had reached the age of 79 years, 3 months and 16 days.

He was the son of Pleasant Moreland, his father, and Margaret Irwin Moreland, his mother.

His father was born in Blount County, Tennessee, and died in 1862, at the age of 60 years.

His mother was born in Monroe County, Tennessee, and died in the year 1856. Her maiden name was Margaret Irwin.

Mr. Moreland, the subject of this sketch, moved during the period of his young days, to Hamilton County, Tennessee, later to Dade County, Georgia, where he spent the greater part of his life, residing at Sulphur Springs, and Rising Fawn. A few years ago he moved to Rossville, Walker County, Georgia, where he spent the remainder of his days.

Mr. Moreland leaves three children; William A. Moreland, who lives at Chattanooga, Tenn., one daughter, Mrs. Lorena Caylor, who resides at Copper Hill, Tenn., and one daughter, Mrs. Maude M. Jones, (wife of Chas. Robt. Jones,) of Rossville, Georgia. He leaves many other relatives.

Mr. Moreland joined the Baptist church in 1884, and at the time of his death was a deacon in the First Baptist church of Rossville. He lived a good christian life. Devoted to the work of the Lord, he did what he could for the furtherance of his kingdom. "Blessed are they who thirst after righteousness, for they shall be called the children of God."

In the year 1885, Mr. Moreland joined the order of Free and Accepted Masons, at Rising Fawn, Ga., his membership later on being moved to Rossville Lodge No. 397. In the sublime degrees of this great fraternity, his fraternal light was so administered that he became a living example of its teaching and tenets.

How we regret to give up our loved ones! The ties of nature bind

IN MEMORY

Of W. C. Hendrix, whose home was at Lenox, Ga., at the time of his death and who was 67 years of age at his calling away.

He was well known in LaFayette, also in Summerville, having lived at both places a number of years before moving to South Georgia five years ago.

He was born May 9, 1850, married Miss L. Isabelle Housch in 1873, who died in 1882. Two years later he married Miss Hesfer Ann Polk, who yet survives him. He died June 4th, 1917 at Tifton, Ga., hospital, following an operation for appendicitis.

He was a prosperous farmer. So exact was he in all his dealings that none could have cause to find fault with him. Perhaps no one tried harder to manifest the right spirit to all, and to give to each full justice in everything.

He reared to manhood and womanhood two sons and five daughters, all of whom survive him; and hold in highest honor and love his memory and truly we can saw, "Father was a man of noble, honest and upright character, provided well for his household and was very kind and good to each of us, and always ready to give aid where it was needed."

He was an ardent christian, a faithful member of the Methodist church. His last few days on earth were attended with much suffering, but in it all, and when well nigh unconsacious of earthly surroundings, he talked to and leaned upon the Sympathizing Savior as came his painful breathing. With confidence he could say, "It is allright, let His will, not mine, be done."

The memory of his faithful life will remain an inspiration for us who are left in the confident hope of meeting dear father again in the pearly white city, eternal in the heavens, where there shall be no more sorrow, suffering, nor death.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Adel, and were conducted by Rev. W. C. Glenn and Rev. J. F. McTyre. The burial took place in the Adel cemetery.

An esteemed citizen, a loving husband and a true father, whose loss is mourned by a faithful wife, sorrowing sons and daughters and grandchildren, with a host of friends and relatives of both the northern and southern part of the state has passed into the great beyond.

Farewell, dear father, until we meet again in the home of the blest.

"Someday with tearless eye we'll see.

And then, oh, then, we'll understand."

His daughter,
BEULAH.

MRS. J. C. CLEMENT

"Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The Reaper came that day,
'Twas an angel visited the green earth,
And took the flower away."

It is sad, nevertheless it is true, that death has again thrust its inevitable hand into our midst and has taken one of our true friends.

Mrs. Clement was stricken with blood poison September 15 and on September 19 God removed her sweet spirit from earth to Heaven.

Her death was a shock to the entire community and a heart crushing affliction to the family.

She was loved by all who knew her, for her sweet, gentle and cheerful ways, her lovable disposition won for her a multitude of friends.

Our hearts are saddened and our eyes dimmed with tears of sorrow; yet we rejoice, in the fact that these clouds of grief have on them reflected the rainbow of a sweet life.

Oh! the love that survives the tomb is one of the noblest attributes of the soul. If it has its woes, it has likewise its delights and when the overwhelming burst of grief is calmed into the gentle tear of recollection, then our sudden anguish and

LITTLE CLARA AIKEN CRUSHED TO DEATH

UNDER LUMBER PILE SUNDAY AFTERNOON WHILE PLAYING "HIDE AND SEEK"—FUNERAL SERVICE MONDAY AFTERNOON

A horrible accident happened Sunday afternoon in West LaFayette when little Clara Aiken, the eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Aiken, was crushed to death under a stack of green lumber.

Little Clara with a few of her companions were playing "hide and seek" Sunday afternoon. when she hid under the porch of one of the new houses the Walker County Hosiery Mill is constructing, on which has been stacked about 1500 feet of green lumber.

Not being able to easily find little Clara, her companions went to this house and jumped upon the stack of lumber. When they did this, the porch flooring gave way, the full weight of the lumber falling on little Clara, resulting in instant death. Immediately the alarm was raised and within a short time several neighbors were on the scene. The lumber was removed and prize poles were used in getting the body extricated. Her little neck was completely broken and both hips were crushed. Her body was in a badly mangled condition.

Funeral services were held from the residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. A. Lewis, pastor of Linwood Baptist church. Interment followed in the local cemetery.

Rarely has such a horrible accident occurred here, and the entire community extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved parents and family.

IN MEMORY

The wife of Thomas Stoker departed this life Sept. 7, 1917, being 47 years of age. She was the mother of nine children, and she was a devoted christian woman, was kind and gentle to everyone with whom she came in contact.

How sad and desolate the home is without that loving mother, but God knoweth best for all things.

She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, eight children, and a host of friends and relatives, far and near.

Weep not for she is at rest where there will be no more suffering.

She was laid to rest in the Trinity cemetery. Services were conducted by W. S. Hamilton.

IN MEMORY OF LUCILE BURK

"Be still sad hearts, cease repining,
Behind the cloud the sun is still shining;
Thy fate is the common fate of all,
Into each life some rain must fall."

On October 12, 1917, the little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burk was fearfully burned, death resulted Wednesday, Oct. 17, at six o'clock.

Lucile was a bright loving child, to know her was to love her. She will be missed throughout the whole community. But oh, how much more she will be missed in the home where for three short years she had been the light and sunbeam.

She was indeed too fair a flower for this old world, so God called her to a beautiful home not made with hands.

Everything was done by father, mother, physician and friends to save her. But God, "said come up higher your work on earth is done."

She leaves a father, mother, four sisters, one brother, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

The funeral services was conducted by Rev. McFarland and the little body was laid to rest by the side of her little brother in the Chickamauga cemetery.

Sweet darling,—
Light of the home,—
Looking for someone,
Beckoning come,
Bright as a sunbeam,
Pure as the dew,
Anxiously waiting
Mother for you.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. VIRGIE PARTAIN

On the evening of October 1st, 1917, the gentle spirit of Virgie Partain winged its immortal flight back to the God who gave it, after several weeks of suffering.

She was the oldest daughter of G. W. Autry. She was born Feb. 7, 1896.

On April 19, 1914, she was married to Mr. Thomas Partain, having only one little girl. She was a kind and loving wife, but a voice from the spirit world called her serenly to her final rest. She passed while the sweet memories of her virtues yet linger like twilight here.

When the bright sun has set, our hearts and homes are so sad. How we miss you, 'tis so sad to know that we will never hear her gentle voice again, or see her smiling face, but God does nothing wrong. We imagine as her glad spirit freed from all pain, passed through the gates of heaven, her soul shouted back to earth, "Oh death, where is thy sting, oh grave where is thy victory?"

The gates of heaven were opened wide
A gentle voice said come,
An angel from the other side
Welcomed our loved one home.

Ere long for us life's trials will be over, then how sweet twill be when we meet our loved ones on the eternal shore.

She spoke of her lord, I am sure she is at rest and I hope some day I will see dear Bert and be with her for evermore.

She leaves a dear little baby, one year and 6 months old, a husband, father, 4 brothers, two sisters, and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

Sleep on dear Bert and take thy rest,

CAPT. AND MRS. J. M. JACKSON CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A social event of more than usual interest was that of Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 19th., when Capt. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jackson, on South Main street.

The interior of the lovely Jackson home was made beautiful by decorations of yellow Chrysanthemums and Southern Smilax. The parlor, reception room, music room and dining room were thrown together to accommodate the sixty-five guests that gathered to do honor to Capt. and Mrs. Jackson.

The dining room was attractively decorated for the occasion. Yellow streamers from the chandelier were caught at the four corners of the table and the subdued lights and burning tapers gave a distinctly golden cast to the entire room. The table itself bore a large heart-shaped cake in the center.

Promptly at three-thirty o'clock the guests gathered. In the receiving line were Mrs. J. E. Patton, Mrs. J. A. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fortune, Mrs. R. S Steele and Miss Beadle Steele.

DR. JAMES R. BROCK DEALT FATAL BLOW

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 28.—The body of Dr. James R. Brock, deputy warden of the Atlanta Federal prison, who was killed Thursday morning by Demeter Popoff, a convict, was sent to Chattanooga Thursday night at 8:50 o'clock by Harry G. Poole. The body will be taken from there to Trenton, Ga., a few miles from Chattanooga, where funeral services and interment will take place Friday afternoon.

Popoff struck Dr. Brock with a heavy piece of iron pipe, which he had concealed under his clothing while at breakfast. He approached the deputy warden as the convicts filed from the dining room and drawing his weapon as he advanced dealt Dr. Brock a terrific blow, crushing his skull.

Popoff was sent to the Atlanta prison from Toledo, Ohio, May 21st of this year, under a five-year term for counterfeiting.

Dr. Brock, a native of Trenton, Ga., was a graduate of the Atlanta Medical College and of the School of Medicine of New York City. For three years, from 1889 to 1892, he was warden of the prison camp at Rising Fawn, after which he was made warden in Dade county. Ten years ago he represented Dade county in the legislature and was senator from the Forty-Fourth District for one term. Four years ago, when the Wilson administration went into office, he was appointed chief deputy marshal of the District of North Georgia. He held this position until May 1, 1917, when he accepted the appointment from Washington as deputy warden at the Federal prison. He succeeded Howard C. Arnold.

MISS MAY BRIDGES DIED AT CASSANDRA SUNDAY NIGHT

The death of Miss May Bridges, of Cassandra, early Sunday night, after a short illness, came as a distinct shock to relatives and friends in that section. Miss Bridges was an orphan, and had lived with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Singleterry, since early childhood.

Funeral services were held from the New Prospect Baptist church, of which she was a consistent member, Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. W. Shumate. The members of the Sunday school class of the deceased acted as pallbearers. Interment followed in the Singleterry graveyard.

Miss Bridges was a young woman of splendid Christian character, was an active worker in the church and Sunday school, and was popular among a wide circle of friends. Her death will be mourned by all those who knew her, and in her passing the community in which she lived sustains a great loss.

DUCK CREEK

We have been trying for the last six weeks to catch up with our wood chopping and firemaking but it seems that we make but little progress toward that end. It seems natural for us to say we never saw the like before, but if this writer has ever experienced such an extensive cold, bad spell, so early in the winter season, he has no recollection of it. Perhaps it may be the forerunner of a good crop year. Hope so at least. The continual freezing of the land will put the soil in good shape for cultivation and furnish a good seed bed if we just don't get in too great a hurry and plow our land wet in the spring.

We tender our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Kinch in their loss of their little babe which died last Saturday week from the effects of infantile paralysis. It was not quite a year old, but had been with the parents long enough for them to realize the love parents have for their little ones. Everything was done to restore the little one to health but to no avail. Its remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Trinity graveyard Sunday afternoon following its death.

We were sorry to learn of the death of our esteemed friend, H. W. Rogers of Cedar Grove. We have been intimately acquainted with him for many years and always esteemed him as one of our best friends. Many times have we met at his hospitable home where we have spent many pleasant hours. We realize of a truth that he will be missed in his home community, in his church and Sunday school and especially around his family hearthstone. We tender our sympathy to his bereaved loved ones and would commend them to Him who has promised not to make our burdens heavier than we can bear.

Bob Williams died at his home north of Trion Monday night and was buried at the family cemetery Wednesday. The bereaved family has the sympathy of many friends here.

IN MEMORY OF MAY BRIDGES

On Sunday, Jan. 13, 1918, the death angel came in to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Singleterry and took the gentle spirit of May Bridges. She had just passed into her 20th year. It was a shock to all for she was sick such a short time.

All was done that loving hands could do but God said, "Come up higher, to the home which I have prepared for my children." Loving neighbors and kind friends mingled their tears with ours and spoke comforting words, but our sorrow was too great for human words to reach.

We followed the remains of our loved one to New Prospect Baptist church, where she had so often gone and there we listened to the tender words of Rev. J. W. Shumate. Then her body was tenderly laid to rest in the Singleterry graveyard.

We mourn not as those who have no hope for she had given her heart to God and joined the New Prospect church and had lived a sweet christian life.

She had made her home with her grandmother Singleterry and no mother could have been more faithful than she.

We loved her, yes, we loved her,
But angels loved her more;
For they have sweetly called her
To yonder shining shore.

She was just in the prime of life when her lamp of life was extinguished. We cannot understand why she was taken from us as it was such a pleasure to be with her, but our next meeting will be in the home not made with hands.

She leaves her grandfathers and grandmothers and several aunts and uncles with a host of friends to mourn her departure.

Written by her aunt,
RENA HENSON.

The following announcement of the approaching wedding of Miss Signe Bergwall, of LaFayette and Mr. Clay A. McFarland of Rossville, son of J. R. McFarland, will be of great interest to their many county friends:

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wardlaw, announce the engagement and approaching nuptials of their adopted daughter,
Signe Martha Bergwall
to
Mr. Clay Allen McFarland

IN MEMORY.

On Oct. 17, 1917 the great monster of death came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Burk and took away their little three year old daughter, Lucile, who had the misfortune on Friday Oct. 12th, of getting burned so badly that death resulted. Words cannot express the agony she suffered but she bore it bravely. All that loving hands could do was done for her, but to no avail.

Her mother, who was also burned so badly in trying to save her little darling, was unable to minister to her needs.

Why so dark a shadow has been cast over the home of this loved one at this time we cannot understand, but after while we will understand.

We will say to the bereaved parents, "Weep not for your little darling, for some day, sooner or later we will meet again in the house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

The little body was laid to rest in the Chickamauga cemetery in the presence of a host of relatives and friends, there to await the resurrection morn.

Written by one who loved and knew her.

IN MEMORY OF ROBERT L. KILLINGSWORTH

"Tis not all of life to live,
Nor all of death to die;
Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years,
And that life is love.

The death angel came on Dec. 27, last and claimed as its prize the bright and promising young life of Robert Killingsworth.

After all that love and skill could do for his relief during an awful illness of three days he passed away at his home in Chattanooga Valley, near Cenchat. Robert was born in July 1896, being the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Killingsworth, and by his genial and genteel disposition won for himself the place of favorite in the home and with his friends and associates.

Birth and death note the beginning and the end of temporal existence, but it is the filling in of the intervening years that declares a life and determines its real meaning, and so the years that intervened with Robert were busy, studious years, fitting himself for a useful life, and making for himself many friends, among old and young, in the community in which he had always lived. His was a noble life well spent.

To his dear ones, and to us, it seems he died before his time, that the calendar measured for him a deficiency of years, but alas, it is not for us to determine what shadows are necessary for the fulfilling of

MRS. MARY A. JONES FALLS ON SLEEP

DIED AT RIPE OLD AGE OF 93—WAS MEMBER OF ONE OF THE OLDEST FAMILIES IN GEORGIA

The death of Mrs. Mary Ann Jones, widow of Revis M. Jones, at her home near Catlett last Wednesday night, removed from the county one of its oldest and most respected women. The deceased was in her ninety-third year, and up to the past few months her health had been remarkably good for one of her age.

She was a daughter of the late Edom G. W. Moon, Sr., and was born near Monroe, Ga., in Walton county. She moved with her father to Walker county in 1850 and in 1852 she was married to Revis M. Jones. She lived at the old homestead for more than a half century.

Mrs. Jones is survived by one brother, E. G. W. Moon, Jr., and two children, E. G. W. Jones, of Catlett, and Charles Robert Jones, of Rossville.

The deceased was a member of one of the oldest families in Georgia. Her father, Edom Moon, was born in 1773 and died at the age of 95, while her grandfather Moon was over 100 years of age at the time of his death. She was one of the daughters of the Revolution.

She was a devout Christian, was a member of the Baptist church for more than fifty years, and was loved by a large circle of friends who mourn her death. Her counsels were always wise and young as well as old were always glad to go to her home.

Funeral services were held Friday morning at eleven o'clock at the Moon cemetery at Catlett, conducted by Rev. W. C. Talient and Rev. J. M. Coley. The large concourse of friends attested to the high esteem in which she was held.

Ed Green who has been sick for several weeks died a few days back and was laid away to rest in the Naomi cemetery, Rev. I. S. Leonard conducting the funeral services.

BERGWALL—McFARLAND

On February 14, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wardlaw on North Main street was the scene of a wedding most beautiful in that charming simplicity which makes these occasions so sacredly sublime.

This marriage united the lives of Miss Signe Bergwall the adopted daughter of the house, and Mr. Clay A. McFarland, son of Senator and Mrs. James R. McFarland of Rossville.

Promptly at the hour of 3:30 the groom entered the long double parlors and paused before the connecting archway where he awaited the bride, who, clad in her robes of shimmering Duchess satin, with shower bouquet of roses and valley lilies, entered on the arm of her foster father, Mr. J. F. Wardlaw, who gave her in marriage. Here they were met by the Reverend C. R. Jones, pastor of the First M. E. church, Rossville, who read the beautiful ceremony in a most impressive manner.

Mrs. McFarland, as Miss Bergwall, since her residence in LaFayette, has by her winning personality, and charming manner, drawn around her a circle of admiring friends, who delight in wishing this happy pair "Bon Voyage," on the matrimonial sea, while Mr. McFarland possessing all those characteristics of sterling worth and staunch integrity which are inherent qualities of this prominent family, carries with him the congratulations and best wishes of hosts of friends.

After the ceremony a delicious ice course was served, after which the young couple left for a ten days bridal trip, and will thereafter reside near Chattanooga, where the groom is engaged in the automobile business.

PASSES TO REWARD

MAN OF DEEP PIETY AND WAS LOVED BY THOSE WHO KNEW HIM — FUNERAL SERVICES LAST FRIDAY

James A. Park, Confederate veteran and pioneer citizen of LaFayette, died at his home on Cherokee Ave., last Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after a lingering illness of several months. Several days before his death it was evident that he was "nearing the place," and that he could not hold out very much longer.

Mr. Park was born in Troup county, Ga., near LaGrange, Jan. 30, 1834, being 81 years of age at the time of his death. He was the grandson of Thomas Park, a pioneer citizen of Putnam county, Ga. From the earliest years of his life, he was a devout Methodist, joining the church at the age of 15 years, and for fifty-one consecutive years he served as a steward. His great-great grandfather, Jesse Lane and his grandfather, Jonathan Lane, built one of the first Methodist meeting houses in Georgia, with hand-sawed logs.

On October 15, 1857, Mr. Park was happily married to Ann E. Smith, who preceded him to the grave five and one-half years. Mr. Park was a volunteer in the Confederate army, being lieutenant in the Thirty-ninth Georgia, Co. F, in which position he served with fidelity and honor to himself and the Confederacy. In the battle of Cassville, Ga., he lost his left arm, while commanding his company. His bravery was worthy of his colonial ancestors who fought in the war of the Revolution. All of his grandsons, old enough, are with the colors now. Lieut. Park Simmons, who won his commission in the second officers' training camp at Ft. Oglethorpe, is now on the Mexican border. Paul Simmons, third officer on mine sweeper S. S. Margaret, and James Potts, are with the marines.

Surviving the deceased are ten children. They are as follows: Mrs. J. R. Potts, of Ringgold; Mrs. W. W. Genier and Mrs. D. W. Stiles, of LaFayette; Mrs. W. O. Alexander, of Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. W. S. Simmons, of Asheville, N. C.; Dr. W. H. Park, of Soochow, China; M. A. Park, of Chattanooga; R. L. and C. L. Park, of Macon, Ga., and Emmett Park, of Houston, Tex., and also twenty-two grandchildren.

IN MEMORY

Mrs. Mary E. Brannam, aged 73 years, died Feb. 11, 1918, after suffering many long years from consumption. Although she suffered, she bore it with a smile always ready to greet her many friends with a smile and kind loving words. It was her joy and delight to help others; she was always ready to lend a helping and to speak encouraging words to those about her.

Mrs. Brannam raised a large family of children to be grown. She was no doubt a great worker and a thrifty manager for she was left a widow several years ago, which of course added to her troubles, but with all this and her many years of suffering did not become discouraged in her work for her Master. With his help she lived a beautiful life, one that will shine throughout the world as far as she was known. We feel that we have lost a very dear one and we will of course miss such a person as she was in many ways. But we can truthfully say that she spent her life in well doing. She lived a life worth emulating.

Although we miss her it was God's will to take her and we must be submissive. We can hope that our loss is her eternal gain.

MANIE MASSEY.

IN MEMORY

Of Nellie Johnson Stephens, who departed this life Dec. 6, 1917. She was born Aug. 11, 1888 and was left an orphan in young girlhood. Her older brother and sister had to take the place of father and mother, and right royally they performed their duty. Her parents were T. J. and Sarah Johnson. She was married to Wesley G. Stephens some 11 years ago and their home was happy until 8 months before her death, she became afflicted with cancer which never let her have one moment of peace until the reliever of diseases came and gave her the final relief that must come to us all.

She professed faith in Christ when quite young and when the call came for her sweet release from pain she welcomed her Savior with open arms and said, "Home at last."

She left one little girl, who will miss a mother's love, yet the same sister, Mrs. Eula Johnson, who cared for her, will love and nurture the little one.

She left host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss, but they do not weep as one without hope for they know Nellie is "Safe in the arms of Jesus,

Safe on His loving breast,
There by His love o'er shadowed,
Sweetly her soul shall rest."

MEMORIAL

Bro. Epp Cordell was born Aug. 29, 1845, in Gilmer county. He joined the Baptist church at the age of 16 years, and remained a faithful member and deacon until his death, Oct. 17, 1917.

He was married to Margaret Arnold July 22, 1866, and to this union were born ten children, three of whom survive him.

The All-wise Creator saw fit to call from among us this beloved brother and we feel that we have sustained a great loss, but that our loss is his eternal gain. He has heard the welcome call: "Well, done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

He was ever faithful, discharging his duty as a Christian, and we feel that he has sown good seed that will bring forth fruit many years hence.

We would say to the dear companion and relatives, "Weep not as for one that has no hope, but live so when the last summons comes, you can say as father and grandfather did, 'I am ready to go and may we all meet around the great throne of God.'"

Therefore, be it resolved, That the Corinth church has lost a useful member, the community a kind friend, and the family a devoted husband and father; and that a copy of this memorial be sent to the Walker County Messenger for publication, and also be placed on record in our church book.—J. F. Walker, Mrs. J. F. Walker, Otto Crow, Committee.

STATE MOURNS DEATH OF PHILIP COOK

WAS SECRETARY OF SATE FOR TWENTY YEARS AND WAS ONE OF GEORGIA'S MOST BELOVED CITIZENS

Atlanta, March 19.—Phillip Cook, for twenty years Secretary of State of Georgia, died suddenly at his new home, at No. 310 East Linden street, early Tuesday morning. He was 60 years old, and a member of one of the most distinguished of Georgia families, and as nearly as was possible for a man in public life, without an enemy.

Mr. Cook was in his office and active Monday, although his health was poor. For more than a year his condition has been not of the best, although it was not deemed a matter of grave concern. General debility had set in, however, and his gradually impaired physique gave way suddenly under the long strain.

Except for an interval of four years, when Allen Candler was Secretary of State, Mr. Cook succeeded in that office his father, General Phillip H. Cook, Confederate soldier, State Senator, Congressman and one of Georgia's foremost citizens, who died in 1894. At every election since 1898 the younger Cook was returned to the office, almost always by the highest vote given any candidate on the State ticket. Most of the time he was without opposition.

As a State official, Mr. Cook beheld Georgia's progress reflected by the increased duties of his office. His work was multiplied in the last eight years particularly by the addition of a motor vehicle license department to his office. There was never a word, however, but of the efficiency of the office and of his personal integrity.

Mr. Cook is survived by four sons, Phillip, Charles, Arthur and Lawrence; three daughters, Minnie and Roberta Cook and Mrs. Lee Clark, of Lindale, Ala., and a sister, Mrs. W. L. Peel.

MRS. MINERVA WALLIS PASSES TO HER REWARD

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Minerva Wallis died at the home of her son, Will Wallis, near Noble, Tuesday, at the age of 73.

The deceased was a woman of many Christian virtues, and was a devoted member of the Baptist church, uniting with the church in early life. She was married in 1864 and to this union were born seven children, four sons and three daughters, all of whom survive her. They are as follows: George, Mat, Will and Max Wallis, Mrs. Leonard Shields, of Noble, Mrs. Ayers, of Oklahoma, and another daughter who lives in Utah.

Funeral services were held from the Rock Spring church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. C. Tallent of Rossville. Interment followed in the Rock Spring cemetery.

Friends of the bereaved family extend their sympathy.

IN MEMORY

On Oct. 3, 1917, our Heavenly Father called at the home and took from us our papa, John F. Dyer, for some purpose we do not now understand, but we will later on. We feel that father had served out his time, according to his age.

He was born Sept. 4, 1841, being 77 years of age at the time of his death. He was sick only four days, but no one knows how he suffered. He never murmured nor complained; he would only call for his boy and say that he would not mind to go if his boy would come. His boy arrived a few hours before his death.

How sad it is to give father up. How we miss him, at church, at home, everywhere.

He leaves five children to mourn his death: Mrs. Julia Shamlee of Kensington, Mrs. Ella Carroll of Kensington, Mrs. Rhoda McElhaney of Chickamauga, Miss Maggie Dyer, of Chattanooga and William Dyer of Jonesboro, Ark., and seven grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.

We desire to thank our many kind friends and neighbors for their tender ministry during his illness and death.

His body was laid to rest at Garrett's Chapel. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Willie Hamilton.

A face we loved is gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

Written by his daughters, Mrs. Ella Carroll and Mrs. Rhoda McElhaney.

IN MEMORY

Lindsay Wallin departed this life Monday, Feb. 18, 1918. He was the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wallin of Kensington, Ga. He was born August 14, 1885. He was reared and educated at Kensington. Lindsay was always a model boy, rather reserved, one of those sturdy stalwart fellows who always seemed to have a purpose in view and a goal in life.

He professed faith in Christ in 1903 and although much success as the world goes, in the way of position and salary came to him as the result of his energy and industry, he did not, like many, come to think it a small thing to serve and honor his God by giving Him his young life. His father and friends watched him as he climbed the ladder step by step until only one week stood between him and a position in the Capital City. Why death should be so cruel is a mystery yet unsolved. His work had been so thorough and satisfactory that the government had advanced him from one good position to another, he leaving for us an example of what courage and grit and manhood can do. Do not forget that through all of this success he remained a devout follower of Christ.

Lindsay was married to Miss Ada Lee of Atlanta November 11, 1914. She being a woman of intelligence and Christian integrity, has stood by and laughed until she has wept often at her husband's success and no doubt if Lindsay could give his testimony he would say my wife deserves at least half of all that we are or have or expect to have because no man can overestimate the value of a God-given, sensible helpmeet, and may God pity and love and comfort her in this the darkest hour of sadness that has perhaps ever come to her life.

Yours in Christ,
J. W. SHUMATE.

IN MEMORY

The death angel visited the home of I. C. and Fannie Mitchell and took brother John Mitchell from them. Oh, how hard it was to give him up. He left a father and mother and three brothers and five sisters and a host of friends to mourn his death. He was born Feb. 20th, 1891 and died Jan. 7, 1918. He joined the church in 1914.

Rev. I. S. Leonard preached his funeral in his home. His body was laid to rest in the Naomi cemetery. Oh, how sad it is to go into his home and dear brother John not there. He enjoyed having his folks and friends visit him. I have never given up father, mother, brother or sister, and oh how hard it is to give up brother John. We miss him not coming into our home.

He was married about 10 months and lived in the home of his father and mother and brother. When he started anywhere he would always want his mother to go with him. He lived a year with me and I never in all that time heard him say anything against anyone.

God had a vacant place in heaven which he wanted filled, and he called dear brother home to live with Him. We can't call dear brother back but we can go to him. Death is a debt that we all must pay some sweet day. We all should be ready to go when God calls us. God took our dear brother from us for some purpose. We can never look into his sweet face again, nor hear his sweet voice any more. His work and trouble on earth is done.

J. C. MARTIN DIED FRIDAY MORNING

WAS A CONFEDERATE VETERAN, A LIFE-LONG MEMBER OF METHODIST CHURCH AND ONE OF THE COUNTY'S BEST CITIZENS

In the death of James C. Martin at his home northwest of LaFayette, Friday morning, the county lost one of its best citizens. Mr. Martin for several months had been in declining health, but his condition was not thought to be serious until a few days before death came.

The deceased was 72 years of age, was an almost life-long member of the Methodist church, and most of this time he was affiliated with the local Methodist church. He was a Civil war veteran, and never was there a braver soldier of the "Lost Cause." He was a kind hearted man, and his life was filled with many deeds of unselfish service.

Mr. Martin is survived by four daughters, Misses Marion, Lola, Grace Martin, and Mrs. A. L. Brotherton; and two sons, Lee and Bob Martin.

Funeral services were held from the residence Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. J. A. Partridge. Interment followed in the Gordon graveyard.

MEMORIAL.

In memory of our boy, Lindsay L. Wallin, who departed this life Feb. 18, 1918, in the city of Boston, Mass.

He was sick just one week when the dark-winged messenger came and claimed him for his own. He was 32 years old in August before his death and had been at work as inspector for the Isthmus Canal commission for six years or more. His headquarters were at Boston, Mass. He had just been promoted to a more lucrative position in Uncle Sam's service and would have been stationed at Washington, D. C., when he was stricken with pleurisy, which proved fatal. He graduated at Auburn, Ala., in the Polly Tech Institute in the year 1910, having been elected class poet for that year. He went to work in Schenectady, N. Y., in August after he finished school in an electrical plant there. He made good wherever he went.

Deceased was married to Miss Ada Lee, of Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 1914 and a happier couple never lived together.

He professed religion and joined the Methodist church, south, when he was 17 years of age. His was a congenial, happy nature, making friends wherever he went.

How we will miss his weekly letters and annual visits but his companion will miss him more than any one else. God help us all to so live that we will be a reunited family in the great beyond.

We, in our ignorance, cannot understand why a young man like Mr. Lindsay Wallin, in the very prime of his manhood, should be taken away. We need so many like him, but God in His infinite Wisdom knows best and we must be submissive. His noble work on earth was finished and Jesus bade him come home and rest. May his life be an inspiration to those bereaved, and may it be like a beckoning hand for them to follow. He was a Christian not only in name for he was very generous in giving to the cause of Christianity. His wife, father, W. J. Wallin, brother Thos. and little half brother, Leroy, survive him, his mother having died several years ago. He has enjoyed the privilege of having a good Christian step-mother though, one who has filled her place nobly to the two motherless boys

We offer deepest sympathy to the bereaved wife, father and relatives.

Funeral services were held at Kensington church conducted by J. W. Shumate. A large concourse of relatives and friends were present and the beautiful floral offerings attested to the esteem in which he was held. His remains were laid to rest in the Cassandra cemetery.

A FRIEND.

IN MEMORY

Of Bro William G. Venson, who departed This life on Jan. 27, 1918.

Whereas, our Heavenly Father in been faithful here below.

Brother Venson was born in Rainson county, Miss., March 17, 1850, but moved to Walker county, Georgia some 35 years ago, and has lived here ever since. Brother Venson was initiated in Lookout Mountain lodge No. 145, F. & A. M. on the 27th day of May 1916, passed June 13, 1916, raised June 24, 1916.

And whereas, we have lost a true member; the family a devoted husband and father, and the community r. faithful worker, and a friend to all those in the time of need. He was a God-fearing man with the seal of devotion and kindness stamped upon his heart, having the lawful evidence to appear before the Grand Master of all man kind. He was not a perfect man, no man is, but his was a life which proved him to be a good man, good to his family, and to his neighbors, was industrious and kind to all, a true Masonic brother.

Kingdoms may perish, and nations cease to be, but brotherly love will continue while pity dwells within the heart of man, and God looks down in love upon the works of His creation.

Be it resolved, That we extend to his bereaved widow and family, our heartfelt sympathy, and in her hour of need may we be a husband to the widow, a father to the orphans, in keeping as we are commanded, and may we as one family look forward to the great assembly on the morn of the great resurrection.

Be it further resolved, That these resolutions be placed upon the minutes of our lodge and a copy of them be sent to his wife and family and a copy be sent to The Walker County Messenger to be published.

FRED SULLIVAN,
C. W. McWILLIS.

IN MEMORY OF "GRANDMA" WALLIS

On the morning of March the nineteenth, nineteen hundred and eighteen, the death angel came into our neighborhood and claimed as its own, our dear friend and neighbor, "Grandma" Wallis.

She was well known in this community, and was loved by all. She was converted in early life and joined the Baptist church and lived an earnest Christian up to the time of her death.

"Grandma" as she was familiarly called will be missed in our homes and in our community. She was always cheerful and kind, and carried sunshine wherever she went. Truly, a good woman is gone. She suffered severely during the last days of her life. All was done to relieve her that tender, loving hands could do, but God saw fit to call her home. Her suffering is ended, for "Grandma" has gone where there is no more sickness, pain or death.

We can hardly realize that she has gone from us forever. At the time of her death she lived with her son, Mr. Wallis, near Noble, Georgia.

Funeral services were held from Rock Springs Methodist church, and conducted by Rev. Tallant, after which she was laid to rest in the Rock Springs cemetery.

The bereaved ones have our heartfelt sympathy. May God comfort them in their sorrow.

IN MEMORY

Of Sam Ireland, aged 58, who died Feb. 22, 1918, after a lingering illness of many months. He bore his sufferings with great patience and always greeted his friends with a cheery smile and loving words. It was his joy and delight to help others and he was always in their service.

The deceased leaves a wife and six sons and two daughters together with a host of friends and relatives to mourn his loss.

Mr. Ireland was a member of the Methodist church at Chickamauga where he lived a faithful member until death.

He has gone to join the angels in the happy home above where no sorrow comes. We feel that we have sustained a great loss but we know that our loss is his eternal gain. He has heard the welcome words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.' He was ever faithful in the discharge of his duties as a christian and we feel that he has sown good seed that will bring forth fruit, many years hence.

We would say to the dear companion and relatives, "Weep not, as for one that has no hope, but live so when the last summons comes, you can say as father did, "I am ready to go."—Written by a friend.

IN MEMORY

On Feb. 3, 1918, the death angel visited our community and took as its victim, Ed Green. He had been in bad state of health practically all his life. He was about 38 years of age, and was a good man. All who knew him could not help but love him, and we feel sure that he is at rest.

He bore his afflictions with fortitude, and just before he passed away

IN MEMORY OF JAMES B. RANSOM

On Monday afternoon, Nov. 26, 1917 the gentle spirit of our dear uncle, James B. Ransom, winged its immortal flight back to God whom he had so faithfully served from his early youth.

He leaves a loving, faithful, Christian wife, three sons, one daughter, three sisters and two brothers, besides a host of tried and true friends to mourn their loss, but we do not mourn as those who have no hope in the resurrection, for through faith in Him who is the resurrection and the life, we can look forward with the blessed hope that we will meet him again in the sweet beyond.

He was a loving, patient and kind husband; a gentle, considerate and forbearing father, a thoughtful and helpful brother, a good neighbor, and above all a faithful, earnest Christian. His truthfulness and honesty won for him the confidence and respect of all who knew him. He is greatly missed by his friends and relatives but especially by the heart broken wife and children.

How deep the gloom time, we know, can never obliterate, but we hope it may soften even such sad memories.

Loving hands had done all that could be done, and medical skill was wholly exhausted, but the message "come up higher" had to be answered, so he passes through death to get to life eternal.

During the last few months of his dwelling in an earthly house he suffered much pain, yet he bore his suffering calmly and quietly and as he neared the summons call his faith grew stronger and brighter and he died leaving behind him the ric

MRS. H. W. STEGALL DIED EARLY FRIDAY MORNING

Mrs. H. W. Stegall, of Rossville Friday morning at 8:20 o'clock, at West-Ellis hospital, following a long illness of nervous prostration. She leaves a husband and five children and a host of other relatives to sorrow at her passing.

Friends of the sorrowing family and relatives tender their sympathy in this hour of sad bereavement.

Aunt Charlotte Wilson, an aunt of Ed Marsh and Carrie Gorce, died Saturday in Chattanooga at an advanced age, being past eighty. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Albert Gaines from the colored Baptist church Sunday morning. The passing of this good old-timer, known and loved for her faithful service and kind deeds in many families, brings regret. When a child, she was brought as a slave by Spencer Marsh, Mrs. S. A. Warthen's father, and to the end of her life, was devoted to her young mistress and all her "folks." In her old age, Auoe Charlotte was tenderly cared for by her adopted daughters, Lou and Molly Gamble, dying at the former's home.

J. V. Wheeler, Jr., of Summerville, who recently visited his brother here, V. R. Wheeler, left last week to enter service in the marine officers training camp. OBITUARY.

On January the 10th, the death angel visited our community and claimed as its victim, Bro. Miles Garrett. His going away caused great sadness in the church and neighborhood as well.

Bro. Miles Garrett was born Feb. 2, 1897, being 21 years of age at the time of his death. Had he lived he would soon had to answer the call of his Government and cross the broad Atlantic to face the enemy, but he had already become a soldier for Christ and God saw fit to take him to his Eternal home on high.

He professed faith in Christ last summer and joined the Wood Station Baptist church, and for the few months he lived a Christian, he kept his lamp trimmed and burning, and was always ready to speak a word for the Master. If he had neglected the welfare of his soul till on his death bed, his sins would not have been pardoned, as he was never conscious after he was taken sick. He possessed a bright, cheerful, disposition, and was ever ready to help a friend in need.

We can not understand why he was taken, but Christ says, "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Garrett. We would say to bereaved ones, "Weep not for your loved one has gone on before and is waiting for you in his shining courts above." He enjoyed singing while he was here and if we understand the Scriptures, God's pleasure will be perfected in Heaven.

Shall we weep when we know the departed,
With their toils and cares now are done,
And the bliss of eternity's ages
In the presence of God is begun
Gone up from human love, to higher love and care,
From pain below to peace above, in mansions, O so fair!

Therefore, Be it resolved first, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the church.

Second, That a copy be furnished the bereaved family.

Third, That a copy be printed in the Walker County Messenger.

Done in conference and written by order of same.

Miss Bunnie Stephenson,
Miss Maggie Grays,
Committee.

PIONEER WOMAN PASSES TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Mrs. Martine D. Stocker French, who died on Saturday at her home, 1623 Pine Street, was the last of her generation of the old and distinguished Stocker family who lived nearly a century at 713 Pine Street. General LaFayette was a frequent visitor to this house, in Revolutionary times, coming with his aide-de-camp, Colonel Anna Toussard of France, who was the maternal grandfather of Mrs. French. Colonel Toussard lost his right arm fighting for America. Her father was John Clement Stocker, who came from England.

Mrs. French was the widow of Louis Eugene French, who died fourteen years ago. She was the last of thirteen children. A sister, Emily K. Stocker, died in the old homestead four years ago. She was eighty-six years old. Two sons survive, Mrs. French, of LaFayette, Ga., and Louis Eugene French, Harry. H. French, Mrs. Ida M. French Graff, a granddaughter, has made her home with Mrs. French since she was two years old.

The late General Edward Morrell was a first cousin of Mrs. French. Mrs. Arthington Gilpin and Mrs. Frederick Prime are nieces.

In all her long life Mrs. French never wore eyeglasses. Until a few weeks ago she read the morning and evening newspapers daily and was especially interested in the war news. She made the most beautiful embroidery after she was ninety and until Christmas was busy knitting sweaters and other comforts for the soldiers. Her health began to decline about six months ago. Her mind was clear till the end.

Mrs. French was a life long member of the Episcopal Church. In her younger days she was a member of St. Stephen's Church and later of St. Luke's and Epiphany.—Philadelphia Press.

To the husband and son whose hearts are torn and bleeding, the sisters and brother, we heartily extend our tenderest sympathies and humbly pray that God in His infinite wisdom may sanctify this sore affliction to their eternal good and we trust that the mercies of heaven will give them strength to bear that one of the lights of their earthly home should be extinguished to be transplanted and shine forever in Paradise. May their lives like hers, prove blessings to the world and may they have a complete and happy reunion in that home across the river, where sorrow and parting are no more.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE.

Mrs. Minerva Wallis took her flight to Jesus on Tuesday March 19, 1918. She had lived to the ripe age of 73 years.

She was a member of the Peavine Baptist church, and was a woman who always liked to go to church and do her part as a Christian; she was a good Christian woman.

She was married in 1861 to Mr. John Wallis, and to this union were born seven children, four sons and three daughters, all of whom survive her. There never was a mother who devoted her life to their children and grandchildren as she did; she was ever ready and willing to help them in their trials and tribulations, andthere was nothing too hard for her to do for them, and they are going to miss dear mother and grandmother in their homes and our sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones.

We know it was hard to give her up, but God knows best, and he doeth all things for the best. So weep not, dearones for she is in heaven, just prepare to meet her for that is all we can do now.

Funeral services were held from the Rock Spring church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. C. Tallent of Rossville. Interment followed in the Rock Spring cemetery.

In their home's a vacant place,
Which never can be filled,
The mother who, once was there,
Her voice now is stilled.
For God who doeth all things well, took her home to live with Him.

IN MEMORY OF JOHN MITCHELL.

On January 7, 1918, the death angel visited the home of I. C. Mitchell and took from them their loving son, John Mitchell, whom they so dearly loved. He was only sick a little over a week, suffered about ten days, but he didn't dread his suffering, he just took it in the name of his Lord.

He leaves a wife, three brothers and five sisters and an old gray-headed father and mother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss, but we do not mourn as those who have no hope in Christ, for faith in Him is the resurrection and the life. We can look upwards with the blessed hope that we will meet in that sweet beyond.

While he was sick he would call his wife and mother and friends and ask them if they wanted to go home with him. He told them that he was going home and wanted them to go with him.

He professed hope in Christ in 1914 and joined the Naomi Baptist Church and lived a faithful, earnest Christian life until his death. When he was here he would always want me to help him sing. He said he enjoyed singing and prayer-meeting. His dear old mother said she missed him in the home and at the table and everywhere for wherever she went, he went. We all feel that we have pressed a great loss in our minds we know that our loss is his eternal gain. He has heard the welcome call, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful in yonder world over a few things, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

Uncle John was loved by all who knew him, he was always ready to do anything he could to help anyone. We can never see him on this earth again, but I want us all to live so we can meet Uncle John where we will never say farewell. Uncle John was laid to rest in the Naomi cemetery to await the resurrection morn when he will be carried home to heaven and if we obey Christ we shall soon meet him again where we will never again be called upon to say that word, "farewell."

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home,
That never can be filled.

MISS SALLIE BAILEY DIES AFTER PROLONGED ILLNESS

Miss Sallie Bailey, daughter of George Bailey of West Armuchee, died Monday, 22nd, after a prolonged illness of seven years.

Miss Bailey was thirty-four years old, and had been a member of the Methodist church since early childhood. Funeral services were conducted from Pleasant Hill church Tuesday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. Hinesley.

The deceased is survived by both parents, one brother and four sisters.

OBITUARY

On May 30, 1918, the death angel spread its wings over the home of Bro. Merdith and called from our midst his wife, Sister Merdith, to that life that never ends. Her stay in this life was 53 years.

She professed faith in Christ about 30 years ago and joined the Baptist church of which she lived a faithful member until she was called from our fellowship here below. She is survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. J. A. Hearn, Mrs. Lem Hearn, Miss Sarah Parrish, Mrs. A. J. Stansbery and J. R. J. Parrish and many friends.

Rev. J. T. Kington conducted a beautiful and comforting service at the funeral, paying a just tribute to the departed in whose passing heaven gains one worthy to pass within its gates.

There is a loving voice hushed in silence,
That must forever be still;
An empty place in our midst
That cannot be filled.

Mrs. W. N. Pitts, Miss Mary Mosier, Miss Myrtle Carter, Miss Ocyr Parrish, committee.

OBITUARY

On May 2, 1918 at her home in High Point, Ga., Mrs. Mollie Oliver passed into the heavenly world, near the close of her 60th year.

Mrs. Oliver was a member of the Baptist church and a true consecrated church worker. She leaves a husband and seven children with broken hearts and saddened spirits to mourn her death. The children are Mrs. Viney Walton, Mrs. Minnie Hinnison, John, Joe, Jape, George and Tess Oliver.

Mrs. Oliver was a true christian woman, strong in faith in God and in the immortal world; faithful in all the relations of life in her home, as neighbor and friend and as a sympathizer with and supporter of to the extent of her ability, everything that makes for the betterment of this world.

The Rev. Will Oliver, a friend of the family, conducted a comforting service, paying a tribute to Mrs. Oliver who has gone to that home where God wipes all tears away.

Mrs. W. N. Pitts, Miss Mary Mosier, Miss Myrtle Carter, Miss Ocyr Parrish, committee.

warned Stephan not only against Sonia's influence, but against giving himself up to association with one of the secret circles of revolutionists which were to be found all over Russia. Liza begged Stephan to consider the horrors of Siberia, and the danger he would run by identifying himself with any move disloyal to the government. "Besides," said Liza, "I am told that no one can tell whom to trust; one's most intimate friend may be his betrayer."

One day it was announced that Stephan and Liza were betrothed. Sonia was present at the betrothal ceremonies. She seemed not in the least to mind having lost Stephan to Liza and wished them both great happiness. In doing so she kissed Liza. Paul, who was present told me that when this salute was given, he judged from the way Liza received it that she considered it a Judas kiss. At any rate she seemed turned to ice.

About a week after this Stephan disappeared. It was not feared by his friends that he had been made away with by the government, for he had not—so he had assured Liza—committed any disloyal act, having promised her that he would not do so. Time passed and nothing was heard of the missing man. At last it was reported by one who knew him that he had seen Stephan in shackles on his way to Siberia.

About this time Sonia was placed under arrest by the government, accused of being a member of a revolutionary circle. She had strong friends at court and it was said that they secured her release. At any rate after being held some time her friends expecting every day that she would be sent to Siberia, she was let out of prison and restored to favor. It was not long after this that I saw her at the Winter Palace. Paul and I were leaving the palace when she passed out to enter her auto to be driven away to her apartments. I went to Paul's home with him and over a glass of wine and a cigar he told me the story. We little thought that we were so near its climax.

The next day Paul called at my hotel and with a look of horror on his face, told me that when Sonia's chauffeur opened the door of her limousine he found her dead with a dagger in her heart.

I too was appalled but not as much as Paul who had known the victim from childhood.

My first thought was that Liza was implicated in the murder. I suggested it to Paul who frowned it down at once.

I did not receive a solution of the mystery till after the deposition of the czar and the release of the Siberian prisoners. Then I heard it from Paul. Sonia was a government spy. For revenge upon Stephan who had turned from her to Liza, she falsely denounced him as a revolutionist. His arrest was a blind. A circle of revolutionists to which she belonged and whose secrets she was giving the government, learning of her treachery appointed one of its number to dispatch her.

Stephan being freed from Siberia rejoined Mr. Cathwell.

IN MEMORY

Of Miss Sallie Bailey who departed this life July 23.

She was born May 1st, 1885, and joined the Methodist church at the age of fifteen. Miss Bailey was an invalid for seven years and bore her sufferings with Christian patience, never complaining, and always trusted in her Saviour. When the end came she told us that she was ready to go.

She leaves a father and mother, four sisters and one brother, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her departure. Our loss is her gain, and although it is hard to give up our loved ones the Lord knoweth best. Farewell dear Sallie, 'till the resurrection morn. Oh may we meet again around the great White Throne.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which you never wake to weep.

We thank our kind and loving friends for their kindness in our hours of distress. May God's richest blessing rest upon each of them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey and families.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. G. W. COOK

On July 12th, 1918, there passed into the habitation of the Father, another soul, that of Mrs. G. W. Cook.

For some sixty-four years the soul of this splendid woman had been dwelling in this earthly house of clay. She confessed her faith in Christ during the girlhood days, and a few years later joined the Baptist church at Bethel and lived a consecrated Christian until her Father called her home.

She was the mother of five children, four of whom survive her; her husband and one son preceded her to the better world several years ago. Her influence and presence will be keenly missed by the children, relatives and friends.

Let the sorrowing children look away from the cross to the Elysian fields of perfect happiness and behold their most treasured the reward of the righteous. With her pure good life of love and humility she made many true friends. She had a deep feeling of love for her children and in return the children gave much manifestation of true devotion to their mother.

We believe the principles of a noble life which were manifested in this good woman will be given out to the world through the lives of her children.

Rev. W. C. Tallent conducted the funeral service in the presence of a large audience at Chickamauga, Ga., where the body now sleeps the sleep of a soul come forth.

To the children, we would say, "be faithful unto death, strive earnestly to make your calling and election sure, so that in the great day there may be a happy re-union of the entire family in the beautiful home of the soul.

BODY OF MRS. JONES LAID TO REST FRIDAY

AFTERNOON IN PRESENCE OF LARGE CONCOURSE OF SORROWING RELATIVES AND FRIENDS.

The death of Mrs. R. C. Jones, of Rock Springs, at a Chattanooga hospital last Wednesday afternoon, where she underwent an operation, came as a distinct shock to her host of friends in her community as well as throughout the county. She was ill only about one day.

The deceased was a woman of deep piety, a devout member of the Methodist church and was loved by all who knew her for her many sweet Christian graces. She gave of her energy and time unstintingly for the progress of all good things in her community and was an influential worker in her church. Since the entrance of America in the war, Mrs. Jones did all she could in every way she could for its prosecution, and her war work was of the highest character. Her departure will be keenly felt.

Funeral services were held Friday morning from the Rock Spring Methodist church, of which she was a member, at 11 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Partridge, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends. Interment immediately followed.

The many beautiful floral offerings attested to the popularity and esteem of this godly woman.

GUILLE—McWILLIAMS

Mr. and Mrs. H. Frank Guille announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Augusta, to Mr. Reuben Eugene McWilliams, on Wednesday, September the fourth nineteen hundred and eighteen.

This marriage was solemnized in the evening at eight thirty o'clock. Owing to the critical illness of a near and dear relative of the bride, only a few of the immediate relatives and near friends were present. The marriage was charming in its simplicity. Growing plants and ferns gladdened the reception hall where the guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Guille, in the parlor where the ceremony was performed silver urns and vases held pink roses and dainty garlands of white starry clematis. Golden cannas and fall flowers brightened the library and the dining room. Before the ceremony Mrs. Clyde Wilkins, of Chattanooga, a cousin of the bride, sang exquisitely, accompanied by Miss Louise Guille, "Love of Mine" and "At Dawning." Lohengrin's Wedding March was played by Miss Clarentine Knox. As the bride and groom entered the parlor they were met by Mr. Guille, who beautifully and tenderly as only a father could, to the music of "Hearts and Flowers," united these young lives in marriage. The bride was becomingly dressed in soft blue silk combined with Georgette crepe and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. Her going away suit was of midnight blue cloth with soft white ruffles falling from collar and cuffs. Her hat of velvet with one of the new draped veils, grey shoes and gloves to match made her a charming bride.

Following the many good wishes and congratulations, Mrs. Guille with her usual generous hospitality served her guests with delicious sherbet and angel cake.

The wedding presents were of silver, cut glass, household linen, and other useful articles dear to the hearts of housekeepers.

The bride and groom left by automobile for Chattanooga to enjoy a short wedding trip before going to their home in West Armuchee valley.

Mrs. McWilliams is the eldest daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Guille and has been for the past year one of Walker's successful teachers. She has been quite a favorite with the younger set and will be greatly missed both in the church and social life of LaFayette. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McWilliams, one of the county's most prominent families, and is an enterprising and popular citizen of the county.

The guests were Mrs. Clyde Wilkins Chattanooga, Miss Amelia Jackson and little sister, Margaret, of Birmingham, Dr. and Mrs. Talley, Miss Evelyn Talley and Billy Talley, Misses Clarentine Knox, Mary Mae Scott, Dora Sims, Addie Marsh and Ruth Sparks, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jackson.

Chas. Weaver, one of the county's best known and most beloved citizens died suddenly at the home of his brother, James Weaver, this Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

Mr. Weaver had been in declining health for many months but it was only a few weeks ago that his condition became alarming to his relatives and friends. He was sitting on the veranda this morning, when without any warning he suddenly dropped on sleep.

The deceased is survived by three brothers, James, Isaac and Frank Weaver, and five sisters, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Emmett Hankins, Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mrs. Sam Williams and another sister, whose name we were unable to secure.

Funeral services will be held from the Rock Spring church Friday at 11 o'clock. He will be buried with full Masonic honors, the local order having charge of the burial service.

ROGERS—ROWLAND

Miss Mary Rogers, the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Rogers, of Pittsburg, Ga., and Mr. William Rowland, of Pittsburg, were married at Chickamauga Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Rowland was enroute to LaFayette, where she was to enter the LaFayette high school, but Cupid's artful persuasions turned the tiresome journey into an interesting romance.

IN LOVING MEMORIUM OF IDA BAILEY.

Mrs. Ida Phillips Bailey after a lingering illness of several months passes to reward.

She was thirty years of age. Loving and patient hands rendered every service to save this tender life, but to no avail.

Yes, it was hard for us to part with her but God knows best.

Always a true and obedient woman and a kind and loving mother, and she made friends wherever she went. She leaves a host of them to mourn our loss her gain. Farewell, we know Ida is at rest with her Father.

She leaves a husband, three children, Sam, Oliver, Rosa Lee and a father, mother, two sisters, Mrs. Lou Durkel, Mrs. Carrie Springfield, two brothers, Sam and Frank Phillips to mourn the loss of one so endeared to them.

To the sorrowing ones we would say to look up and try to live as pure a life as Ida did and meet her in heaven, where she is now singing with the angels who are rejoicing another of God's children has come home.

Ida was laid to her last resting place in the White cemetery.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Hinsley in presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

Slowly and sadly a great host of friends and relatives hesitatingly left the newly made mound where Ida lay peacefully sleeping.

Cease, cease your music, for mother's asleep.

Angels thy message have borne.

Unto her soul and the smile on her lips.

Tell of the heavenly morn.

MISS CELESTE PARRISH DIED LAST SATURDAY

News of the death of Miss Celeste Parrish, at the home of her adopted daughter, Mrs. James Stunt, at Clayton, Ga., last Saturday, comes as a distinct shock to the entire south. Miss Parrish was one of the leading women educators in the south, being a specialist in pedagogy. For the past few years she became well-known in Walker county through the institute work she did here. While she was here this year, she was in wretched health but her closest friends did not think her illness serious. In her death the educational interests of Georgia and the South have lost a strong advocate.

CORP. ROSS GRAHAM KILLED IN FRANCE

OFFICIAL NOTICE RECEIVED HERE LAST FRIDAY STATED HE DIED OF WOUNDS JUNE 16TH

Official notice has been received here of the death of Corporal Ross Graham, another Walker county boy, who has made the supreme sacrifice for his country.

He enlisted Dec. 12, 1917 with the marines and was with his regiment during the valiant and spectacular offensive of the Marne early in June. Though no official information has been received as to where he received his mortal wound, it is believed that it was in this battle. Corp. Graham was with the 144th company, 3rd replacement corps, and letters have been received stating that this

After undergoing preliminary training at Paris Island, Corp. Graham was given an opportunity to attend officers' training camp, but he refused in his eagerness to get to the battle front. He was promoted from the ranks to Corporal and left for France April 22.

Corp. Graham was widely known in railroad circles in Chattanooga and Mobile and other southern cities, being an employ of the Big Four Route. He rapidly rose in his profession and at the age of 21 was made travelling freight agent for the Southern railroad, being probably the youngest man in that responsible position in the employ of the road.

He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Graham of Rock Spring, two brothers, W. A. Graham, of Chattanooga and J. H. Graham of Blanche, Ala., and three sisters.

At the time of his death Corp. Graham was 24 years of age.

Friends of the family sympathize with them in this trying ordeal.

The War Industries Board of the United States Government has issued the following order to all newspapers effective October 1st:

"Newspapers are to discontinue sending paper after date of expiration of subscription, unless the subscription is renewed and paid for."

IN MEMORY OF

William Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Wallace, who was born May 5, 1907 and died June 24, 1918.

William was an unusually sweet child, somehow drawing irresistably to himself all those who came within the circle of his acquaintanceship. He was a pet of the home, ever thoughtful of his mother, who misses his dear sweet face and loving acts so much. The father, as he goes about his work, can never forget the little helpful hand he so willingly lent.

How sad it is when we realize that he is with us no more here on earth but what a sweet assurance we have that the dear one is at rest and that our loss is his eternal gain. It seems so often the fairest flowers are first to be plucked. So God in his Infinite Wisdom saw fit to take William to Him that loved ones and friends may have a tie binding us to that Home that is prepared for us.

His dear school mates, Ray and Jack Gremer, Varden Bird and Grady Wheeler, who bore his body to the grave, will ever cherish sweet memories of their associations with him and the careful, loving, thoughtful disposition he showed toward all things.

The comforting remarks of the pastor, Rev. J. A. Partridge, will ever be a stimulus to guide us all through the dark and trying hours of grief and sadness.

The funeral and interment were at Rock Spring where he had spent a portion of his short life.

After a brief illness of two days he was separated from loved ones and friends. How hard it was to give him up, but it is God's will and we most willingly submit

VERA DECK.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. J. A. J. HAMES

The death angel came again to our community and took from us our loved and consecrated sister, Mrs. J. A. J. Hames.

She was born Nov. 26, 1848, married Aug. 15, 1869, and died Dec. 3, 1917. About fifty years of her life was spent as a member of the Baptist church, during which time her life reproduced the good works of her Master as her faith was true and steadfast. Each revolution of the wheels of time drew her nearer the God she served and the Christ she loved. Her life bespeaks that she is wafting in the sunlight of righteousness and her going away was only a reflection of her life sweet and peaceful.

The home, church, and community sadly feel the loss of her presence in person, but her sweet spirit still inspires us to more unselfish service, the consecration of which gave her power to stamp indelible impressions on all with whom she came in contact.

Sister Hames' beautiful face may be forgotten but her Christ-like life will live for aye. May God be merciful to the companion of her life and her nine children, three daughters and six sons, whom she has left on earth.

Rev. B. F. Hunt, her pastor, preached a most comforting sermon to a large body of relatives and friends, after which her remains were laid away in the East Armuchee cemetery.

Weep not for her sweet release,
From earthly pain and fear;
Nor grieve that she reached her rest
E'er she knew she was leaving here.

Mrs. L. P. Keith, Mrs. G. W. Wyatt and Mrs. J. A. Ward, Committee.

We received the sad intelligence last Tuesday night that Mr. B. V. Gilreath, a good neighbor and an esteemed friend of ours, was dead. He has been at the State Sanitarium at Milledgeville for several years. His remains were brought home Tuesday and Wednesday they were laid to rest at Macedonia cemetery. Brad, as he was familiarly called, was a good husband, affectionate father, a good neighbor and really a desirable citizen. We tender our sympathies to the bereaved ones.

On Thursday after putting Mr. Gilreath away we heard of the untimely death of Garvin Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rufus Jackson. He lived at Alabama City, Ala. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson had received intelligence of his sickness but owing to the fact that they had to help their youngest son in fixing up his questionnaire they could not get off as early as they would like to have done but did go as soon as they well could, but in a short time after they started a telegram came announcing his death. He was buried at or near his home we suppose. We heartily sympathize with the bereaved ones.

LITTLE MARY STEWART WRIGHT CELEBRATES FIRST BIRTHDAY.

One of the happiest events of this week was the party in celebration of the first birthday of little Miss Mary Stewart Wright, at which her grandmothers, Mrs. Josie Hines Boozer and Mrs. Paul Wright, entertained for her in the home of the latter Monday afternoon. The dining room was lighted by pink tapers in silver candalabrae and the cake which held the one candle adorned the center of the table and was decorated in pink roses. Individual candlesticks holding tiny pink candles and pink baskets holding mints, marked the places for each little guest. Mrs. Mitchell, the great grandmother, was also seated at the table.

The attractive bunch of little tots, who enjoyed Miss Mary Stewart's hospitality and her winsome little manners were: Margaret Holland, Frances Napier, Betty Fortune, Sidney Hunt, Frank Kirby, Jr. George Paul Shaw, John Steele, James Fortune, N. C. Napier, Jr. and Stephen F. Hunt.

Among the many lovely gifts received was a quilt made for the baby's father by her greatgrandmother.

HUTCHINSON—GARMANY

The marriage of Miss Martha V. Hutchinson and Mr. Wert Winters Garmany was solemnized at the home of the bride in Atlanta on last Thursday evening, Oct. 3, at 8:30 o'clock.

Cut flowers and house plants formed the decorations.

The bride entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march effectively rendered by Miss Bertha Durden, on the arm of her father, and joined the groom before an improvised altar of autumn leaves and ferns.

The ceremony was impressively performed by Dr. McIver, pastor of the Druid Hills Presbyterian church.

The bride was becomingly attired in a brown coat suit, with hat and shoes to match.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom left on a short wedding trip to Savannah and other South Georgia points.

REV. CHARLIE WRIGHT KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Friday morning Rev. Charles Wright, of Rome, was crushed to death by an automobile. The accident occurred a few miles from Rome on the Summerville pike, and although Mr. Wright was rushed to a hospital he lived only a few hours.

The car was driven by Raleigh Biggers, of Rome, who stated that when he saw there was danger of striking Mr. Wright, he turned sharply away from him, crashing into a fence. The top of the car was down and struck Mr. Wright in the left side, crushing his ribs, and in falling his head struck a large rock which fractured his skull.

Mr. Wright, who was nearly seventy years of age, served here many years as the beloved pastor of the Baptist church and was known to a large circle of friends, not only here but in this county, who deeply deplore the fatal accident.

IN MEMORY OF BLONNIE PITTS

On Friday, Aug. 16, 1918, death claimed one of our most beloved and useful young girls of the Lookout Baptist Sunday school and community. While we are made sad by the death of this young girl we feel that she is sweetly resting in that beautiful home on high. We do not understand why one so young should be taken from our midst, but God does know and some day we shall understand why our most lovely flowers are plucked first. We know this, the young as well as the old are called upon to pay the penalty of death.

Blonnie was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pitts of High Point, she was only 7 years old and short life she lived was a sunbeam in that home. Always bright and happy, ever ready to do something that would please some one. She will be sadly missed by the father, mother and grandmother, brother and little sister, school mates and friends. Weep not but think of her as she is now,

Free from all earthly care,
Pure from all earthly stain,
Oh, who could wish her back
In this dear world again?

Little Blonnie was always found in Sunday school and always knew her lessons well, was loved by all who knew her, wasobedient to father and mother. Now she is gone but gone to heaven where parting is no more. She can never come back to earth, but we can go to her by living right. Let us strive to enter the pearly gates and there we will see little Blonnie.

We would say to the loved ones, "Weep not for you will meet her bye and bye.

Her funeral was conducted in the Lookout Baptist church by Rev. Kington, from which her little body was borne to its last resting place in the New Lookout graveyard.

Written by one who knew and loved her, her Sunday school teacher—Mrs. J. M. Parrish.

IN MEMORY.

To the memory of my mother, Nancy Young Chaffin who died May 22nd, 1914, at the age of 76, and my father, T. J. Chaffin who died June 23rd, 1918.

Her cheerful, hopeful, always encouraging counsel that helped us over the rough places of childhood and young motherhood; his patient, forgiving, trustful thankfulness for us I think they would each say:

Our lives like a mantle are folded away,
For we have heard our Saviour say:
"There were many times that you did not obey,
But you tried to follow me all the way,
By my grace are you saved, you need not stay
Leave the sorrows and sins and care,
The burdens you thought were too hard to bear
You don't like to leave your children
there,
But your places are ready I came to prepare."
Our souls redeemed have taken flight
Through the valley of shadows to realms of light
And our pulseless hearts are now laid low,
To be covered in winter by the beautiful snow,
Now my children, you surely know,
The love for you that we could not show
Was as deep as the ocean, as strong as it's flow,
But God's love is greater, and though here be a
You will reap the harvest of the seed
you sow,
His blood will clean e you, His word will show
The way to follow, so I n't be slow
To heed every warning, His promises plead,
His grace is sufficient for your every need.

MRS. EARL HENDERSON DIED AT ROSSVILLE

News of the death of Mrs. Earl Henderson at Rossville Wednesday night at midnight, from influenza, will be received here with deep regret. CICERO T. McCONNELL DIED OF PNEUMONIA

EARLY MONDAY MORNING AFTER FEW DAYS' ILLNESS—WAS PROMINENT AND BELOVED CITIZEN.

All LaFayete was shocked early Monday morning, when the news of the death of Cicero T. McConnell, was announced on the streets

He took his bed Tuesday morning of last week with a severe cold, which developed Saturday into pneumonia. From the very first his condition was considered serious. Hopes were entertained, however, that a change for the better would be made until Sunday, when it was seen that he could not live.

The deceased was born Nov. 23, 1891, being nearly twenty-seven years of age at his death. He was converted in 1912 during the Dunnaway series of revival services held at the Methodist church and joined the church, living a faithful member until his death. He was a regular attendant upon the Sunday school, was liberal in his contributions to the causes of the church, and was ever zealous of her highest interests.

As a citizen, LaFayete and Walker county, had no more progressive spirit. He was interested in all forward movements and gave his time and money for their promotion. He was esteemed as a splendid business man, and his friends in the town and county, as well as in Chattooga county, where he was born, were numbered by the hundreds. He possessed a pleasing personality, was a hard worker, conscientious, and made friends of all those with whom he came in contact.

Surviving the deceased is a widow and one daughter; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McConnell; and three brothers, J. F. McConnell, of Chatanooga, C. A. and J B. McConnell, of Broomtown, together with a host of relatives.

Funeral services were held from the Macedonia cemetery in Chattooga county Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. A. Partridge, his pastor, assisted by Rev. N. A. Parsons, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends from LaFayette, Summerville, Calhoun, Chattanooga, and the surrounding counties. The many beautiful floral offerings from the church, Sunday school, business men and other friends, fittingly attested to the popularity and esteem of the deceased. After a short grave service the body was lowered in its last resting place.

Memorial services on the life of the deceased will be held from the local Methodist church later.

The numerous friends of the family extend their tender sympathy in this sad hour of bereavement.

DUCK CREEK

We were sorry to learn of the untimely deaths of our friends, Sammy Dunn and Cicero McConnell. We were shocked when we heard the sad news. They were both young men, having a bright prospect for usefulness ahead of them. All who knew them esteemed them. Its sad that we'll see them no more this side of the turbid waters. Peace to their ashes. Our sympathy goes out to those bereaved.

OBITUARY

Sister Suttle in early youth professed hope in Christ and united with the Shiloh Baptist church, where she lived a pure consistent life until her death. While she never neglected the duties of her home, her own work was subservient to that of the Master. Louder than any words, her actions proved that she loved the courts of her Lord.

She was a kind, affectionate sister and an obliging neighbor, always doing deeds of kindness and speaking encouraging and cheerful words. She was a close Bible student and her example taught us that "It is more blessed to give than to receive." She left unmistakable evidence behind that she had gone to rest. Let us say to the bereaved ones: "Heaven has another attraction for you. Look ever to Jesus. He will carry you through." Mrs. J. R. Little, Mrs. R. M. Hewatt, Mrs. F. L. McWilliams.

W. D. STEWART PASSES TO THE GREAT BEYOND

AFTER A TEN DAYS' ILLNESS—WAS A POPULAR AND PROMINENT CITIZEN, UNIVERSALLY LOVED

After a ten days' illness of influenza, W. D. Stewart passed away at his home on Villanow street last Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. At first his condition was not considered serious, but a few days later he became dangerously ill, and gradually grew weaker until the end came Friday morning.

The deceased was one of Walker county's most prominent young citizens, being thirty nine years of age at the time of his death, and LaFayette mourns the loss of one of her most beloved young men. He was a splendid business man, being connected with the Walker County Hosiery Mills; was active in town life; was an ardent member of the local Methodist church, serving on the Board of Stewards; was a member of Western lodge, No. 91, A. F. & A. M. Mr. Stewart was universally loved in LaFayette, where he was known best.

The religion that he daily practiced was: "No greater love than this, that man lay down his life for his friends." No man in this community can fill his place in the sick room. It was his life-long practice to visit the sick. It did not matter how dark the night, or what the ailment, Mr. Stewart always found his way to the sick room, and many, many people in this vicinity can testify to the cheer and comfort he brought.

The deceased is survived by his wife, and a ten year old daughter, Nannie Anna Stewart, a father who lives in South Georgia, and one sister, residing in Colorado.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. A. Partridge, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. The pall bearers who were taken from his most intimate friends, were A. R. Fortune, H. S. Lovern, W. E. Withers, J. W. Holland, A. G. Catron and S. F. Blaylock. The many beautiful floral offerings attested to the esteem and affection in which the deceased was held. In addition to the many individual floral offerings, especially beautiful were those from Mr. Stewart's Sunday school class, the Board of Stewards, the Walker County Hosiery Mill employees, the

IN MEMORIAM

On Jan. 21, 1918, Sister Jane Bomar went from her earthly home to her Father's house of many mansions.

She was born July 1836. In early life she gave her heart and life to Christ and united with the Shiloh Baptist church, remaining a devout member until her death, ever adorning the profession she made, by living the life of a true Christian, always ready to do whatever she could to advance the kingdom of the Lord and to win souls to Christ.

In her walk and conversation the prints of the Spirit, "Love, joy, peace, long suffering, meekness, gentleness, faith, and patience," could be seen.

Her relatives and friends sorrow not as those who have no hope, for if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so those who sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him.

To the bereaved ones we extend our deepest sympathy, and may the vacancy felt in their hearts and homes be supplanted by the thought of a joyous reunion beyond.—Mrs. J. R. Little, Mrs. R. M. Hewett, Mrs. F. L. McWilliams.

MRS. J. W. HEGWOOD DIED SATURDAY AFTERNOON AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS

After a lingering illness of many months with tuberculosis, Mrs. J. W. Hegwood died at her home near Villanow, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The deceased was 61 years of age and was a woman of excellent character and gentle disposition. She had been in declining health for the last eight months, and for the last three months had been an invalid. She suffered intense pains but bore it all and never murmured. She always greeted her friends who visited her with a hearty welcome and appreciated every little kind deed that any one did.

She was married when a young woman to Mr. Tom Ramey and to them were born four children. Mr. Ramey died in a few years then she was married again in 1900 to J. W. Hegwood.

She professed a hope in Christ in her early life and joined the Methodist church in which she ever lived a consecrated member until death. During her illness she talked to her friends of her home above and asked them all to live so to meet her.

Funeral services were held from the Subligna Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by her pastor, Rev. Nelson Hinsley, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. Interment followed at the local cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her husband and four children and seven step-children. Her children are Mrs. C. C. Farr of East Lake, Tenn., and Rev. Granville Ramey of McRae, Ga., and Mack E. Ramey, who is with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, and Miss Nannie Ramey of Villanow; her step-children are, H. T., W. F. and Perry of LaFayette, John and Fletcher Hegwood and Mrs. Ola Keown and Mrs. Jim Morrison of Villanow.

Friends of the grief stricken family extend their heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of their bereavement, especially to her daughter, Miss Nannie, the faithful little nurse who stood by her side through all her illness; in deed she was very devoted to her mother and we owe her much praise.

Written by her cousin,
JESSIE WYATT.

IN MEMORY.

In memory of my Sabbath School pupil and friend, J. E. Hunter, son of W. G. and Lottie L. Hunter, of Cedar Grove, Ga. Twenty-six years ago the 15th of last July Mr. and Mrs. Hunter's parental joy was crowned when God gave them this bright-eyed baby boy to rear for His Kingdom.

He grew to manhood's estate and some five or six years ago married Miss Eva Crowder, daughter of Dr. M. M. Crowder, of Cedar Grove. To this this union one little boy was born.

The 2nd day of April 1918 he was called to the colors from Tampa, Fla., where he was at work in the employ of U. S. helping to build ships. He was in training just six weeks before he embarked for France the 17th day of May. His ship was anchored out from Hallifax two days, then set sail for England, where they landed the 6th day of June. He wrote the "over sea trip did not make him sick as it did some of the boys," which was fortunate for him. He belonged to the medical corps. The ones that gave first aid to injured in the front line of trenches. The last letter he wrote his parents was dated Sept. 18th, 1918, and the cablegram they received Nov. 6th stating that he fell in action Sept. 29th, 1918. Another one of our brave soldier boys paid the price to give freedom to the oppressed. While our hearts ache to think we will not clasp hand with Elmer any more, yet we are proud as he said in his letter to father and mother, that he could go over and do his bit to help win this awful war with the help of God. He was offered a handsome salary to stay and work in the ship yards, and also said he would enjoy being at home with loved ones, but (using his ownwords) "I would not want to be even there all the time and the other fellows all over here. I want to be in the bunch to help finish this thing," but some had to be sacrificed in this noble cause and our friend and pupil was one of the number.

IN MEMORY

On the morning of Jan. 7, the death angel came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell and took from them their son, John. He had just passed into the prime of manhood, and was only sick a few days.

Everything that loving hands could do was done by mother, father, wife and friends, but God called him to come up higher to fill a vacant place around the throne.

John always had a kind word for everybody and was loved by all who knew him. We feel assured that our loss is his eternal gain. He bore his sickness with great courage and patience, not a mumur escaped his lips during the time of his sickness.

He professed a hope in Christ in 1914 and joined the Naomi Baptist church, living a consistent member till the time of his death. We would say to the bereaved ones, "Weep not for him, but prepare yourselves to meet him in that sweet bye and bye where no sorrow or death will ever come.

John was a good, kind and obedient boy and tried to do what he thought was right and that makes us feel that when has was taken from us he was placed with the angels in heaven. He leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn his going.

IN MEMORY

Dausewell Rogers, the subject of this short sketch, was the son of James and Sarah Rogers of Dunlap, Tenn.

In Nov. 1855 he moved with his parents to Indiana. At the beginning of the Civil War his parents both died, leaving him an orphan at the age of seven years.

He came to Walker county with his uncle, Jerry Hatfield, making this his home until the year 1898. He was converted during a revival conducted by Rev. J. B. McFarland at Liberty school house in 1876. He joined the Methodist church and lived a devoted Christian life for many years.

Dausewell Rogers was never married but lived in the Upper Cove with the Heads, Shankles and Evatts. He loved everybody and always had a smile for everyone. He was true to his church, good in sickness and charitable in every cause.

SAMUEL B. GILREATH.

Thursday August 15, 1918, about 4:30 p. m., the death angel visited the home and conducted the gentle spirit of the kind father and loving husband, Mr. Samuel B. Gilreath to the celestial home above.

Mr. Gilreath was a highly respected citizen, living in the vicinity of Harrisburg where he had been living for about six years. As a citizen he stood high in the respect of his fellowman, always displaying a true Christian life, true and loyal to his Master's cause. As a husband, he was always devoted to his helpmate, always trying to prepare for her happiness and comfort. And as a father always trying to display the life of Christ that reigned in his heart, and trying to raise his three boys in a way that would make them worthy citizens, and prepare them for the great life above.

Mr. Gilreath was born near Trion, Ga., in Chattooga county, December 6, 1858, where he lived till he moved to Walker Co., on July 6, 1890. He was married to Miss Rosa Lee Shipp, who has been his devoted wife and helpmate, and who has shared all his burdens, sorrow and happiness, and who so tenderly administered to him, and did everything that loving hands and a kind heart could do for him during his illness and death.

It seems so hard to us for God to call away our loved ones, but we know that He knoweth best and doeth everything for the best, all we can do is to be submissive to His will and wait for the time when we shall understand.

In the spring of 1894 Mr. Gilreath and his wife both joined the Methodist church at Berryton, Ga., by pro brother Dewitt Gilreath, of Trion.

In talking to him before his death he seemed conscious that his time to die was close at hand, but he did not fear death, he was willing to obey God's command, and he was willing to die any time God called for him, although he didn't crave death, nor he didn't crave to live. Of course he hated to die and leave his people, but was willing for God to have his way. He was one who could truly say "Oh! death where is thy sting, Oh! grave where is thy victory "

And just as long as God let him live he showed that gentle and obedient spirit, which showed that God was with him and conducted him safely to that better world beyond.

Weep not dear loved ones, for we know it is only a short time till we shall meet him in that beautiful land, place where Christ has gone to prepare for those that know and fear God.

A Nephew and Niece.

IN MEMORY.

In memory of my Sabbath School pupil and friend, J. E. Hunter, son of W. G. and Lottie L. Hunter, of Cedar Grove, Ga. Twenty-six years ago the 15th of last July Mr. and Mrs. Hunter's parental joy was crowned when God gave them this bright-eyed baby boy to rear for His Kingdom.

He grew to manhood's estate and some five or six years ago married Miss Eva Crowder, daughter of Dr. M. M. Crowder, of Cedar Grove, To this this union one little boy was born.

The 2nd day of April 1918 he was called to the colors from Tampa, Fla., where he was at work in the employ of U. S. helping to build ships. He was in training just six weeks before he embarked for France the 17th day of May. His ship was anchored out from Hallifax two days, then set sail for England, where they landed the 6th day of June. He wrote the "over sea trip did not make him sick as it did some of the boys," which was fortunate for him. He belonged to the medical corps. The ones that gave first aid to injured in the front line of trenches. The last letter he wrote his parents was dated Sept. 18th, 1918, and the cablegram they received Nov. 6th stating that he fell in action Sept. 29th, 1918. Another one of our brave soldier boys paid the price to give freedom to the oppressed. While our hearts ache to think we will not clasp hand with Elmer any more, yet we are proud as he said in his letter to father and mother, that he could go over and do his bit to help win this awful war with the help of God. He was offered a handsome salary to stay and work in the ship yards, and also said he would enjoy being at home with loved ones, but (using his ownwords) "I would not want to be even there all the time and the other fellows all over here. I want to be in the bunch to help finish this thing," but some had to be sacrificed in this noble cause and our friend and pupil was one of the number.

And as the little mother in the "Christian Herald" who had to give the only child she had and he too fell in action, said, "Oh, we who have given—we know, we know. Oh friends of mine who now belong to this endless chain of parents that have had to see theirboys laid upon the sacrificialal alter be brave, trust God and rejoice that you have a link in the chain that helped to bring freedom and joy to so many blighted homes. God, in His infinite mercy sustain you and help you to rear the baby brother to be a brave soldier of the cross.

IN MEMORY.

In memory of Vira Emma Scroggins.—Born Sept. 16, 1900. Died Sept. 17th, 1918.

The deceased was the daughter of Lonnie and Kittie Scroggins who did all that human hands could in hopes of her recovery, but the enemy invaded their home and little Vira sleeps in death awaiting the summons of the Life Giver when the voice of the Archangel and the trump of God shall call her from slumber to Home, Sweet Home in the Everlasting Kingdom of God.

The once-loved form, now cold and dead,
Each mournful thought employs
And Nature weeps, her comforts fled,
And withered all her joys.

Hope looks beyond the bounds of time,
When what we now deplore,
Shall rise in full immortal prime
And bloom to fade no more.

Words of comfort were spoken by the writer at the Garrett graveyard on the 18th of September 1918.

T. H. FOWLER BELIEVES SON LOST ON OTRANTO

T. H. Fowler of Flintstone was in Chattanooga today making inquiries as to the losses on the Otranto which was rammed by the Quaguire several weeks ago, and in which a large number of lives of sailor boys were lost.

Mr. Fowler's interest grows out of the belief that his son, Clifford E. Fowler, was one of the victims. He says his son had served in the navy four years and that he passed through Chattanooga on Sept. 4 and announced that he was going to California to re-enlist in order to get a chance to go to France. Soon after this the accident to the Otranto occurred, and as Mr. Fowler has not heard from his son since, he is under the belief that he must have shipped on the Otranto and was among those lost and unaccounted for. —Wednesday's Chattanooga News.

LT. CHARLES R. HENRY WEDS MISS ADDIE MARSH SPARKS

The marriage of Miss Addie Marsh Sparks and Lieut. Charles R. Henry, which was solemnized at the First Baptist church Tuesday, Dec. 24th, at high noon, was a brilliant event uniting two families of wide prominence in this section.

The church was attractively decorated with growing plants, smilax and American flags. The windows were darkened and the reflection from the soft rays of white cathedral tapers lighted about the altar gave a wonderfully impressive effect.

Just previous to the ceremony Mrs. W. H. McDaniel sang, "All For You."

Promptly at high noon, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, effectively rendered by Mrs. C. G. Gilbert, the bridal party entered the main auditorium of the church from the vestibule, preceded by the ushers, Capt. George Cook and Lieut. J. B. Anderson, of Camp Greenleaf. The bride entered with her sister, Miss Ruth Sparks, as maid of honor and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Major Roy O. Henry, of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. S. Leonard, assisted by Dr. G. G. Sydnor, of Rome, the full ring service being used. During the ceremony Mrs. Gilbert softly played "Hearts And Flowers."

The bride was never more attractive than on this occasion, being becomingly gowned in a tailored suit of grey, with hats, shoes and gloves en suite. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. The maid of honor wore a lovely pink Georgette dress with picture hat, and her bouquet was pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride, a few special friends and relatives being invited. The reception room was in Christmas colors and the dining room was tastily decorated in pink. A two course wedding luncheon was served from the buffet.

The bride and groom left on a ten days' trip, after which they will be at home to their friends with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henderson, at Chickamauga, while Lieut. Henry is in the medical corps of the army.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Sparks and the granddaughter and namesake of Mrs. Addie Marsh Warthen, the Marsh family being one of the pioneer and prominent families of this section. Two dresses of the bride's trousseau were made from the trousseau of her mother, who as Miss Mary Warthen, was one of the most popular young women of this place. Mrs. Henry is a charming and accomplished young woman and is popular with a wide circle of friends. The groom is [illegible]

A TRIBUTE OF LOVE

To the memory of Thomas Aiken who on June 19, 1918, passed from this to a better world. He had traveled the pathway of life for about 86 years and if the way was sometimes rugged and steep he never murmured or complained but pressed ever onward toward the goal. He was sick for quite awhile, suffering greatly, yet he bore his pain with meekness and Christian fortitude. We cannot understand why it is that our loved ones have to suffer for months and then at last be taken from us, but we know that He who holds our lives in the hollow of His hand makes no mistakes though all may seem dark to us now we know that somewhere, sometime, we will know and understand it all. He was a devoted husband, kind and loving father, loyal to his friends and true to his convictions for what he thought was right.

It makes us feel sad to know that we will never see Uncle Tom again in this life and we know that in the home there is a vacant place which never can be filled, but somewhere in God's beautiful mansions above, we will meet him again to part no more. Dear bereaved ones, may God look on you with tender mercy and heal the wounds in each sorrowing heart, and help you to look beyond the gloom, where transplanted roses bloom; for only a moulding casket lies burried beneath the sod, wet with the tears of memory, watched by the eyes of God. In heaven you shall see your loved one, not in the silent tomb, not in a moulding casket, but clothed with immortal bloom.—A Loving Niece.

DUCK CREEK

On last Monday about 1 o'clock p. m. the gentle spirit of Miss Sallie Rush left the tenement of clay in which it had been nurtured for more than 20 years, and winged its flight to it's eternal home. Sallie was a good girl, loved by all who knew her. She suffered much but bore her afflictions and suffering with patience and christian fortitude. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Bethel near Gore, Ga., Tuesday afternoon, Rev. I. S. Leonard conducting the funeral service. We could but imagine as we helped to lower the casket into the silent tomb, how hard it must be for parents to give up their children. We tender our sympathies to those bereaved.

IN MEMORY

On the evening of March 1, 1918, the sweet spirit of Mrs. Annie Lee Wyatt Thomas went home to God who gave it.

Our community was filled with gloom and sadness by the announcement of her death as she was greatly loved by all she came in contact with and especially her schoolmates, as she was a great favorite with them. She always had a kind word and pleasant smile for everyone she met.

She was sick sometime but bore her suffering with much patience and seemed to meet death with a smile. She was born Dec. 26, 1900, died Mar. 1, 1918, and was married to Harve Thomas on Dec. 23, 1917. She professed faith in Christ early in life and united with Pleasant Hill Methodist church of which she lived a faithful member until God said it is enough, come up higher. She leaves her husband, mother, step-father, brothers and [illegible]ost of relatives an[illegible] mourn her depature, b[illegible] loss is her gain.

1841—MRS. J. W. NASH—1918

The following tribute to the life of Mrs. J. W. Nash was written by her niece, Mrs. Robert Berry, of Morristown, Tenn:

In this day of swiftly moving world event, with history rapidly in the making, and governments changed over-night, it is quite possible to fail to give such thought as is due to the passing from our midst of a loved and aged saint, whose life of usefulness reached a quiet, natural and peaceful end.

Such was the death of Mrs. J. W. Nash, and because it is true that she out-lived all her old associates, who knew and loved her best, it becomes a real privilege to a younger loved one, to pay this simple tribute to her beautiful life.

Elizabeth Jennings Nash was born in Edgefield county, South Carolina on June 25, 1841, member of a family whose name figures prominently in the history of the state. Her grandfather, John Jennings, was a man of affairs and of wealth. Her father, Wm. Hastings Jennings, removed to Georgia shortly after her marriage, and being a student and dreamer, the father of a large family, was never able to maintain the financial status of his youth.

Upon the death of her parents, Elizabeth made her home with her sister, the wife of Major A. J. Healan, whose home for years was the cottage on the northern edge of LaFayette, lorated upon the beautiful hill, a maple grove, quite a few of the trees of which she set out sixty-five years ago.

From this home she was married to Dr. J. W. Nash, who afterwards purchased the home, and here there were born to them the following children: Maggie (Mrs. E. P. Hall, Sr.), James, Tyre J. and Thomas.

They lived here for 25 years, until upon the sale of the property, they built the present home on Cove St., from which home Mrs. Nash died Sept. 24, 1918.

This simple sketch compasses the life-span of a former citizen, but it does not touch the inner life which made of Mrs. Nash, a personality whose influence will live. Fighting ill-health for many years, there was no word of complaint; frail of body, she yet neglected no duty; bright in mind and in spirit, her letters were an inspiration to her loved ones—a devoted Christian, she made one feel there was that in her life which physical weakness could not touch.

The memory of such a mother will be a blessed heritage to her children.

A NOBLE YOUNG LIFE ANSWERS LAST CALL

MRS. W. H. McDANIEL VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS—WAS UNIVERSALLY LOVED.

Mrs. Nell Brittain McDaniel, wife of Superintendent W. H. McDaniel, died at her home on North Main St., Saturday night at nine o'clock, following a few days' illness of pneumonia.

At first she was not considered dangerously ill but Thursday afternoon pneumonia quickly developed in both lungs and her condition became alarming. It was then seen that she could not live.

At the time of her death the deceased was thirty years of age, and her going shocked the entire community, for she had woven her life into almost every phase of the town's activities. A devoutly, consecrated Christian, she centered her activities in the promotion of the Master's kingdom. Early in life she dedicated her life to the Christ, joined the Baptist church and loved her Lord and His work with a passionate devotion.

Her charming personality, her splendid Christian character, and her tireless energy won for her a way into the hearts of young and old alike and her death today is mourned by all those with whom she came in contact.

Surviving her are a husband; one son, W. H. Jr.; two foster-children, Henry and Cynthia Ward, her deceased sister's children, Mrs. F. L. Ward; two sisters, Mrs. A. J. Langley, of Roanoke, Ala., and Mrs. O. J. Dollens, of LaGrange, Ga.; two brothers, W. H. Brittain, of Roanoke, Ala., and A. N. Brittain, of Palmetto, Ga.

A sweet funeral service was held from the home Sunday afternoon at three-thirty, conducted by her pastor, Rev. I. S. Leonard, who paid a beautiful tribute to her life, assisted by Rev. B. F. Gullie. Special quartette music was rendered. A large number of sorrowing friends gathered for the service.

Monday morning the remains were carried to Roanoke, Ala. The husband could not accompany the funeral cortege on account of the serious illness of his only son, but the body was accompanied to Roanoke, by Col. Jas. P. Shattuck, an intimate friend of the family, and Col. Walter B. Shaw, Chairman of the Board of Education, together with a sister of the deceased, Mrs. A. J. Langley and Miss Mamie Veazy, a teacher in the Linwood school. Along with the body was shipped a profusion of

MRS. SALLIE TALLEY DIED AFTER A BRIEF ILLNESS

The death Monday night at 9 o'clock of Mrs. Sallie Talley, wife of Dr. R. E. Talley, at the Dickerson home in LaFayette, after a week's illness of pneumonia, came as a distinct shock to her many relatives and friends in the county.

The deceased was forty years of age at the time of her death, and is survived by her husband, one daughter, Evelyn, one son, Billy, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McWilliams, and two brothers, F. L. McWilliams of LaFayette and George McWilliams of West Armuchee.

Mrs. Talley, who was called here a few weeks ago by the illness of her daughter, became ill with influenza and pneumonia quickly developed. Her children were housed in the Dickersonn home while attending the LaFayette school.

Early in life Mrs. Talley professed faith in Christ and joined the Baptist church, in which she lived a faithful member until the end came Monday night.

Funeral services were conducted from Shiloh Baptist church Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends by W. P. and Capt. J. M. Jackson. Interment followed in the Shiloh cemetery.

George Jones' friends feel sympathy for him in the death Saturday of his sixteen-year-old daughter, Clara, from an attack of influenza. The funeral was held from Happy Home colored Baptist church Sunday morning, conducted by Rev. Dave Marshal, of Atlanta. The dead girl was a great comfort in her home and possessed a fine character in every way.

Ellis Gerber, a brother of Mrs. Ralph Martin, and a nephew of Misses Orpha and Linn Center, was killed in action in France, Oct. 29th. The toll of death has taken a life of splendid promise. Only twenty-six, by his enterprise, talents, industry and fine habits, he was a successful business man and had accumulated valuable property. The youngest of a large family to whom all members were devoted, and tenderly loved with deserving pride, this Supreme Sacrifice of a young life is peculiarly sad. After enlistment, before going over seas, Mr. Gerber visited his relatives here and in Alabama.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. J. A. J. Strickland, who died at her home at Hillsdale, last Thursday night, were held at the Shaw graveyard Friday afternoon. Interment immediately followed.

OBITUARY.

Among the many victims of the epidemic that recently visited our community none will be missed more than William R. Tucker. He had lived most of his life in Rossville, his father and mother moving here when Willie was a small boy from Chestnut Flat.

Will Tucker was prominently identified with the City Government as Councilman and as Clerk of the Board. As an Odd Fellow he had just passed through the chairs with credit and honor. He was also an active member of the Masonic fraternity; took an active part in civic and political matters and could always be found on the right of a moral question.

About 28 years old, his possibilities for a successful career were very promising. He leaves a young widow, father, mother, sisters and brothers, besides many warm friends and admirers who will greatly miss him, for indeed all who knew him, loved him.

At the time of his death there were so many sick that few could accompany the body to the old home graveyard near Catlett, so a memorial service was held in the Methodist Church, South, conducted by the writer. Others who gave testimony of his noble character as a Mason, an Odd Fellow, and as a citizen, were: Atty. Chas. Robert Jones, Herbert Cook, Clay McFarland, and W. H. Stanley. A large congregation was present, thereby testifying their esteem and love of a noble life. May we so live as to meet our friend again.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of Thomas Akins who departed this life June 9th, 1918.

Born in January 1849, he was married to Miss Julia Tate. To this union were born three children, all of whom survive him except one son T. J. Akins, who preceded him to the Great Beyond some years ago.

Mr. Akins professed Christ when 36 years of age and lived each day of his life true to his profession. He was a kind husband and a loving father, a friend to the friendless, and a splendid neighbor. He was an honorable, upright citizen, ever ready to lend a helping hand to the poor, needy, and the sick. Mr. Akins was kind, loving, and patient with his fellow-man, his door was always open to the wayfaring.

For about a year before he died his health was poor, and he realized that his life upon this earth was drawing to a close. He bore his suffering with all patience and talked of his Heavenly home and the time when his work on earth would be done. When God called him he smiled the smile of righteousness and peacefully went to sleep to wait the resurrection morn.

IN MEMORY.

On Monday, December 16, 1918, God in His wisdom saw fit to take from us a precious cousin, Miss Sarah Rush.

Let us believe it should be thus and meekly submit to His will, and strive harder to meet her where there will be no more sad partings and where all is happiness.

She was a faithful member of the Chattooga Baptist church for quite a while. She leaves a mother, father, four sisters, and three brothers, and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Her funeral was conducted by Rev. I. S. Leonard in the presence of a large circle of sorrowing friends and relatives, then she was tenderly laid to rest in Bethel cemetery near Gore.

When love has bound the heart,
Tis so hard to speak the word,

OBITUARY

On New Year's morning the dear angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elsen Kelley and plucked from it the precious jewel, taking our baby boy J. T., age 3 years. He leaves one lonely little sister, age 5 years. He lingered for more than a week with pneumonia. No one knows how much he suffered, but he bore it so patiently and he struggled hard to live.

We can't see why he was called away, but God knoweth what is best. I would not call him back in his suffering if I could. But Christ said "Suffer little children, come unto Me."

He was such a loving child and made friends everywhere he went. No one can ever fill the vacant place that is left in our home. We are so lonely since he has gone. He was only with us 3 short years but he was dearer to us than our own lives. His whole thoughts seemed to be of taking care of mamma. The last word he ever said was "Mamma." I was sick but did all I could for him. He had good attention but that wasn't like mamma with him. No one but mothers who have given up their babies realize what it is. We have one sweet promise to rest on, if we live up to our duty that some day we will meet where there will be no more goodbyes nor sorrow, no tears, but all will be brightness forever. I aim to meet him again some day and what a happy meeting 'twill be.

He was a child that everything went to suit. His playmates loved him and enjoyed being with him. I feel like he never was enough trouble to me. I've never felt like I would get to keep him long. I often think of that dear old song "It won't be long, It may be soon." It won't be long till I'll see him again. God will care for us and keep us if we only trust Him and we will all be together some day, for we all know he is asleep in Jesus. His body was laid to rest in the Conchat cemetery.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

Uncle Noah Marsh, well-known old-timer, a freeholder, died Sunday afternoon, after months of failing health. He fought death with the dogged determination that was his characteristic, refusing to go to bed, and passed away sitting up in a big chair. Much regret is felt over the going of this good old colored citizen, blunt and plain, but a man of his word. As a fine gardener many a spot has blossomed under his skillful labor. He was perhaps seventy years old and leaves a faithful wife, Aunt Dollie, two sons, Willis and Jesse, one sister, Alice McWhorter, and one brother, Jody Marsh. The funeral was held Monday morning from the Methodist church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. McWhirter, assisted by Rev. Mack Wilson, the interment in the city cemetery.

The death last week of D. A. Reese, at the home of his son, Charlie, at Linwood, comes as a distinct shock to his many friends in the county. Funeral services were held at Chickamauga, interment immediately following.

WARREN

Death has again been in our midst and claimed for its victim Miss Inez Tanner.

She had been sick only a few days. Her death came as a shock to her many friends.

We extend to the bereaved ones our sympathy.

IN MEMORY

Of my dear, sweet friend, Mrs. Rosa Bettis, wife of J. E. Bettis.

This splendid christian friend of mine was born Feb. 7, 1854, and went to her eternal home a few days before the death of the old year, Dec. 23, 1918.

It just seems too cruel that we can't behold that kind, sweet face again here. It is almost unthinkable now, but our Creator, who never makes a mistake, will eventually, as the weeks grow into months, and the months into years, soothe our overflowing and saddened hearts.

It is a glorious and beautiful thought that to know that "when the morning breaks eternal bright and fair," we, who feel so disconsolate now, will again behold her radiant face, and sorrowing husband and heart-broken children, it will be such, such a little while. Such a short brief while until life's little, sorrowful day ebbs out, and then we who do the bidding of the Son of the King will be reunited forevermore!

It was my privilege to only be in the society of Mrs. Bettis for one summer, but in that short period she was so gentle, kind and winning that she greatly endeared herself to me, and I learned to love her very much. And I must say her going away fills my heart with an inexpressible sadness and a great yearning to behold her face again, and, God helping me, I will.

By her loving friend
GRACE REYNOLDS.

IN LOVING MEMORY

On Jan. 14, 1919 the death angel visited the home Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lanier and took from them little Lily May. Little Lily May was eleven months old. It grieves our hearts to give up our loved ones. Its place is vacant but God knows best.

The golden gates were open wide,
The gentle voices said, Come;
And an angel on the other side
Welcomed the dear little babe home.

IN MEMORY

Mrs. Amanda Bird, wife of Dan Bird, died at her home in LaFayette, Dec. 10, 1918. She was Born Nov. 4, 1851, and was married to Dan Bird in August 1873. She was converted in 1866 and joined the Methodist church, ever living a true consecrated Christian life.

At a revival held in Lindale, Ga., by Rev. C. B. Jernigan in 1904 she sought and obtained the blessing of entire sanctification. In a spirit of humility and Christ-like simplicity she always testified to this great Christian experience, giving God the glory for the power in blood to save from all sin.

For many months she was a great sufferer, but was always patient and cheerful, manifesting a simple faith and trust in her Lord, and saying "thy will be done."

She leaves beside her husband and four children, a host of relatives and friends who will miss her. She was tenderly laid to rest in the beautiful little cemetery at Center Point church near the home of her childhood, to await the morn of resurrection.

"Blessed are they that have part in the first Resurrection."

That is a great consolation to us to know that she is in heaven where we will never know any more sorrow and sickness. We will have that peace with God which is promised to us all if we do His will and live as He wants us too. So now dear loved ones just prepare to meet Sarah in heaven for she is there waiting for you all.

She is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rush, two brothers, Bryan and Julius Rush, three sisters, Mrs. Oscar Cherry, Mrs Zackey Gilreath and Mrs. Charlie Landers, who are left to mourn their loss.

O. little Cecil Adams, darling of Mr. and Mrs. Adams, who was born May 16th, 1918 and died January 11th., 1919.

It seems so hard to give up our little darling boy who has been the joy and comfort of our home for nearly eight months. It seems we cannot be at home without our darling little babe, but God knoweth best and some sweet day we can meet our dear little companion and can clasp him in our arms once more where there will be no sad partings any more. He was a loving little child and made friends with everyone.

Dear, sweet, tender, loving grace,
No more we'll see your smiling face,
No more we'll hear your dear little voice,
But some sweet day we can meet our loss.

His Loving Aunt,
E. G. B.

IN MEMORY OF JESSE MONROE DURHAM

Jesse was the son of Daniel and Martha Durham and was born in Dekalb Co., Alabama, July 9, 1893, having lived there until 1911, when he moved with his father and mother to McLemore's Cove in Walker Co., Georgia, and lived there until July 24, 1918, when he was drafted into military service.

He left LaFayette, Ga., July 24, 1918, along with several other Walker county boys, for Camp Gordon, where he was trained as an infantry man until Sept. 6, when he was transferred to Camp Merritt, N. J., remaining there until Sept. 26 when he sailed for France.

Jesse landed safely overseas and remained in France until his death, which occurred November 10, 1918 at Base hospital No. 62, Mars, Nievre, France. He was buried in the American cemetery at that place.

Jesse was married to Miss Bertha Hayes, of LaFayette, Ga., May 25, 1918 and lived happily with her until he was called to the army.

It is hard for us to realize that Jesse is dead. We loved him as only a true friend can love. No grander, nobler soul ever left America to fight for the right. Oh, how hard it was for Jesse to say good by to his aged parents, his loving wife and afflicted brother, not knowing that he would ever see them again on this earth, yet he responded to his call like a man, never shirking.

Too much good cannot be said of this noble boy. He was the most obedient son to his aged parents I ever knew. He was kind and good to his afflicted brother, staying with him and helping him until he was called away.

Jesse married a noble girl and lived and loved her as only a true husband could. He was one of the most promising young school teachers of our county, and was loved and respected wherever he taught. I cannot believe that a more promising life was lost in the world war.

When we see Jesse's comrades returning it's hard for us to realize that Jesse can never come back to us; that he lies buried in a grave far away, but while it's hard we realize that it's real. We know that Jesse is dead; that he can never come back to us; but if we only live our lives as Christ would have us live we have the blessed promise that we shall meet Jesse in heaven, where there will be no more sad partings, sickness nor death, but all will be peace, joy, a glory forever.

Thou are gone to the grave,
We will not grieve thee;
Since God was thy ransom,
And guardian and guide,
He gave thee, He took thee,
And soon will restore thee,
Where death has no sting,
Since the Savior died.

A FRIEND.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of little Cecil Adams. He was born May 16th, 1918 and died January 11th, 1919. Oh, it was so hard to give him up, he was such a sweet baby, but the Heavenly Father knows best and we must say, "Thy will be done."

We are sad since he went away to live in that land beyond the skies in that Eternal bliss where no sorrow ever comes.

He cannot come back to brighten our home but we can go to him where death or sorrow can never part us any more.

Asleep in Jesus, yet so young,
Life with it's sweetness just begun,
May we so live that when we are called to cross the dark river of death that we will fear no evil, but will go to that happy and Eternal home and meet our little loved one in the city of bliss beyond the starry skies.

A Loving Uncle,
LEE CORDELL.

IN MEMORY

On February 1, 1919, a beautiful and useful life was ended when God in his infinite wisdom removed from our midst, our beloved friend, Miss Inez Tanner. She joined the Baptist church at LaFayette and was a faithful member at the time of her death. Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. I. S. Leonard, and her body was laid to rest in LaFayette cemetery.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. L. S. McCarter and one brother, J. W., and one sistre, Christine, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

It wasn't our pleasure to know her long, but those who knew her best loved her most. Our sympathies and prayers go out to the bereaved family, and may God's richest blessings rest on them.

IN MEMORY

Of Jesse Wallin, son of James and Eliza Wallin. He was born at Cedar Grove, May 28th, 1883 and died at his home at LaFayette January 30th, 1919, loved and respected by all who knew him. Sixteen years ago he was married to Miss Sallie Stoker, of Cedar Grove. To this union was born one child, Alvis, who is now a grown young lady and who realizes the loss of a kind and indulgent father as only those who have had the experience can.

I feel that too much cannot be said in Jesse's behalf as a kind and indulgent father, a lover of home, and an industrious and law-abiding man. His chance in life was poor. He was left an orphan in infancy, both father and mother dying when he was quite small. He was reared to young manhood by his older brother and sisters. While he had a great love for books and useful information, from childhood up he was deprived of an education, but with a determination that could not be downed, he worked hard, supported his family, and attended the LaFayette High School after he was married, studied bookkeeping by mail, and at the age of thirty-two had obtained a fine business education.

At the time of his death he held a good position with the Union Cotton Mills at LaFayette, where he was held in the highest esteem by all of his superiors and was loved by all the hands. He numbered his friends by all who knew him.

I have known Jesse Wallin all his life and I never heard a person say that he disliked him. I felt that his record was good but Jesse, with all his love and smiles for every one was not a Christian. What a pity, How much more valuable would his short life have been had he spent it in the service of the Lord, but thanks be to God that on his death bed he repented of his sins, gave his whole heart to God and prayed through to victory. Thank God for the promise that he that cometh in at the eleventh hour shall receive wages. After all of his bereavement and afflictions here we hope to be with him in a blissful eternity.

HIS COUSIN.

AGNES JUNE McGREGOR

Agnes June McGregor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McGregor, who died at her home at Rock Spring, Ga., on Thursday, Feb. 6th, was laid to rest in Peavine cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Tallant. The pallbearers were Ed Cook, Glenn Smith, Willie McClure, Frank Hall, Hill Pless, Martin Cranmore and Price Henry.

Agnes was a member of the Baptist church for a number of years and was a devoted church worker. She has many friends in the community who will miss her—the Sunday school will miss her, the prayer meeting will miss her, but most of all she'll be missed in the home. She was a true christian girl, a dutiful daughter and a kind loving sister.

Simplicity was the keynote of her life. As a child her pleasures were of the simplest, and as she grew to young womanhood she never reached out after worldly pleasures. She enjoyed the simpler things of life.

Agnes was very patriotic, and when war was declared it was her desire to go to France as a Red Cross nurse, but she lacked the proper training so she did her bit at home.

It is hard for us to realize that Jesse is dead. We loved him as only a true friend can love. No grander, nobler soul ever left America to fight for the right. Oh, how hard it was for Jesse to say good by to his aged parents, his loving wife and afflicted brother, not knowing that he would ever see them again on this earth, yet he responded to his call like a man, never shirking.

LAFAYETTE R. 2

Well, we were glad to hear of Mr and Mrs. Ed Hall's fine boy, born last week. We hope that the boy will grow up and make a good and useful man and be a blessing to his father and mother.

Cooper, of Linwood, and moved to Mrs. Dunwoody's two weeks ago. We sympathize with the bereaved family.

LINWOOD LOCALS

The death of Mrs. Sallie Foster at 12:00 Saturday night in the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. E. Dunwoody in West LaFayette, came as a distinct shock to her many relatives and friends. She had a stroke of paralysis about twelve years ago, which rendered her in a measure helpless, yet she was bright and cheerful and fond of reading. She would often take her crutch and go out and visit the sick. She seemed reasonably well Saturday night and sat up 'till her usual bed time. She only lived forty minutes after giving the alarm of her sudden illness.

The funeral will take place today (Tuesday) at 2:00 p. m. at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. I. S. Leonard.

Mrs. Foster was the wife of the late Judge E. Foster, who so ably filled the office of Ordinary of this county the last few years of his life. The deceased is survived by six daughters: Mrs. J. N. Hilton, of Canton, Mrs. Robert Carmicle, of Chattanooga, Mrs. M. L. Cooper, Mrs. Hart Bilbo, Mrs. D. E. Dunwoody and Mrs. Hammond Smith, all of LaFayette, and four sons: Frank Foster, of Thomaston, Charlie Foster, of Birmingham, Ala., Henry Foster, of Cedartown, and Zeik Foster, of Chickamauga. Her children always made it a point to do all in their power for their mother's comfort. For the last three years she had made her home with Mrs. M. L.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. G. A. NASH

AFTER A BRIEF ILLNESS

Friends in the county of Mrs. G. A. Nash will be pained to learn of her death early Monday morning, at the West Ellis hospital in Chattanooga. She was taken suddenly ill in church Thursday morning, pneumonia quickly developing, which resulted in her death Monday.

Surviving the deceased is her husband, G. A. Nash; one son, J. E. Wright, of Chicago; a sister, Mrs. L. E. Lynch, of Chicago, and a brother, G. A. Wilkinson, of Columbus, Miss.

Mrs. Nash had lived in Chattanooga twenty seven years, coming from Baltimore to Mrs. William Wright. She was a very active church worker and held several prominent positions in the Women's organizations of the Methodist church. She was universally loved and her place in the church will be hard to fill.

Funeral services were held at Centenary church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by the Revs. E. E. Wiley, Catron and Mullins.

Relatives and friends of the family here extend their heartfelt sympathies in this sad hour of bereavement.

IN MEMORY

On January 14th, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hegwood and took from them their darling baby who was eighteen months old. God had a place prepared for it and took it to fill that place. We know it is hard to give it up but God knoweth best; he is the one that doeth all things well. I I can only say to the bereaved parents, weep not for your little baby is at rest. It is an angel in heaven ready to welcome father and mother through the Golden Gates. All we have to do to see our loved ones is to live to see them in Heaven, so you will see her again if you only live to please God, and will never have to part any more and all will be peace forever.

God gaveth and God taketh away.
It's place is vacant in the home and no one can ever fill it, but God knows best.
It's little body was laid to rest in Concord cemetery, to await the resurrection morn.
The golden gates were open wide
The gentle voice said "Come"
And angels on the other side
Welcomed dear little baby home.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. THOMAS J. STEPHENS

Mrs. Stephens, nee Martha M. Boatman, died December 22, 1918, at her home on Lookout Mountain, near Dalton, Ga.

She was an earnest Christian who carried her religion into every duty in life, and the world is the better for her having lived.

The neatness of her home was a joy to the visitor, her gardens, her fruits, her flowers, her poultry and her dairy were an inspiration to all who saw them.

She was the dutiful daughter, the loving wife and the helpful neighbor.

When she closed her eyes on this world, she rejoiced to hear her Master say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." A Life Long Friend.

NEELY—MASSEY

The marriage of Miss Lorraine Neely and Mr John William Massey, which was solemnized at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon, April 16th, at 4 o'clock was a most brilliant event.

The church was attractively decorated with growing plants, smilax and masses of snow-white dogwood blossoms. The windows were darkened and spring blossoms and Easter Lilies were used in profusion, giving the church the appearance of an exquisite blooming garden. The altar was massed with flowers and behind it was an immense trellis of dogwood blossoms, evergreens and growing plants and baskets of Easter lilies. The reflection from the soft rays of dozens of white cathedral tapers, lighted about the altar, gave a wonderfully impressive effect. The immense wedding bell, under which the couple stood, was a work of art,ladened with Easter lilies, intertwined with smilax and festoons of fairy lulle. The bell was suspended under a canopy of green and Easter lilies.

Just previous to the ceremony Mr. Robert Park sang "All For You," and Mr. N. C. Napier sang, "At Dawning."

Promptly at four o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Miss Winnifred Ball, the bridal party entered the main auditorium of the church from the vestibule, preceded by the ushers, Mr. W. A. Enloe and Mr. Frank Kirby. The bride entered with her matron of honor, Mrs John Rhyne, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. E. P. Hall, Jr. The bridal party stood under the immense wedding bell, which presented a most beautiful picture.

The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. J. S. Leonard, the full ring service being used. During the ceremony Miss Ball softly played "Hearts and Flowers."

The bride was never more attractive than on this occasion, being becomingly gowned in a white crepe de chine dress with white picture hat. She wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses tied with exquisite tulle. The matron of honor wore a lovely pink Georgette dress with picture hat, and her bouquet was pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride, a few special friends and relatives being invited. The reception room was banked in dogwood blossoms, and the dining room was decorated in pink and green. A delicious ice course carrying out the color scheme, pink and green, was served. Also punch was served by Misses Addie Augusta Wert and Margaret Patton.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neely, and is popular with a wide circle of friends. The groom is assistant cashier of the Bank of LaFayette, and is a young man of sterling character and marked ability.

A large number of out-of-town guests attended the wedding.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of Mrs. J. J. Strickland, who died at her home near Burnt Mill ford, January 17th., 1919, following an illness of influenza.

The deceased is survived by a husband, and five children. She was born and raise I in Chattooga county.

She was loved by all who knew her, and always had a kind word and a smiling face. She was a Christian woman and tried to live right. How much she will be missed by her loved ones, no one but God knows.

God knows best, so we pool husband and children for mother and wife, for what is our loss is her eternal gain. There is a vacant chair in her home that never can be filled. Live right husband and children so you all can meet wife and mother at the Judgement Bar of God. May the Lord bless the whole entire family and ever be with them.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of Carl Cordell. The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cordell and took from them their little baby, Carl. He was only two years old at the time of his death. He was born January 28, 1917 and departed this life January 5th., 1919.

Little Carl was loved by everyone who knew him. He was always smiling at everybody and did look so sweet. I want to say to the father and mother, little Carl is not dead, he is only asleep in Jesus' arms. There is a vacant place in the homes and hearts of the loving ones that never can be filled. I say to the bereaved ones just to look up for the little one, he is not forgotten but is waiting at the gates of Heaven for us.

Little Carl was too good to stay in this old sinful world. God knows best; if it was his will, let it be ours. Sleep on little Carl until the Resurrection morning and then we shall all arise and be together.

"A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled."

IN MEMORY

Of William Holden Wardlaw. The angel of death entered our home Nov 27, 1918, and removed from our midst our beloved husband and father, that thereby his spirit might be transmitted to heaven.

He was born Sept. 3rd, 1843 near LaFayette. He was the first son of Capt J. C. Wardlaw. He was married to his first wife, Eliza Ann Walls in 1871 and to this union were born nine children; L. W. Wardlaw, of Chattanooga, Mrs. Mary Clarkson, of Menlo, Mrs. A. L. England, of Hickory, N. C. J. W. and S. W. Wardlaw, of LaFayette, Mrs. H. H. Henderson, of Villa Rica, Ga., H. F. Wardlaw, of Jamestown, Ala.; and his son and daughter Larrow and Laton who preceded him to their heavenly home. His first wife died near LaFayette in 1890.

Mr. Wardlaw was married to Eliza Hunter, Nov. 27, 1891 and they lived together until his death 24 years later, when God took him home to heaven. It was sad to say good bye, but God never pots more on anyone than they are able to bear. What a great consolation it is to know that he is through with the troubles of this life, and although we cannot call him back, but thank God we can go to him in a better world than this, where there will be no sad partings, but where all will be joy and happiness.

MRS. ELIZABETH MASSEY PASSED AWAY WEDNESDAY

After a lingering illness of several weeks, Mrs. Elizabeth Massey, died at her home at Pond Spring, Wednesday afternoon, at the age of 78.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the Cove Methodist church, conducted by Rev. W. C. Tallent. Interment followed in the Cove graveyard.

Mrs. Massey was awo man of splendid traits of character, and her death will be deplored by her host of friends.

IN MEMORY.

Of my dear mother, Mrs. Frances Tate, wife of J. S. Tate, who departed this life August 19, 1918, at the age of 62 years.

She was a faithful member of the Baptist church of LaFayette, Ga. She was never heard to murmur or complain and bore her affliction, the consumption, with great patience.

She leaves a husband and four children; two daughters and two sons to mourn her death.

Dear mother is gone, but not forgotten.

She was an obedient mother, a kind and loving wife.

All who knew her did not know anything else but to love her. We did love her so much, but God loved her more, and saw fit to take her from us. It was His will not ours.

Oh! that we may all live the life that she lived.

We can not call her back—but we can go to her—and God being our helper we intend to be with her where there will be no more good byes.

Friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Clay McFarland will be pained to learn of the death Tuesday morning early of their seven months' old son. Funeral services were held at the home of J. R. McFarland Wednesday inorning at 10 o'clock. Interment at Cleveland, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Jackson, Col. and Mrs. Earl Jackson, P. D. Fortune and H. S. Lovern attended the burial Sunday in Trion cemetery of Mrs. Margaret Center Close, the venerable mother of Pink and Bass Close of Chattanooga.

IN MEMORY OF J. W. KEYS.

The subject of this sketch was born March 30, 1840. In young manhood he was married to Miss Adela Woods Baker who was a member of a family of a true Southern type. To this union were born seven children two of them being taken to heaven in babyhood.

When his beloved companion was taken from him, he was left with his five little children to raise, but he did it admirably well and four of them are still living who can testify of their father's love and tender devotion to his family.

Not until his children were all about grown did he again marry. This second marriage was to Miss Margaret Knox, of Chattooga County who survives him. She, too, was of a family of sterling worth.

Mr. Keys spent the prime of his life in Walker county, living for a number of years near Rock Spring. He was a good neighbor, honest in his dealings with his fellow man and always very loyal to his friends.

Some few years ago he and his wife moved to Chattooga County where he made many staunch friends, residing there until about a year ago when his health became so poor that they moved to St. Elmo, Tennessee, to be with his daughter, Mrs. Laura Simmons, that she might help the kind and patient wife wait on him in his last days.

Besides his wife and four children, Dr. Robert Keys, of Oklahoma, Mrs. Claud Jinkins, of Arizona, Mrs. Robt. Fillers, of Noble, Ga., and Mrs. Laura Simmons, of St. Elmo, Tennessee, he is survived by three grand children and one great grandchild.

We would say to the weeping wife and heartbroken children and grandchildren, "Weep not for Our Father in Heaven doeth all things well. Though we do not understand all the mysteries of life now, one day we shall all be able to see it all quite plainly. Your loved one was permitted to live more than the allotted time. He was only called upon to pay the price that all of us must pay. These material bodies of ours must one day be placed beneath the sod, while our spirit wings its flight to the God who gave it. Then it behooves each of us to live that when we are called upon to pass into the Great Beyond that we may be able to meet our Saviour face to face and at the sound of that well known voice arise and enter into that life where there is no more death and sorrow, but where all is joy and peace and happiness forever more."

IN MEMORY.

On Friday, June 28th, 1918, the death angel visited the home and conducted the gentle spirit of the kind father and loving husband, Mr. John William Keen to its eternal home.

He was born April 21, 1858 and at the age of 23 years was married to Annie Smith. To this union was born one son. After his wife's death, he was married in 1905 to Mrs. Ellen Howard, and to them were born three children.

Brother Keen was a highly respected citizen of Chattooga county, always living a true Christian life, true and loyal to his Master's cause.

As a husband he was always devoted to his help-mate, always trying to prepare for her happiness and comfort, and as a father, always trying to discharge his duty before his children.

Brother Keen was converted and joined the church in his early boyhood and in 1902 was ordained a deacon of the Baptist church, of which he was a faithful member. He united with the Chattooga Baptist church by letter in 1911 and remained a member until his death.

We would say to the bereaved wife and children, "Weep not, for his loss is our eternal gain, but prepare to meet husband and father where parting comes no more."

We recommend that a copy of this be printed in the Messenger and a copy sent to his wife, and children and also be recorded on our book of minutes.

ARTHUR THURMAN'S BODY BROUGHT TO CENCHAT

The body of Arthur Thurman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thurman, who turned over on the north turn of the brick track at Indianapolis during the international races last Saturday, was brought to Chattanooga Monday. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Chattanooga Valley Baptist church, interment following in the Cenchat cemetery.

Surviving the deceased are his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thurman, and a brother and three sisters—Mrs. Nora Barnes and Misses Winnie and Lula Thurman.

Thurman was a qualified attorney, having studied law at Mercer University and Piedmont college. He was born some thirty-five years ago in a Texas town, from which he and his family moved during his childhood to Cenchat.

Thurman practiced law in Atlanta for a few years and then went into the automobile business and later into the racing game. The latter business he pursued on the side, selling, in the meantime, automobile accessories. His headquarters was in Washington, the home of his brother, Byron Thurman.

The racer gathered considerable fame on the Pacific coast, where he raced in the car in which he was killed, one built by himself and called by him, first, the "Dusenberg Special," after the motor he used, and later, the "Thurman Special." The car was built for races on the dirt tracks of the west and he drove of last week was its initial appearance on a brick track.

The host of friends of the grief-stricken father and mother and brother and sisters, deeply sympathize with them in the tragic death of Mr. Thurman.

IN MEMORY

God in His allwise providence has called our sister, Miss Sabie Suttle, from earth to heaven. She was a consecrated christian woman. Her deep piety was apparent to all. The influence that she has left behind is an attractive force to draw us closer to God, for when we in meditation review her life we are persuaded that she is in the "Land that is farer than day."

The community has a missing link for power, Shiloh church has a missing christian. Her vacant place in the home has brought the shadows deep and sorrowful, but the God who created her and redeemed her certainly loved her and she has left us to cross over the river and be with Him and all of the ransomed of God at rest forever.

Sister Suttle was very industrious, performing everything she did with the most painstaking care. So long as she had the strength she loved to wait on the sick, carry them nice things to eat. She would sit by the bedside of her friends all night and never show the least sign of weariness.

So to her dear ones left waiting at the old homestead, lift your eyes and look beyond the everlasting hills of God's own time to the sweet fields of Eden and remember there awaits a rest for you and all of God's people. Oh for a faith that we might trustingly place our hand in our Heavenly Father's and say, "It is well." Our own are our own forever God taketh not back his gift. They may pass beyond our vision, but our souls shall find them out.—Mrs. Millican, Mrs. Little, Mrs. John Bomar Committee.

IN MEMORY

The noble spirit of our beloved sister, Mrs. R. E. Talley, passed into the joy of heaven, leaving a sorrowing husband, mother, father, daughter, son, friends and church to cherish the memory of one the truest christians God has ever honored us to know and fellowship; her life full of faith and good works has commended his doctrine to the consciencc of all who knew her. She being our nearest neighbor and relative, we were so shocked to learn of her departure from this life, and so hard to realize ~~yet that we will~~ no have her presence any more here on this earth.

She gave her heart to God early in life in her 'teens and joined Shiloh Baptist church of which she has been aconsistent member since that time.

OBITUARY.

Giddens, on Feb. 14th, 1916, Jimmie Ann came to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Drew Giddens near Martha, Oklahoma. Though her stay on earth was short, she lived long enough to entwine, by her childish joys and sweet disposition, her little life into the hearts of fond parents and relatives.

She was taken sick with a severe throat and bronchial trouble and after an illness of a few short days, died Nov. 21, 1918 leaving the father and mother lonely and broken-hearted and the dear little brother and sister; they miss her, but are too young to realize their loss. All that physicians, the devoted family, and kind friends could do to prolong life was done, but all was of no avail and as we stood by her bedside weeping, we saw her gently fall asleep without a struggle and now since she is gone we miss so much—the prattling voice and the touch of the little soft hands. But "Jimmie" is not dead; "there is no death." She is an immortal jewel in God's own keeping and, dear parents, she is your treasure laid up in heaven and since Jimmie has gone there heaven is nearer and dearer to you than ever before and "some sweet day" you will see her again where "there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain."

The beautiful funeral service was conducted at the home by their pastor, Rev. J. C. Morris after which the body was laid to rest on the hillside in the Blair cemetery to await the resurrection morn. Truly, "A little child shall lead them."

Capt. J. Y. Wood Passes To The Great Beyond

ONE OF COUNTY'S MOST PROMINENT, ACTIVE AND USEFUL CITIZENS— DEATH DEEPLY DEPLORED BY ENTIRE COUNTY

The death Tuesday night at 10 o'clock, of Capt. J. Y. Wood, at his home at Cedar Grove, is a source of genuine and deep regret by the people of Walker county. For the past few years he had been in declining health, and while his passing was expected, the announcement of his death Wednesday morning early, over the county, was received with sorrow. He was in his ninety first year at the time of his departure.

Surviving him are his wife and two children, one daughter, Mrs. Byron Kell, and one son, Dr. Jim Wood, both of Cedar Grove.

Funeral services will be held this Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, from Anitoch church. Immediately after the services at the church, the Masonic lodge at Cedar Grove, will take the body in charge which will be interred with full Masonic honors.

In the passing of Capt. Wood Walker county has lost one of its greatest scholars and educators, one of its most prominent and noble citizens, the Baptist church, of which he was a life-long member, one of its strongest and most useful members; the Masonic fraternity, one of its brightest lights; the members of his family, a loving and devoted husband and father, whose examples always pointed to higher living.

CAPT. JOHN Y. WOOD,
Pioneer Citizen of Walker County, Passed Away at His Home at Cedar Grove Tuesday Night

Personal History

(By Mrs. W. W. S. Myers in Historial Edition of Messenger, Nov. 5, 1915.)

Capt. John Y. Wood was born in DeKalb county, Ga., Feb. 12, 1834, where the city of Atlanta now stands, his parents having come there from South Carolina. Two years later they moved to Walker county, and settled in Armuchee.

He had small opportunities for attending school and was in his young manhood before he had the opportunity of doing so. After attending school at LaFayette and Dirttown he entered the University of Georgia from which he graduated with honors in 1859.

He began teaching on his return from college, intending to begin the practice of law in a short while, but the Civil War at this time breaking out, he was among the first to enlist, being sent to Virginia where he fought under Gen. Longstreet from the first battle of Bull Run to the battle of Appomattox; was in most of the hard fought battles of the war; first and second Manassas, Antietam, Gettysburg, Fredricksburg, Chancellorsville, "Seven Days, Fight Around Richmond" and was with Longstreet at Chickamauga.

He was severely wounded at Malvern Hill and Gettysburg and desperately wounded at the battle of the Wilderness, being shot through the right lung.

After the surrender he returned home and began teaching, the wound in the lung which did not heal for several years after the war preventing him from practicing law. He first taught at LaFayette for a short while, then removing to McLemore's Cove, taught at Cedar Grove for 23 years. Also he has three times represented his county in the lower house, once in the senate and at one time was county school commissioner.

In 1866 he married Miss Mary Underwood.

At the age of 26 Capt. Wood joined the Baptist church and only eternity, not my feeble pen, can tell of the good he has accomplished. But one thing, all who know Capt. Wood know and that is that he most surely has lived a life full of good works. No man in the county has been more instrumental in educating and fitting young men and women to most capably and worthily fill the various avocations of life to which they were called or suited, than has Capt. Wood.

GUNN—HIGHT

A wedding of interest to the many friends of the contracting parties here, was that of Thursday, June 6, at high noon, of Miss Lily Claire Gunn, of Spray, N. C., and Mr. John Hight, of Cave Spring, Ga., at the home of the bride. Dr. J. R. Gunn, an uncle of the bride officiated, the full ring service being used.

The bride was attired in a navy blue coat suit with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of bride's roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, an elegant luncheon was served. The dining room was a bower of beauty, being festooned with pink roses, and other flowers appropriate to the occasion. Mrs. Farrell, of Cave Spring, and Mrs. Grage, of Atlanta, were assisted in serving by Misses Evelyn and Elizabeth Gunn, sisters of the bride.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received.

Mrs. Hight is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gunn, formerly of this city, and is popular with a wide circle of friends here, while the groom is a young, enterprizing business man of Cave Springs, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Hight will reside at Cave Springs.

IN MEMORY

Of Mr. A. J. Holland, who died March 10, 1919, and was born April 5, 1842.

Mr. Holland was one of the oldest citizens of the Upper Cove. He was a young man during the war, but nevertheless he went out bravely to the battlefields. Not only was he brave during the war, but he fought courageously the many battles that confront us during life. Hence, he was a soldier of God as well as one for his country, because he joined the church in 1872, and for forty-seven years he was ever and obedient and loyal member.

He has left behind a host of relatives and friends, who must not mourn for him but live such a life here on earth so that each of us can meet him in the sweet beyond.

"Weep not for him who now at rest
Where care and pain no more annoy
Has reached the haven of the blest,
And realized immortal joy.
His spirit smiles from that bright shore,
And whispers softly, 'Weep no more.'"

A granddaughter,
RUTH EVITT.

Mrs. Mary Russell Baker, the widow of Rev. Richard Baker, and for many years a resident of La-Fayette, died recently at Seabreeze, Fla. Her body was brought to Marietta for burial. Mrs. Baker had reached the advanced age of eighty-seven years and in her long life embodied the best traditions of the old south.

PORTER STABBED TO DEATH BY COPP

AT FT. OGLETHORPE LAST FRIDAY AFTERNOON—COPP IN JAIL HERE AWAITING TRIAL CHARGED WITH MURDER

Frank Porter, aged 35, was stabbed and almost instantly killed by William, Copp, late last Friday afternoon, at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga. Porter was a trunk dispatcher engaged in war work for the government at the Post and Copp was a motorcycle dispatch rider. Porter was stabbed over the heart, and the flow of blood from a large artery that was severed soon ended his life.

One story of the killing is to the effect that Copp had lost his position and blamed Porter for it. An argument followed resulting in Copp stabbing Porter with a knife.

The body of the dead man was taken to Chapman's undertaking establishment in Chattanooga and later removed to the Porter home in Red Bolt.

Copp was arrested by military police and brought to jail at LaFayette, where he awaits trial on the charge of murder. He is 18 years of age and is the son of J. M. Anderson of Chattanooga.

Funeral services were held over the body of Frank Porter Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at Rock Spring in the presence of a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. Interment immediately followed.

The deceased was well-known in Walker county, and was popular with a wide circle of friends, who deeply deplore his tragic ending. He is survived by a widow, a mother, brothers and sisters.

The case will be reviewed by the August grand jury, and Gen. M. N. Whitaker, of Chattanooga, and Hosser & Shaw, of the local bar will represent Copp, while Solicitor General Claude H. Porter, will represent the state.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wood on last Tuesday and took from them their little six months old babe. We weep with those that weep and mourn with those that mourn. Mrs. Wood has been sick, but is almost recovered.

LEE

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Dorsey. We have known her for a number of years she was a good woman. Our sympathy goes out for the father and little children.

WAS A PROMINENT AND WEALTHY CITIZEN — HIS DEATH DEEPLY DEPLORED— FIFTEEN HUNDRED PEOPLE ATTEND FUNERAL

The death at an early hour at an Atlanta sanitarium Monday morning, of Joseph W. Cavender, removes from Walker county, one of its most prominent and wealthy citizens. For several years he had been in declining health and the past few months it was felt by his relatives and closest friends that he could not live very much longer. A few weeks ago he was taken to an Atlanta hospital and for a day or two rallied and was thought to be improving, but a little later he began to fail and grow weaker, death resulting Monday morning.

At the time of his death Mr. Cavender was 74 years of age, and is survived by one son, Judson Cavender, of Villanow, and four daughters, Mrs. H. H. Warrenfells, Mrs. Myrtis Shahan, Mrs. H. W. Heck and Mrs. Clemmie C. Magill, all of Chattanooga. Mr. Cavender married the only sister of the late Hon. Judson C. Clements, Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, but she preceded him to the grave several years ago.

Mr. Cavender was prominently identified with some of the leading financial institutions of this and other counties. He was president of the Walker County Bank, and had large property holdings in Chattanooga, Washington, D. C., Atlanta, Chattooga county and this county, and was regarded as one of the leading business men of this section of the state.

His genial disposition won for him a wide circle of friends, and once a friend he was always a friend. He was kind-hearted and took special interest in children. Numbers of young men in this and other surrounding counties whom he helped financially, deeply deplore his going away.

He was a Confederate Veteran and served faithfully and loyally throughout the struggle between the states.

The body was brought to LaFayette Tuesday and carried to the old home at Villanow. Funeral services were held from the Macedonia Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Revs. Jesse G. and B. F. Hunt, in the presence of a concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, which has been estimated to number fifteen hundred people. Beautiful and touching tributes were paid the deceased, and his wide popularity in this section was attested by the large crowd of

IN MEMORY OF MRS. E. M. MASSEY

"There was an angel band in heaven
That was not quite complete,
So God took our dear grandmother
To fill the vacant seat."

On the afternoon of May 14, 191[illegible] the dear angel visited our home and took from us our dear grandmother. She was born June 21, 1840. On April 2, 185[illegible] she was married to Reuben Massey who preceded her to the grave many years. He was wounded in the battle of Chickamauga and died a few days later, leaving grandmother with four small children to care for, to fight the battle of life alone.

It is sad to know that dear grandmother will never be here to give us any more advice. She was always willing and ready to do little deeds of kindness for us. She will be sadly missed throughout the whole community but oh, how much more she will be missed in our home.

Everything that loving friends and physicians could do was done but God saw fit to take her to a home not made with hands. It is so sad to think we will never more hear her gentle voice, see her smiling face here on earth, but if we live right we will meet her in that beautiful beyond, where there will be no pain or sorrow.

She leaves three daughters, Mrs. J. H. Hopkin, Mrs. R. C. Morgan and Mrs. [illegible] M. Tuell, one daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Massey, fourteen grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren, one brother, R. F. Morgan and one sister, Mrs. H. F. Wheeler and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn her departure, but our loss is her eternal gain.

Funeral was conducted by Rev. W. C. Gallant at Gove church and the body was laid to rest beneath a flower laden mound to await the resurrection morn.

Sleep on dear grandmother and take thy rest,
God called thee home, He knoweth best.

Written by her granddaughter,
BESSIE.

GREEN BUSH

Mrs. Alice McKenzie and children, of this place, spent the week-end at Armuchee with her mother.

Myrtle Lee Smith spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Broom, of Haywood.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins, a fine boy.

OBITUARY

The angel of death claimed our brother, Revis M. Jones. He departed this life June 19, 1912. While those many years have elapsed since his departure our memory of his quiet Christian life is fresh. He was loved by all and was a deacon of the Wood Station Baptist church. He enlisted in the Civil War in 1861 but did not leave to fight for his country until 1862.

It was his chief delight to attend church. As the hours would come, you could see him wending his way to the old home church and yet his steps were growing slow, but his place was always filled especially at his conference meetings and his advice was "Go to hear all and cleave to that which was good. He leaves two sons to mourn his departure, one daughter who had preceded him to a better world several years ago.

Now he's safe from all temptation,
All the storms of life are past,
Praise the rock of his salvation,
He is safe at home at last.

Therefore, be it resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well. First, a copy of these resolutions be spread on the records of the church; second a copy be furnished the bereaved family; third, that a copy be printed in the Walker County Messenger.

—Done in conference and written by order of the same.—Mrs. J. J. Stephenson, Mrs. R. W. Coulter, Com.

Rev. A. E. Scott conducted the funeral service, Friday, at Trinity church, of Miss Mary Agnew, of Rossville.

MYERS—JOHNSON

A marriage of unusual interest and which came as a distinct surprise to the wide circle of friends of the young couple was that of Miss Mary Lou Myers of this place to Mr. Ben Johnson of Rome. The wedding occurred in LaFayette at nine o'clock on Tuesday morning, July 8th., Rev. A. E. Scott officiating.

The bridal couple left immediately for Chattanooga and Rome.

Mrs. Johnson, the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Myers of this place, is a very popular, attractive and lovable young lady. The bridegroom is now with the post office force in Rome, having recently been discharged from military service at Fort Oglethorpe. He is from Willmington, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have many friends who wish them much success and happiness.—Summerville News.

OBITUARY

The death angel visited our community and claimed as its victim our beloved sister, Mary Ann Jones. She was one of the oldest members of the Wood Station Baptist church. While her health permitted her she loved to attend her church service. She had been a member of the Baptist church for about fifty years. She was born Sept. 2, 1829, and was in her ninety-third year at the time of her death. She was always so cheerful and had some good word to say to everybody she met. She had a hard struggle in the early part of her life in raising her children; her husband was in the Civil war and had all the responsibility of caring for home and the little ones and yet she could talk of this and count it all joy, and said she trusted in her God who would take care of her.

In her last days on earth she suffered untold agonies but bore them with patience and left the beautiful evidence that she was ready to go where her Master called.

She is gone but not forgotten. We miss her.

Somewhere the load is lifted,
Close by an open gate,
Somewhere the clouds are rifted,
Somewhere the angels wait.

Therefore be it resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the Allwise God who doeth all things well. First, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the records of the church; second a copy be furnished the bereaved family; third a copy be printed in the Walker Co. Messenger.

Done in conference and written by order of same.—Mrs. J. J. Stephenson, Mrs. R. W. Coulter, Committee

MRS. F. J. CANTRELL DIED MONDAY AFTERNOON

After a lingering illness of several months, Mrs. F. J. Cantrell, died Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. M. Quillian, East LaFayette.

At the time of her death the deceased was 77 years of age, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. T. M. Quillian, and one son, J. W. Cantrell, of Mill Creek.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Mill Creek Methodist church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Interment followed in the home graveyard nearby the church.

Mrs. Cantrell was a life-long member of the Methodist church, and her genial disposition and faithful Christian character made her many friends in every community in which she lived, who deplore her going away.

MRS. JOHN W. MADDOX DIED MONDAY AT THE AGE OF 69

Rome, Ga., July 22.—Mrs. Frances Elizabeth Maddox, wife of former Congressman John W. Maddox, died yesterday at the family residence on Third avenue and was buried today in Myrtle Hill cemetery. Mrs. Maddox was 69 years of age, a daughter of a pioneer family of North Georgia, and was born in Chattooga county. She was married to Judge Maddox in 1872 and is survived by her husband and seven children: Mrs. T. O. Hand, of Macon; J. E. Maddox, of Washington, and G. E., Frank, Robert, Linton and James Maddox, of Rome. Her five sons and a nephew, Charles Edmondson, acted as pallbearers.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of Katie Bailey. The angel of death visited the home, on June 5th, of Mr. Wessly Baily and took from him a loving wife and mother. Kate suffered only a short time with the flu, and tuberculosis followed. All that doctors, relatives and friends could do was done for her, but she was too good to stay in this world of sorrow and God called her to come up higher.

She professed faith in Christ in early life and joined the Methodist church at Pleasant Hill, where she remained until her death. Katie was 21 years old at the time of her death. We mourn not as those who have no hope for she was a good Christian girl. We would say to her dear husband and children, "Do not weep, for although there will be a vacant place in your home forever, she is waiting in heaven for you."

She leaves a husband and two children, father and mother, two sisters and three brothers, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Weep not, for our loss is her eternal gain.

'Tis hard to break the tender chord
Where love has bound the heart
'Tis so hard to speak the word
We must forever part.

OBITUARY.

God in His infinite love saw fit to take midst the sweet spirit of little Myrtle Lee Rape. She was born February 8, 1919, and died June 7, 1919. She leaves a father, mother, and two little sisters and a host of relatives to mourn her loss. Will say to the bereft father and mother, "Weep not for little Myrtle, for she is asleep in the arms of Jesus." She cannot come back to us, but we can go to her. Let us prepare to meet our precious darling who, perhaps, God has taken in order to draw us near to him.

Little Myrtle only lived with us four short months; she was sick only a few days until God saw fit to take her home to heaven to live with Jesus, where there will be no pain nor deaths.

Oh, how hard it is to give up our precious darling, but God's will be done, not ours. Let us live a life that Jesus would have us live that we may meet little Myrtle some sweet day.

Myrtle Lee was laid to rest in the Trinity cemetery beneath the sod sod where we all must go sooner or later.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Sleep on dear Myrtle, and take thy rest,
God called thee home to rest.

JAMES W. LEE PASSED AWAY SUNDAY MORNING

L. Rowland Hancock

WAS PROMINENT AND SUCCESSFUL CITIZEN, A CONFEDERATE VETERAN AND MEMBER OF MASONIC FRATERNITY.

The death Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, after a lingering illness of several months, of James W. Lee, at his home at Kensington, removed one of Walker county's most prominent citizens and successful planters.

Mr. Lee had been in declining health for many months, and in April of this year he went to Kansas City, thinking the change would be beneficial, but it was soon seen that the change would do him no good, so he came home, and during the last weeks of his life he suffered intense pain.

Surviving him are a widow, and three children, J. W. Lee, Jr., of Cedartown; Mrs. C. H. Hall, of Kensington, and Mrs. F. H. Trfotter, of Chattanooga; Also one half sister, Mrs. W. J. Wallin.

Early in life he united with the Methodist church and for fifty years attended its ordinances and supported its institutions. He was also a Confederate Veteran, and served throughout the war between the states. He was seventy-one years of age at the time of his death, and up to a few months ago he was able to superintend the work on his farms. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and during his life held prominent positions in his lodge.

Funeral services were held from the residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. After the funeral service at the home, the body was taken in charge by the Masons from A. I. Leet lodge, of which the deceased was a member, and carried to the Coulter graveyard and buried with full Masonic honors.

Many beautiful floral offerings of friends attested to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

ONE MURDER CASE AT AUGUST TERM

OF WALKER SUPERIOR COURT WHICH CONVENES NEXT MONDAY—THIRTEEN PRISONERS IN COUNTY JAIL.

The Walker superior court will formally open next Monday morning for the August term, with Judge Wright presiding. A large number of civil cases appear on the calendar, and a heavy criminal business is promised. Three weeks' of court are scheduled to clear the docket.

Judge Irwin of Cedartown will preside Monday of the second week, Judge Wright being disqualified in several cases. Judge Wright will act for Judge Irwin at Cedartown. All witnesses in criminal cases are notified not to appear Monday of the second week, but the criminal cases will begin Tuesday of the second week of court.

Among the prominent criminal cases to come up for trial at this term, is that of the State versus Wm. Copp, who is in jail charged with the murder of Frank Porter. Probably this case will be tried Tuesday morning of the second week, and will doubtless draw a large number of citizens in the county here for the trial.

IN MEMORY OF J. W. CAVENDER.

Whereas, in human events to each individual comes an eventide and dusk fall which declares a veil between us and the past and nominates us with the past as to human activity, and,

Whereas, death's potent hand has touched our beloved president, J. Warren Cavender, and has carried from us his soul and his peerless efforts, though his courageous and matchless influence has given us an indelible impress for good, and so wholesomely thereby equipped us and our institution for more efficient service, and,

Whereas, we realize as his work ends here, he remains with us in influence, though we miss his alert and fatherly advices, we the more deplore his going and could wear the crepe for none more worthily than for our departed friend, and,

Whereas, his life was characterized as the type of soldier who valiantly and nobly wore the gray, he lived well as a captain of men, industry and human affairs.

Therefore be it resolved, That we place a page in our minute book to his memory and the most generous appreciation of our hearts for his kindness to us in life and to our several persons, we miss him and will never cease to value him.

We direct a copy hereof be furnished his relatives as a part expression of our keen love and appreciation of him. Though death called him, he will ever live.

Most respectfully,

Last Week's Letter.

H. J. Young celebrated his sixtieth birthday last Friday with children, grandchildren and great grand children. There were six children and twelve grandchildren, and one great grand child present.

IN MEMORY

The death of Sister Sallie Rush has brought grief and sadness into the hearts of her many friends and relatives. She was born July 12th, 1895. She gave her heart to Christ and joined the Baptist church at Pleasant Grove, Chattooga county, at the age of fifteen. She moved her membership to Chattooga church in 1915, where it remained until her death.

She loved her Master and was always ready to do her part in church and Sunday school; she proved her faith by her works. She was in declining health for quite awhile and suffered a great deal, but she bore her affliction with Christian patience and met death triumphantly and no doubt she went to enjoy the inheritance of the saints.

While the family, the church and all of her loved ones feel keenly the loss which they sustain by her death, they should be consoled by the assurance that their loss is her gain. Sister Rush was buried in the cemetery at Bethel church December 16th, 1918, Rev. I. S. Leonard preaching the funeral.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy, praying God to direct them in all their ways.

And that a copy of this memorial be inscribed upon our church records.—Mrs. M. D. Cagle, Mrs. G. W. Ashworth, Committee.

IN MEMORY OF ELDER WALLACE

The angel of death entered our home Nov. 9th, 1918 and called from us midst our dear brother, Elder.

He was born July 5, 1902, had only lived with us a short time of 16 years when God called him home to heaven.

Elder was such a kind and loving boy that those who knew him learned to love him. It was sad to say goodbye to dear brother, but God knows all things best and we know he is through with the troubles of this life. Although we realize we can't call him back to us, but thank God, we can go to him in a better world than this, where there will be no more partings, but where all will be joy and happiness forever.

Oh how we miss dear Elder, tho we must weep not for our loss is his eternal gain.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Sleep on dear brother you are at rest.
The Master called thee home, He knoweth best.

MRS. JAMES H. CAMPBELL.

IN MEMORY.

It was on the 10th of Feb., 1919, that the heavy, dark clouds of bereavement encircled the home of our friend, B. J. Roberson. It was the sweet, gentle spirit of his loving companion that winged its flight to God, who gave it. She, after a hard struggle against the invasion of that great death dealing plague—Spanish Influenza, which claimed its victims by the thousand, heard the call of Jesus, "Come up higher and I will give thee rest."

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Carter, of LaFayette, Ga. Her mother having preceeded her to her heavenly home by a space of six years. She was born Feb. 17th, 1891. She was married to Mr. B. J. Roberson on Sept. 11th, 1908, and to them two sweet little girls, Fannie Lou and Minnie Ruth, ages now nine and eight, respectively, were given to gladden their home.

Nine years ago she accepted Christ as her personal Saviour and became a member of Naomi Baptist church, to which she remained loyal and true to the end.

Nearing only the twenty-fifth year of her life when God called her, we are made to wonder why it was that Minnie could not have lived many years yet to exert that sweet, gentle influence, so characteristic of her, and especially, that her dear little girls might bask in a fond mother's love and receive that moral and spiritual training at a time when it means so much to them. Yet, we do not question the will of Him, who doeth all things well.

In the home, she was a devoted wife and mother. In the community in which she lived, no better neighbor could be found, ever ready and willing to administer to the sick and suffering around her.

In going to her reward, she leaves behind, besides her immediate family, her father, three brothers, five sisters, and a host of friends to mourn her departure. Our loss is her eternal gain. She is now basking in the sweet sunlight of heaven and will never more know sorrow and sadness. Then, let us not grieve after her, but bow in humble submission to Our Heavenly Father, who alone can comfort and heal broken hearts.

Therefore, Be it resolved, That we tender to the entire family our deepest sympathy and love in their great sorrow, and commend them to Jesus, who is ever ready to speak peace to the troubled soul.

Second, That a place in our church record be dedicated to her memory. That this memorial be published and a copy be given her husband and

Miss Eva Henry Bride Of Mr. Earl Skeen of Alabama

A wedding of much interest to a wide circle of friends in both Georgia and Alabama took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Miss Rose Duncan of Chattanooga, as the bride and groom entered the room together. The home was beautifully decorated with golden rods, vines and palms. The guests were received at the door by Miss Gladys Henry and Miss Ruth Porter, cousins of the bride, and shown into the dining room, where the many beautiful wedding gifts of silver and cut glass and linen were displayed. Punch was served by Miss Alma Skeen, sister of the groom.

REV. W. T. PARK, DIED LAST SATURDAY, AGED 88

Rev. W. T. Park, aged 88, died Saturday at the home of his son, H. A. Park, on the Ringgold road, after a lingering illness of several weeks. The deceased is survived by eight children, one brother and four sisters. Funeral services were held Sunday at 11 o'clock conducted by Revs. W. C. Tallent and T. R. Hardin, at the Boynton Baptist church, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends. Interment followed in the Boynton graveyard.

MRS. GRIFFITH SUCCUMBS AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS

The news of the death last Friday afternoon, of Mrs. J. T. Griffith, at her home in East Armuchee, after a lingering illness of more than a year, will be read with profound regret.

At the time of her death, the deceased was 71 years of age. For many years she was a faithful and consecrated member of the Baptist church, and was loved for her kind deeds and acts of love.

Surviving her besides her husband is one sister, Mrs. E. I. F. Cheyne.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, from the East Armuchee Baptist church, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends, conducted by Rev. M. L. Keith, of Tuskeegee, Ala., a nephew of the deceased. Six other nephews acted as pallbearers. Interment followed in the East Armuchee cemetery.

The many beautiful floral offerings of relatives and friends eloquently attested to the love and esteem in which the deceased was held.

PARK—SHERRETY

The following announcement, appearing in last week's issue of the Wesleyan Christian Advocate, will be read with interest:

"Dr. and Mrs. Hector Park announce the bethroal of their daughter, Miss Margarita, to Mr. Dwight Lamar Sherrely. Professor Sherrely is one of the teachers in the Soochow University. He is from Roanoke, Va., and has been in the mission work in China for two years. On receiving his A. B. from Roanoke College he won a scholarship at Princeton from which he later received his M. A. Miss Margarita is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hector Park, of the Soochow Hospital. She is a trained kindergartner and designed the Senah-Staley Kinderkarten building in Soochow, where she has been teaching for several years. This notice will be of interest to many Georgians and southern Methodists in many states beyond the limits of this commonwealth."

Of Mrs. Sallie Tucker.

On the morning of July the 30th, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oliver and took from them their dear mother. She was born Feb. 15, 1842 and died July the 30th, 1919. She was 77 years old at the time of her death. She was Miss Sallie Humphrey before she was married to Mr. Birdine Tucker. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church. She leaves behind eleven children, five daughters and six sons, and a host of sorrowing relatives and friends to mourn her departure. She was sick several weeks, but she bore all her suffering with patience. She only lived in our community a short time, but nevertheless in those few days we learned to love her. All that loving hands could do was done, but the Allwise Creator saw fit to take her from us for some cause, we know not why, though we feel that our loss is her eternal gain. I can almost see that gentle smile on her face. When you would go into her home she always had a word of comfort for every one. It's hard to break the tender cord, when his bound the heart. It's sad, so sad to speak the words, "We must forever part." We would say to the bereaved children, "Weep not for mother, for she is not dead, she's only basking in the beautiful sunshine on the banks of sweet deliverance, waiting and beckoning you to come." It's sad to know that we can never see mother again on earth, but if we walk only walk in mother's steps we will meet her again in the sweet bye and bye, where there will be no more parting nor good byes.

Sleep on dear mother and take thy rest,
God called thee home, he thought it best.

LOVING MEMORY.

Of James Frank Young, who laid down his life in France, for his country.

On Aug. 20th, 1918, he was killed while fighting the enemies in France. He was the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. David V. Young, of Chattooga county. He was born in this county, Feb. 28, 1894, where most of his life was spent.

In 1914 he went to Vero, Florida, where he accepted a promising position, and remained there until he was called to the colors. He gained many friends in Florida and elsewhere, who will learn with regret of his passing away. He made friends wherever he went, and always had a kind word and a smile for all he met.

James entered service at Columbia, S. C., Oct. 14, 1917, and was transferred to Camp Wheeler, Macon, Ga., where he was trained in infantry. On May 30, 1918, with tear-dimmed eyes and broken heart, he told loved ones good bye, not knowing, but hoping that he would return. Yet he was sad, but he tried to be as cheerful as he could be. About June 20th he sailed for France. After about two short months' stay he was called to a higher home, that is not made with hands, but is eternal in the heavens, where there will be no more war, no more parting good-bye. Oh, we can hardly realize that dear James is dead, because we didn't get to see him, and we didn't get to see his remains lowered to its resting place. Oh, how sad to see his comrades come marching back without him. Oh, how sad to say good bye, but we have one sweet assurance and that is, that if we live true to our Master and our fellowmen, we shall meet him up in glory, where there will be no parting.

The last word he said to his mother, she told him to be a good boy and he replied: "I will for there is never a night that I don't read my Testament and pray for loved ones at home and myself that we may again be reunited at home once more, if it is the Lord's will, if not, I pray we may meet in a better world some day."

Oh, how we long to see his precious face come marching back with the heroes from France, but instead he sleeps with the heroes beneath the soil of France. Surviving the deceased is a father and mother, one one brother and four sisters, one nephew, three nieces, and other relatives to mourn his departure.

IN MEMORY.

Katie Beulah Earwood Bailey was born August 27, 1897. Died June 5, 1919. She was married to G. W. Bailey Oct. 19th, 1913.

To this union was born two children, Mary Margaret and Ruthie Leo Bailey, whom she leaves to mourn her demise, also a dear father and mother, three brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Paul Ezell, Maybell Earwood, G. E., H. L. and Watson Earwood. Mrs. Bailey was a consecrated Christian, having spent her life from the age of fourteen until the day of death, a loyal and faithful member of the Pleasant Hill Methodist church. We sympathize with the dear husband, because the loss can never be repaired in this world, but we rejoice to know that her life is a real benediction to him. As a wife, she was true and faithful, as a mother, she was kind and gentle, unassuming in nature. Always striving to make life pleasant for others, ready at all times to relieve the suffering, cheer the sorrowing, and speak words of kindness to those in trouble. So, we sorrow not for her, as one having no hope, for she bore her afflictions with the greatest of patience and Christian fortitude, and said many times she was ready to go. Weep not, loved ones, for she has gone to live with Christ in that sweet home, but strive to meet her in the skies, where there will be no more good-byes.

XXX

IN MEMORY OF MRS. MARTHA POPE.

In the still hours of the night on March 25, 1919, the death angel glided into the home of brother M. F. Pope and took away his beloved wife. Her passing from existence was as happy and as natural as she entered it sixty-nine years ago.

Sister Pope was born March 3, 1850 at Gordon Springs, Ga., and married M. F. Pope June 22nd, 1867. They were blessed with four children, J. D. and D. F. Pope, of Lafayette, H. H. Pope, of Villanow, and Mary E. Pope, who preceded her mother into the pearly gates.

Sister Pope professed hope in Christ and joined the church in 1872. She is said to have never read the Bible until she was converted. Afterwards, and until she was called from this earth the Bible became her own; and binding the Commandments about her neck and writing truth, righteousness, and love upon the tablet of her heart she went forth as an obedient child for Christ. She was ever ready to stretch out her hand for the poor and reach forth to the needy. Her earthly road is so marked by her lasting footsteps as to help lead her husband, children, grandchildren, and neighbors to that home not made with hands.

Sister Pope's life was a sweeping panorama, her works and influence bespeaking the words—"She looked well to her household; her children arose up and call her blessed; her husband, also, and he praised her."

As the Lord prospered Sister Pope's labor, so, she kept foremost in her mind that "God loveth a cheerful giver." She always did her bountiful part for her pastor, missions, and charity, never refusing a call to help any cause for the Master. Just before she was taken all, she prepared clothes for the sick.

The deeds of sister Pope's life will wind down through the pages of the history of her community and her influence of service will be rewarded in her loved ones, who live for the Lord. To these loved ones, we will say:

Ever remember while grieving,
That her influence cannot be undone;
That she did the works of the noble,
Though the race of her life is run,
Try not to grieve over the richness
She has gained at the heavenly gate,
But pray and be up and doing
That God may spare us the same fate.
Her toils of this life are over,
Her path is one that is past,
Though her deeds shall shine forever,
To show that good works will last.

Happy Birthday Party.

Little Miss Mary Stewart Wright, the beautiful little two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Wright, entertained a number of her little friends Tuesday afternoon in celebration of her birthday.

The little guests gathered at the home of her grandparents, Col. and Mrs. Paul Wright and after spending several hours in happy play, were led into the dining room by the little hostess. Each person would have thought he was in dreamland, for there on the table was a veritable Noah's Ark—bears, camels, horses, cows and sheep, and all the animals that children love, some of them ice cream almost too pretty to eat, and others which could be taken home as souvenirs of the delightful occasion. In the midst of all was the birthday cake with its candles. Another happy feature was the presence of both grandmothers Mrs. Paul Wright and Mrs. Josie Hinds Boozer, of Rome, and a great grandmother, Mrs. G. A. Mitchell.

Celebrates Second Birthday.

A dozen merry little folks enjoyed with Master Nathan C. Napier, Jr., his second birthday anniversary Monday afternoon.

The lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Napier's home, with its beds of brilliant salvia and other fall flowers, made a beautiful setting for this gathering of children, who enjoyed many games.

The best time was when the little folks were ushered into the dining room, which some good fairy must have visited. The birthday cake with its two burning tapers, was the central decoration of the table, which was lighted by numbers of pink candles. The place cards bore appropriate pictures and verses, while the candy favors were especially pleasing. A delicious ice course was served.

Mary Kate, is the beautiful name of the little daughter that came for an indefinite stay in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blaylock, last Thursday.

WHEELER—STEVENSON

On Sunday October 19, at 4 o'clock p. m., Mr. E. D. Wheeler and Miss Lex Stevenson were happily united in matrimony W. C. Tallant, pastor of First Baptist church of Rossville officiating. IN MEMORY.

On the morning of June 22, 1919, at her home in West LaFayette, surrounded by friends and loved ones the sweet patient spirit of Viethula Wallin left this world of sorrow, sin and suffering and lonelinessments and winged its flight home to God who gave it. Jennie, was 32 years old. She was married to J. M. Wallin, September 1903. To this union were born six children, three girls and three boys. Her baby, a sweet little girl of seven months, preceded its mother to the great beyond by just three months. She leaves to mourn her departure, a husband and five children. Her father, two brothers, John and Leonard LeCroy, of the Cove, and Miss Alice Roberson, of LaFayette. Poor Jennie, suffered six long months with that dreaded disease, consumption. She craved so much to get well to be with Jim and help him raise their little children. But with all that good doctors and loving hands could do she had to go. She was a Christian in the truest sense. A Christian at home, in the community, and in the church. She loved her Lord. And would often praise his Holy name in her home for His goodness and mercies. She was never heard to murmur or complain during her long sickness, but she seemed to be perfectly resigned to her Master's will. We never in life witnessed such Christian love and fortitude in anyone as she possessed. I feel that her loved ones have no right to weep or sorrow after her. Just to know that she has laid down all sorrow, sickness and pain, trials and bereavements and gone on to heaven with all the redeemed of earth, of all ages. The grand and glorious evidence that she left behind is enough. Let's all press on stopping at nothing, and some sweet day, and it won't be long, we will meet and know and praise God with her and praise her baby in a glory world beyond human conception for pleasure.

One Who Loved Her.

J. R. LITTLE PASSES TO THE GREAT BEYOND

DIED AT HIS HOME IN WEST ARMUCHEE SATURDAY NIGHT AT AGE OF 73—HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZEN

The death Saturday night at his home in West Armuchee, at 8:30 o'clock, of J. R. Little, came as a distinct shock to his many relatives and friends in the county. At the time of his death the deceased was 73 years of age.

Mr. Little had been in declining health for a number of months, but his condition did not become serious until three weeks ago, when he took his bed, and his condition gradually grew worse until the end came Saturday night.

A loyal Confederate soldier, he served his country at its most critical period, and worthily wore the grey. He was a life-long member of the Baptist church, being an active member of Shiloh church at the time of his departure.

Possessing a generous nature, kind and thoughtful to his family, a prominent planter and highly respected citizen and a Christian gentleman, the death of this well-known and good man, is deeply deplored by the people of the county.

Surviving the deceased are a widow, three daughters—Mrs. J. W. Hundley, of Mercer, Tenn., Mrs. Joe Street and Miss Dixie Little, of Green Bush; and two sons, Colly Little, of Chattanooga and L. D Little of Green Bush; also one brother, P. B. Little, of this city.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Shiloh church, in the presence of a tremendous crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends, conducted by his pastor, Rev. I. S. Leonard. Interment immediately followed in the Young graveyard.

Many beautiful floral offerings attested to the love of relatives and friends, and the high esteem in which he was held.

GARRETT'S CHAPEL

DUCK CREEK

We read in most every paper of tragedies but have never had one so close to us as that of the killing of Mr. Tobe Pickard by his brother, Scot Pickard which occurred at their home Saturday night shortly after dark. As told to us Mr. Tobe was correcting his boys for some misconduct when Mr. Scot, whos is an old bachelor, and who made his home with his brother, Tobe, interfered and shot his brother while he was sitting at the supper table eating supper. It is a sad affair and much to be deplored as they have been citizens of the county for many years. His remains were laid to rest at Mt. Carmel Sunday afternoon. A large concourse of relatives and friends congregated to pay the last sad rites to the departed. He leaves a wife, several children and 5 or 6 brothers to mourn their loss. We tender our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Julius Bush is smiling over the arrival of a fine boy which came to brighten his home a few days ago.

Sterling Spears is rejoicing over advent of a little girl to his home last week.

Of Marie Lillian Howard.

The deceased was born Dec. 5th, 1905, departed this life Aug. 18th, 1919. She did not belong to any church, but she was a good girl. She said a short while before her death if she was able she would go join the Chattooga church and be baptized.

Mother and father, sisters and brothers miss her so much, but grieve not dear ones for Marie is at rest. The Lord doeth all things well. She always said she wanted to live a Christian life and meet her Saviour in a higher and better world where all is peace and love, and parting will be no more.

Those that knew Marie loved her.

She leaves a father and mother, two sisters and two brothers. She was born and reared in Walker county. Her remains were laid to rest in the Chattooga cemetery, the Rev. I. S. Leonard conducting the funeral services.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

Of Mrs. J. B. Johnson.

The gentle spirit of our beloved sister, Mrs. J. B. Johnson, was wafted back to God and entered into the final rest on Dec. 20th, 1918. If she had lived until the 31st day of January she would have been fifty-eight years old. She spent, practically, all her life in North Georgia, having for a number of years, been a resident of Walker county. However, when the end came she was with two of her daughters in Chattooga, becoming, while there, a victim of influenza and pneumonia.

All that is mortal of her sleeps now in the Center Point cemetery, where her body was laid to rest Dec. 21. Her former pastor, Rev. W. C. Tallent speaking the last but beautiful rite as a tribute to her earthly career.

For seven years she was a member of the Center Post Baptist church, but had been a professed Christian for a much longer period, having come into our membership by letter from a sister church. Many were the lessons on the moral and religious side of her life. She had much reserve and lived a very quiet and unassuming life, but she wielded a wholesome and uplifting influence. This fact was attested to by the interest she manifested in her own household and among her intimate friends. She was always kind, generous and sympathetic to those who needed her services.

Her Christian fortitude was manifested by the patience with which she bore her suffering. She seemed perfectly resigned and gave every evidence that, while she loved life, she was not afraid to die.

God loves His own. "Precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of His Saints." His calling them through death to higher and holier joys is but His loving care.

We now have a vacant pew; the chain of our membership is broken. But it has been God's dealings. Therefore, let us bow in humble sub-

Joseph Deck Found Dead Suspended From Barn Loft

EARLY THIS MORNING — CAUSE OF TAKING OF HIS OWN LIFE UNKNOWN—FUNERAL SERVICES NOT YET ANNOUNCED

The tragic death of Joseph Deck, at his home at Rock Springs, early this morning, Thursday, comes as a distinct shock to his many relatives and friends here and in the county.

His body was found suspended from the barn loft by a rope around his neck.

About eight o'clock he told the members of his household that he was going to the Post Office for the mail. He went by the barn nearby his home, to turn out some stock, and members of the family thought he was going from there to the Post Office. At about 8:30 Miss Effie Deck, an adopted daughter of the Deck family, went to the barn in search of eggs, and found his body suspended from a beam in one of the stalls, with a rope around his neck. He was dead, but had not been dead long when Miss Deck found the body, because the body was not stiff and was still warm.

The alarm was immediately given and neighbors came in quickly, and the body was taken down and carried to the house. Dr. Hice was quickly summoned, but life had passed from the body and nothing could be done to bring it back.

Just what was the cause of the tragedy is not known. Mr. Deck's financial condition was in splendid condition, and his domestic relations were peculiarly happy. However, for the past few months Mr. Deck had been in declining health, and the past several weeks has been seclusive and meditative. Probably his broken health conditions affected his mental power.

She was modest, humble, unassuming in spirit and manner, and yet uncompromising when it came to a question of right and wrong.

She was married to Richard F. Parish Feb. 7, 1895. She was a faithful wife and devoted mother. She is survived by a husband, two children, a son and a daughter, mother, one brother and one sister.

A very large congregation attended the funeral service which was conducted by her pastor, assisted by Rev. Harris, pastor of the Methodist church, south. Interment was at Chickamauga cemetery. Her loved ones and friends know where to find her, for she left glowing testimony as well as a consistent life. So they "sorrow not as those who have no hope." To the bereaved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

IN MEMORY OF RAYMOND PAUL BAKER

Dearest Paul has left us now,
He lies beneath the sod;
We cannot see his dear sweet face,
For he is now with God.

On the afternoon of Oct. 24, 1919, the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Baker and took from them their only child. He was born March 30, 1914. Paul was a bright, loving child, to know him was to love him. He will be sadly missed throughout the whole community, but oh, how much more he will be missed in the home where for five short years he has been the light and joy of the home. He was sick only a few days. Everything that loving hands could do was done, but God said "Come up higher, your work on earth is done."

It is sad to think that we will never more see his sweet smiling face enter our door, but if we live right we will meet him in that world not made with hands. He leaves a father, mother, two grandfathers, one grandmother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Harris, and the little body was laid to rest in the Chickamauga cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

So farewell, dearest Paul,
Sweetly may you sleep,
No sound can e'er disturb your rest
In your bed so cold and deep.

Written by his cousin,
BESSIE.

LAFAYETTE, R. 2

Well the wedding bells are ringing in Doogan as Willie Catlet and Miss Mary Richardson were happily married Sunday morning at Esq. Green's. Mr. Green married them and they went on their way rejoicing.

Lyons Sunday, Nov. 15th., and the body will be interred at Ft. Lyons Thursday. IN MEMORY

On the evening of Oct. 30th, 1919, the death angel came and claimed as its own, Mrs. Emma Frazier, and said, "Come up higher where there is rest and joy."

Aunt Emma was born June 22, 1861. She professed hope in Christ in early girlhood and joined the Methodist Church and lived a faithful member until death.

She leaves three brothers and one sister and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her going away. It is sad to give her up but we know that she is at rest where there is no more suffering and sorrow, and if we will only trust in the blessed Savior we have the promise of meeting her on the other shore.

Aunt Emma bore her suffering patiently and said the Lord's will must be done.

She often said she was ready and waiting the Master's call.

To know her was to love her. She always had some cheering words and a smile for all she met. It is so sad to know that we will never hear her gentle voice again, but we would say, "Weep not for Aunt Emma is at rest where there is no more partings and no more farewells, but where all is love."

The Myers-Bonds wedding at Chickamauga, last Wednesday, was the principal social feature of that little town. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Myers and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bonds. Rev. R. R. Johnson officiated. The host of friends of the young couple extend heartiest congratulations.

Joseph Brown died at his home in [illegible] Sunday, Dec. 3, in his 74th year. Death was the result of [illegible] disease and rheumatism. Few men have been more successful in life. He left a fortune of $2,000,000, and held every position within the gift of his adopted state, but wealth and power never changed the great Commoner; he lived and died plain Joe Brown.

H. C. McWILLIAMS ANSWERS LAST CALL

WAS QUIET CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN AND HIGHLY ESTEEMED BY HOST OF COUNTY FRIENDS

The death November 13, of H. C. McWilliams, at his home at Green Bush, at the age of 73, removed from that section and the county, a highly respected and prominent citizen, and his departure is deeply deplored by his host of relatives and friends in the county.

Though quiet and reserved in his demeanor, he was ever on the progressive side of every issue, and gave his efforts and influence to every constructive measure. He served several times on the grand jury, and was with that body when the new court house building was recommended, and after its erection he always spoke of it as a pride to the county. He was an influential member of Shiloh Baptist church, and lived a consecrated Christian life.

Besides his wife, he leaves three brothers, F. A., J. C. and Dr. J. P. McWilliams; two sons, F. L. and G. B. McWilliams; one son-in-law, Dr. R. E. Talley; eight grand children and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. I. S. Leonard at Shiloh Baptist church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. His nephews acted as pallbearers. Interment followed in the Shiloh cemetery.

The many beautiful floral offerings attested to the high esteem in which Mr. McWilliams was held.

LEE SCHOOL HOUSE

We were sorry to read of the death of our good friend, Burrel Turner. Our sympathy goes out for the bereaved.

A wedding of much interest that we wish to report in this week's letter was that of Mr. Newt Gray and Miss Lula Wilson. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wilson, a Sunday school teacher in our Sunday school, and surely, one of Lee's finest young ladies. The groom is the son of Mr. Earl Gray, a young man that served his country to the extent of being sent to the camps but didn't get o'cross over before peace was made. He is a young man of he very best of character. We are glad that Mr. and Mrs. Gray will remain in our community. A long and happy life we wish them.

A TRIBUTE OF LOVE

On the 4th day of July, 1919, the death angel visted the happy home and bore away the spirit of Lena Strickland Dersey.

She was born April 13, 1883; was married to E. L. Dorsey Sept. 9, 1911. She united with the Chattooga Baptist church Aug. 1902 and lived a consistent member until July 4, 1919 when God called her home.

It is a high and noble privilege to pay loving tribute to the memory of our dead. And while we are saddened by a sense of irreparable loss, we bow in humble submission to the Divine will and pray that her influence may continue and her memory be an inspiration. That in the providence of our Heavenly Father the hand of affliction has been laid heavily upon the hearts of none more than her devoted family in removing by death our sister, therefore be it resolved,

1st. That the membership of Chattooga church hold in loving remembrance and bear testimony to her noble victues, her faithfulness, and loving service.

2nd. That we extend our tenderest sympathy to her husband, children, brothers and sisters in their bereavement, and commend them for consolation to Him whose grace is sufficient for every trial and pray that God in His infinite wisdom may sanctify this sore affliction to their eternal good.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent the family, a copy be spread on the church record, a copy be sent the Walker County Messenger.—Mrs. S. E. Ransom, Mrs. Guy Mitchell, Committee.

CHASTAIN—HASTY

A very pretty wedding of today and one in which much social interest centered was that of Miss Mary Chastain of this city and Mr. W. D. Hasty of Barnesville, which took place at two o'clock this afternoon in the Presbyterian church.

Branches of autumn leaves and bright red poinsettas gave a tone of brilliance and richness to the decorations used for the event, which, though simple, were very artistic.

While the guests were assembling in the church there was a short program of music given. Miss Ethel Spence sang "O Perfect Love," and Miss Clarice Waterman on the violin and Miss Helen Miller on the organ played "Traumerei." Lohengrin's Wedding March was played as the bridal party entered the church and Mendelssohn's was given as a Recessional. During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" was softly played.

The two ushers, Messrs. Will McLain and William MacIntyre, were the first of the bridal party to enter the church and following them came the two bridesmaids, Misses Grace Chastain and Nell Norjon. Two little flower girls, Misses Evelyn Turner and Billie Watt, came next, wearing dainty little white organdie frocks with yellow trimmings and carrying baskets of yellow roses. The maid of honor, Miss Minlu Chastain, preceded the bride, who entered with her father, and was met at the front of the church by the groom, with his best man, Mr. Gordon Hasty of Chickamauga, Ga. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert S. Sanders.

The bride was lovely in her handsome traveling suit of dark blue tricotine, with blouse of beaded georgette and a small toque of brown carried yellow roses.

The two bridesmaids wore pretty white organdie gowns and carried yellow roses.

The couple left shortly after the ceremony for points in Florida and returning will go to Barnesville, where they will make their home.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Chastain and her many attractions of mind and person have made her popular with a wide circle of friends here and elsewhere.

The groom during a former residence in Thomasville made a number of friends here and is a young man of fine character and business ability.

Numbers of handsome wedding gifts were received from many relatives and friends.—From Thomasville Daily Enterprise of Dec. 17, 1919.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our many friends for their tender sympathy during the last illness and death of our dear companion and mother, and pray God's richest blessing upon each and every one. These good friends were exceedingly kind and thoughtful and our prayers go with them.—D. A. Sartain, Mrs. J E Long, Virgie and Virgil Sartain, Mrs L. J Anderson, Mrs F C Campbell.

Millard, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Sizemore died Sunday night at his home in West LaFayette, after a brief illness. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning. Friends of the family extend their sympathy in the loss of their son.

A recent marriage to interest many was that of Miss Annie McCamey of Teloga, a sister of Mrs. B. L. Rich, to Charles Kellett, of Summerville.

NOBLE

The wedding of much surprise to their many friends was that of Miss Maggie Wooden to Mr. Clint Dilbeck. Miss Wooden is a very charming young lady of Noble, while Mr. Dilbeck is a handsome, young man of the same community and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dilbeck. We hope for them a bright and prosperous journey through life.

Birthday Party

On Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 13th, John Lockhart Hollemon entertained a happy little group of children in honor of his 8th birthday. Football and a balloon assension were chief attractions for the boys, three of whom followed the balloon in its long flight, climbing barbwire fences, jumping ditches until they finally captured the much injured Zeppelin in utter disregard of their nice party clothes.

Upon the suggestion of the little host the birthday table decorated in national colors with beautiful birthday cake bearing 8 red candles as central decoration, and with 8 candle sticks with red tapers was a pretty picture and admired by the children. Cake, cream and bonbons were then served and each guest was given a flag as favor. The children gathered in living room and sang popular school and patriotic songs, putting their elders to shame in their rendition of our beloved Star Spangled Banner. xxx

A TRIBUTE TO FARLOW WARDLAW

Well did I know Farlow Wardlaw, he was a friend of my boyhood days. When I grasped his hand, full well I knew he was a friend to me. No guile, no deceit was any part of the makeup of this man. His life was an open book. I knew him in the pride of his manhood when all went well with him. I knew him when he had his disappointments and his sorrows, but he always bore them with a smile. He was quick to condemn the wrong and quick to defend the right. One chapter of his life rose supremely above all others, and that was his true, unwaivering devotion to his wife; for days, months and years I saw him in his tender love accompany her to her place of business, and at the close of day side by side journey home, a living picture of united love; if two hearts beat as one, it was Farlow Wardlaw's and his wife. Show me a man that gives to his wife his first and best thought and you show me a nobleman. My regret and my sorrow is that I did not do for him as he would have done for me. I thought of him, but I did not go and do as the Lord and Master bade me do. I could have given him some cheer, could have thrown of some sunshine to him—I might have done something for him in his battle between life and death. I could have made him feel I was still his friend, this was my neglect, but my purpose to forsake and forever a friend.

To his loved ones I give a parting message; Look up through the mists and clouds that hover above you, some sweet day the skies will clear and the sun shine brighter. Build higher and stronger your faith in God, and when the summons comes for you to pass over the river you will meet your loved one and rest under the shade of the trees.

Death is God's inevitable decree, mysterious and incomprehensible to the finite mind, unchangeable and inexorable. Nothing to us so terrible, so heart-rending as the hour when the cold fingers of death sever the soul from all that is mortal. It is the same form, the same faith silent in death. Oh, soul, whither hast thou flown? Where on the shores of God's great kingdom will thou linger until the resurrection morn.

This is God's mystery unfathomable. His ways are past finding out, and we can only bow in humble submission to His Divine will, His Divine power. On this rock we build our faith. Death comes to the palace home, the cottage gate, to the cabin door where death knocks with the same strong hand. It comes in the springtime when the flowers are blooming and birds singing sweetly, when buds swell and burst giving life to the new year. It comes in the summer time when man and beast are busy turning the sod to make green fields of corn and waving grain. It comes in the fall when the leaves turn red and flowers fade and die and when all nature is clothed in its richest hues. It comes in the cold, stormy days of winter when bleak winds blow down the valley over the hills in doleful sound, when towering cliffs bare their naked breasts and hoary heads and stand as if to brave the coming storm, when snowdrifts cover mountain slope and spread the fields with white; it matters not when nor where it comes—it is God's final decree—it is the brave soul that calmly meets the hour of death with faith in God that all will be well. As we look through this mist and darkness we cannot with our natural eyes see the beauty and grandeur of God's kingdom, but with the eye of faith we can behold Him in all of His beauty and grandeur.

Some day in spring when all the earth is glad,
And sweet birds sing and fewest hearts are sad,
Shall I die then, shall I die then?
O me, no matter when,
I know it will be sweet
To leave the haunts of men and rest beneath the sod,
To kneel and kiss Thy feet in Thy home, O my God.

ANOTHER CONFEDERATE VETERAN PASSES AWAY

L. W. Myers, aged about 82, Confederate soldier, and a prominent citizen of the county, died last Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. C. Bonds, on Missionary Ridge, after a brief illness.

In the death of Mr. Myers, the county loses a good citizen. He was active in all public affairs and was highly esteemed by those who knew him. For more than fifty years he was a member of the Methodist church and served his church faithfully throughout all these years.

Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. M. C. Bonds, of Chattanooga, and Mrs. Bob Davis of Chickamauga; and four sons: G. S., of Chattanooga, Deed, of Cedartown, John, of Chickamauga, and Carl Myers.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Harris, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. So dear to his heart was the cause of the Confederacy, and so gallantly did he wear the gray, that he was laid to rest in the Confederate uniform. Interment was in the Chickamauga cemetery.

Many beautiful floral offerings attested to the esteem of relatives and friends.

ANOTHER GOOD WOMAN GONE

Just at the dawn of day of Jan. 20, the spirit of Mary A. Cheyne took its flight to realms above. Had been in declining health for a year, but was confined to her bed about 10 days. Was 76 years old. The last of a family of twelve. Her sister, Mrs. D. L. Griffith, preceded her only a few months before. Truly a noble woman has gone. She will be missed in her church and community. She and her sisters, Annie Keith and Mrs. D. L. Griffith, gave the plot of ground where East Armuchee church now stands.

The death of W. C. Evitt, a member of the firm of Hall & Evitt, of Kensington, necessarily brings about the dissolution of the firm, and in order to close out the effects of the firm as quickly as possible it will be necessary to immediately curtail all credit business. Therefore, it will be impossible for the firm to extend credit to their customers as they have heretofore done. It will also be necessary to as soon as possible force collections on all notes and accounts of the firm. Mrs. Caroline Mitchell Honored on 87th Birthday

Mrs. Caroline Alexander Mitchell was honored on her 87th birthday by a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Wright, to which children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were bidden. Carnations and ferns were used as decorations, while violets formed place cards.

In the afternoon many friends called to extend greetings and good wishes to one who remains so wonderfully young beyond the fourscore years, retaining all intellectual faculties to a remarkable degree. One source of her sympathy with youth, is the memory of her happy past.

Among the toasts given was by Mrs. J. H. Hammond from Eugene Field to Chas Dana:

"Here's to you——
And may you live a thousand years
To kinder keep things cheery in th's bloomin' vale of tears.
And may we live a thousand, too,
A thousand less a day,
For we shouldn't like to be alive
And know you had gone away."

The day was brightened by a shower of letters, cards, messages, gifts and flowers. xxx

LEE SCHOOL HOUSE

We are very sorry indeed to report the death of Mrs. Fannie Wilson. She has lived in this county for a number of years and was a kind, Christian woman, and loved by all who know her. Very sad for the mother to be laid away and hardly any of the children able to attend the funeral. Besides leaving a husband, Mrs. Wilson leaves some the best children in our community to mourn her death. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

We were made sad to hear of the death of Enos Shields. Truly, a good Christian young man has been taken from our midst. I had known this boy for years and know that he was a good boy. Our sympathy goes out to the brothers and sisters.

Enos Shields, who died near Rock Spring last Wednesday morning, was buried at Trinity Thursday at 11:30. He had been up in Ohio in some kind of school. He and his brother Jim. They both contracted the flu. They came home really before they were able. He attended the Joe Deck sale when it came off then went home and took measles, followed by bronchial pneumonia and then pneumonia straight. In his weakened condition he was unable to battle against the effects of the combined diseases, although he was a robust young man before hew as stricken down. He was a good boy and bid fair to live a long and useful life but alas, he is not, for God took him. He was 22 years old. He has five brothers, two sisters and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss. We tender sympathies to the bereaved ones.

J. A. Williams and Jesse Millican, two of our good friends of the Cove, were to see us on business not long since.

The following story of the marriage of Miss Laura Smith to Mr. Andrew P. de Forest Allgood, published in the Philadelphia Times, will be read with interest by the many friends in this section of Mr. Allgood:

I. The officiating clergymen were the Rev. John H. Prescott, rector of the church, and the Rev. Dr C Ernest Smith, rector of St. Thomas'es Church in Washington, D. The bride wore a gown of cloth of silver, adorned with bands of pearls, with a court train of silver cloth, and a veil of Spanish lace caught up in cap effect with garlands of orange blossoms. Her sister, Mrs. H. A. Baldridge, wife of Com. Baldridge, U. S. N., was her only attendant. She wore a gown of shaded violet chiffon topped with a violet hat trimmed with yellow and pale lavender flowers. Edward Smith gave his sister in marriage.

Ernest Pope, of New York, was best man. The ushers were Major William C. Rose, U. S. A.; Christopher Roberts, Commander Baldridge, and Jewett Holt Smith, the bride's younger brother.

A reception of Hollyhocks, the country home of the bride's parents, followed the ceremony. Later the couple left for Pinehurst, N. C. ESTEEMED ROSSVILLE CITIZEN DIED LAST SATURDAY NIGHT

Chattanooga — Funeral services over the body of Ira M. Flegal, aged 63, who died Saturday night at his home in Rossville after an illness of more than two months, were held from the Rossville M. He was a devoted member, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. B. F. Guillo, assisted by Revs. F. S. Leonard and A. E. Scott, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. Active pallbearers were: W. E. Withers, W L Stansell, J L Rowland, W A Martin, P D Fortune and P D Wright. An escort from the Sons of the Confederacy was in the funeral procession.

Rev. Mr. Guillo paid a beautiful tribute to the life and character of the deceased.

Several months ago Capt. Jackson made the request that Judge Moses Wright deliver his funeral address, and Judge Wright gladly consented to fulfill this request, but he was taken ill Sunday and was unable to attend the funeral.

Many beautiful floral offerings fittingly evidenced the high esteem in which he was held.

At the conclusion of the funeral service at the church, the flower-laden bier, draped with the Confederate flag, was taken to the local cemetery, and before the body was lowered to its last resting place, Rev. Mr. Guillo tenderly read the lines "To A Comrade," which were so beautifully appropriate.

He was born and reared upon the plantation which his father, Moses Jackson, originally brought to cultivation. The father was a slaveholder and the loyalty and fidelity of these old retainers and their children before, during and since the war is sufficient evidence of the kind and humane treatment that they received.

In April 1861, Captain entered the Confederate services as a second lieutenant of Company G, Eleventh regiment Georgia Infantry, first commanded by George T. Anderson, family known as "Tige" Anderson, and afterwards the brigade commander, Lieutenant Jackson was advanced to the rank of captain in 1864. During the Second Manassas campaign he served in the commissary department, and during the Maryland campaign of 1862 was acting quartermaster of his regiment until the qualification for that position of Henry M. McDaniel, former governor of Georgia. His gallant and efficient career as an officer was ended at the battle of Gettysburg, where, in the second day's fighting, he was dangerously wounded, a ball passing through his body. ENTIRE COMMUNITY SHOCKED BY DEATH OF MRS. EARL JACKSON

When it was whispered yesterday evening that Mrs. Belle Steele Jackson, wife of Earl Jackson, had passed away at her home on South Main Street, the hearts of the people of this entire comunity bowed in profound and personal grief.

The immediate cause of her death was attributed to pleurisy induced by physical exhaustion that was due to Mrs. Jackson's long and arduous attentions to her father-in-law, Capt. Jackson, who died several days ago.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two brothers Capt. W. H. Steele, of Washington, D. C. and Robert Steele, of this city; and two sisters, Mrs. P. D. Fortune and Mrs. T. A. Jackson.

Funeral services will be held from the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Jackson was a daughter of the late Capt. A. R. Steele, first president of the Union Cotton Mills, and a member of one of the leading families of this section.

The deceased during her entire life among us had been an active and popular leader in all comunity affairs. During the war she devoted all of her time, her wonderful skill, her energy and her heart filled with touching sympathy, to the work of the Red Cross, and how well she ministered only eternity can tell.

Possessing a winsome personality, exemplifying in her life and daily conduct the tenderness and graciousness of the Christian graces, touching community life at all of its vital points, and dedicating herself and all her powers in beautiful and loving ministry for others, this community in her passing, has lost one whose place cannot be filled.

Her smile and message of hope to the disouraged; her gentleness and service in the sick room; her kindness to the poor; her deep sympathy for the distressed, unfortunate, and sorrowing; her tenderness to old age; her love of children; her consuming interest in and activity for all things good and noble and true; her capacity for work and her tireless energy, though frail of body; her rejoicing with those that rejoice; her devotion to her church—yes, her life—was wonderful, beautiful, amazing.

Her death is a personal loss to the people of LaFayette and this section, and the community has lost an ever-watchful and

In the unexpected sickness and death of my brother Jim Walden, of LaFayette, last week, which was the darkest hour of my life, I cannot express my thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses shown me and his poor little children. While he might have lacked attention there with just his motherless children, I feel and not sure that the good people responded to his needs just as soon as they learned of his serious condition. In one hour after we got the news my daughter and I were at his bedside, but we were too late, he only lived four hours. I will endeavor to be a true Christian father to his children. Jim died a Christian and that is enough.

Mrs. Small, a sister of LaFayette and Lawson Duncan, of this place, was buried at the Duncan graveyard last Friday. She was well-known and highly respected in our community, as she lived here a number of years. Our heartfelt sypbathy goes out to the aged husband and three brothers and step-mother.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their many kind deeds done during the sickness and death of our dear wife and mother. Also Dr. Bryan for his kind attention shown us? May God's richest blessings rest upon each and every one, is our prayer—J. C. Curris and children.

LAST SAD RITES OVER BODY OF MRS. EARL JACKSON LAST FRIDAY AFTERNON

Funeral services over the body of Mrs. Belle Steele Jackson, who died last Wednesday night, March 17th, were held from the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. B. F. Guille officiated, assisted by Revs I. S. Leonard and A. E. Scott. Touching tributes on the life and character of the deceased were made by the three pastors of the town, and appropriate music was rendered by a special choir.

Long before the hour for the funeral procession to begin from the residence on South Main street, the church was filled to its very capacity by sorrowing friends. When the services began there was not a vacant seat in the church, many standing and quite a large number not being able to press themselves through the doorway. Many friends of the deceased from Chattanooga, Chickamauga, Trion and Summerville attended the funeral.

The beautiful casket, laden with a blanket of flowers, an offering of the family, was tenderly borne by the following pallbearers: D. W. Herndon, S. A Hunt, Stewart Wright, D. R. Thurman, F. H. Kirby and W. E. Withers.

The profusion of beautiful floral offerings of relatives and friends, silently manifested the love and high esteem in which the deceased was held. Besides individual floral tributes of relatives and friends, quite a number of organizations and societies, of which Mrs Jackson was a member, presented lovely designs, among them being The American Legion, the local bar association, the Red Cross chapter, the Eastern Star chapter, the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, the Embroidery Circle, the U. D. C., the Presbyterian church and Sunday school, and Mrs. Jackson's Sunday school class.

At the conclusion of the services at the church, the body was taken to the local cemetery, and as it was lowered to its last resting place, Mr. N. C. Napier softly sang, "Good Night."

In this hour of sore bereavement, Col. Jackson and the immediate relatives have the deep sympathy of the entire community.

The bereaved families have the sympathy of their friends in these hours of sadness.

CARD OF THANKS

What the innumerable acts of love for the one who is gone, and the help, friendship and sympathy shown us who are left, means to me, only those who have been in the deep waters may know. No words may express, or act ever show the gratitude and love I have for all you dear people who went with me all the way. May the dear Lord bless and keep you, and cause His face to shine upon, and be gracious unto you, and give you peace.

[illegible] LEE

R. H. Jennings well-known as uncle Tobe, died last Saturday night at 8:30 with something like a overflow of blood or some head trouble that was very difficult for the doctors to work out. This community is very sad in the loss of Mr. Jennings. He was a man that attended to his own business at all times and let the other fellows alone. He was an honest, upright Christian gentleman in every respect. We have suffered a great loss in the death of Mr. Jennings. He was a great booster for good schools, better roads, better farming and was always ready to lend a helping hand for progress in all lines. Our paper has also suffered a great loss for "Rattler's" letter was always read with much interest. The funeral was held at the home last Monday, at 11:30, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Harrison and the body was laid to rest in the LaFayette cemetery. Our sympathy goes out for the mother and the large number of children in the loss of husband and father. His son R. W. Jennings, of New York City, came on Sunday, but was too late to see his father alive. May God bless them is our prayer.

Miss Janie Wilson is no better at this writing.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Johnny Hollis little boy. Our sympathy goes out for the family.

DUCK CREEK

Most families who have had flu have either recovered or on the way to recovery. Only one death so for that we have heard of in this section —that of Mrs. Oscar Strickland of Center Post who died fro mpneumonia following flu.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Joe Fulmer, which occurred one day last week. He was the only son of our esteemed friend and fellow- citizen, J. W. Fulmer, of Mt. Carmel. We have known Joe all his life .He once was a pupil of ours in school. To say he was a good man would be putting it very mildly for he really was an exception. He leaves a wife and several children and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss. He had been an invalid for several years. We suppose he was laid to rest at Mt. Carmel. We tender our sympathies to those bereaved. Peace to his ashes.

HERBERT SCHMITT

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Folding and Sallie Schmitt of Wallaceville, Ga., was born July 23, 1898, and died March 31, 1920, being nearly 23 years of age. Besides his father and mother he leaves a younger sister and brother and a host of relatives and friends, who sincerely mourn his early calling away.

Herbert was always a good boy, dutiful to his parents and kind to all. In fact his pleasant disposition and his genial and courteous manner were most noticeable to all with whom he met. He was very industrious and strictly honest and gave promise of a most useful and honored life.

Some two years past his health began failing and then powers of both body and mind gave way, and the last year of his life was spent in a sanitarium. But all to no avail the current of life was ebbing out, and quietly as the setting of a summer's sun his gentle spirit passed to the land where there is no more sorrow, suffering nor death.

In the presence of a large concourse of sympathetic friends and neighbors his body was laid to rest in the Chickamauga cemetery on April 3rd, 1920. Brother Barlow McFarland conducted the services, and the following associates acting as pallbearers: Charlie Slater, Paul Wallace, Carl Harp, Clifford Lewis, Willie Wallace and Leonard Hamilton.—A Friend.

J. H. FULMER.

In the death of J. H. Fulmer, Mt. Carmel Lodge, I. O. O. F., has lost one of its best members. While he was able he always was on hand at meetings. Bro. Fulmer was a true Odd Fellow and a Christian gentleman in every respect. He leaves a widow and a number of small children to mourn his death; also an aged father and stepmother and one sister, Mrs. Matt Williams. Bro. Fulmer was laid to rest in the Mt. Carmel cemetery, Rev. Harrison preaching the funeral. He was buried with full Odd Fellow honors. A true Odd Fellow is gone.

B. L. HAMPTON.

A. H. NEAL.

A. H. Neal was born Dec. 8, 1850, and died at his home in LaFayette, Ga., July 31, 1919.

In 1871 he married Amanda McWilliams. She only lived a short time, and in 1875 he married Sarah McWilliams. In 1892, having been bereft of his second companion, married Mrs. Abbie Evans Scott, who survives him.

Of his former marriages he leaves to mourn his death three sons, W. P., A. P. and J. C. Neal, and two daughters, Mrs. W. P. Blackwell and Mrs. Mattie Morris, also three brothers, William K., and J. B. Neal, of Texas, and Rev. R. P. Neal, of Dalton, and two sisters, Mrs. Nannie McWilliams and Mrs. Mary Bomar. When quite young he was converted and joined the Methodist church. He loved his church and served most efficiently as trustee, Sunday School superintendent, and as a steward, in the latter capacity for forty-five years, being an honorary member of the board of Stewards at the time of his death.

He was not of a demonstrative nature, but his everyday walk was consistent and upright. He was "steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord."

His pastor was always a welcome guest at his home. It was the writer's privilege to visit him often during his last illness, and the word of God, and prayer seemed to become more precious to him as the end drew near. He suffered a great deal, but endured his afflictions patiently. Truly, he "fought a good fight," he finished his course," "he kept the faith."

The funeral was conducted by the writer at Pleasant Hill church, and interment was in the church cemetery.

His pastor,
A. E. SCOTT.

MRS. D. W. HERNDON PASSED AWAY TUESDAY AT 12:40 P. M.

The death Tuesday at 12:40 p. m., after an illness of four weeks, of Mrs. D. W. Herndon, at her home on North Main street, came as a shock to the entire community. For several years she had been in ill health. Death was due to meningitis, resulting from disease of the ear.

Surviving her are her husband, three children—two sons, Charles and John, and one daughter, Mary; her mother, Mrs. C. I. Holland, of Holland, Ga.; one sister, Mrs. J. P. Hall, and two brothers, Robert and Gilbert Holland, of Holland, Ga., all of whom attended the funeral Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Herndon was of a quiet and gentle disposition and during her long illness, when she was confined to her home and oftentimes to her bed, she never murmured or complained, but bore her afflictions with true Christian fortitude. She was a loving mother, a devoted wife and companion, and her passing is a distinct loss not only to her family but to the community. A faithful and consecrated member of the Presbyterian church, she was ever anxious for the progress and advancement of the Kingdom.

The devotion and tender ministry of Dr. Herndon, throughout the long years of his wife's illness, as well as that of her sister, Mrs. J. P. Hall, was touching and beautiful.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the Presbyterian church, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. L. Guille, who in speaking of the conquering life of the Christian over death, paid a beautiful tribute to the deceased. The pallbearers were: D. Fortune, E. A. Jackson, R. Steele, D. R. Thurman, F. H. Kirk and J. W. Massey. The remains were lowered to their last resting place in the local cemetery.

The profusion of beautiful flowers by relatives and friends and organizations eminently told of the love and esteem in which she was held. Among the offerings were beautiful designs from the Odd Fellow order, the Presbyterian church and Sunday school, the Maple City Club, City Council, and the 6th and 7th grades of the LaFayette public school.

In their sad bereavement the family have the profound sympathy of a host of friends.

MRS. C. B. HALL PASSED TO HER REWARD SATURDAY

Mrs. C. B. Hall, aged 34, died at a Chattanooga hospital last Saturday morning at 8:45, following an operation on Thursday. For several months she had been in declining health, but her condition did not cause alarm until last week.

Surviving her are her husband and four sons—James, Perry, Calvin and Harold; one brother, J. W. Lee, of Cedartown, and one sister, Mrs. F. H. Trotter of Chattanooga.

Funeral services were held from the residence at Kensington Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. P. Harris, in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends. Interment followed in the Coulter graveyard. The funeral procession from the house contained more than sixty automobiles. Pallbearers were, Messrs. Burwell and Roy Hall, Smith, Cornelison, Brooks and Evitt.

The deceased was the daughter of the late J. W. Lee and was loved by all those who knew her. She possessed a charming personality, and her death is mourned by the entire community in which she lived.

Town and County

Born last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shelby, of Naud, a fine son. Mrs. Shelby is the daughter of Henry Evans.

Little Joe, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Henderson, after suffering eighteen days with colitis, passed away on Monday at noon. The mother was suffering nervous collapse from strain and shock, but is improving. A large company of sympathizing friends was constantly with them in the last hours of the little sufferer's lingering and gave every touch and token of sympathy to relieve the sombre aspect of that grim presence which takes our loved from us. The body was laid away in the Pennine cemetery in one of the most beautiful graves ever prepared by loving hands.

MRS. M. A. ALLGOOD PASSED AWAY TUESDAY EVENING

The death Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, at her home at Trion, of Mrs. M. A. Allgood, at the ripe age of 93, is deeply deplored by all those who knew her in this section.

Her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Cooper, of Rome, had been constantly at her bedside since last Wednesday, and Mrs. J. D. S. Holmes, the other daughter, who survives her and who made her home with her mother, was also at her bedside. Eight grandchildren survive Mrs. Allgood, Messrs. Mark, Andrew and Frederick Cooper, of Rome; Mrs. Eugene Harris, of Macon; Shorter Hamilton, of New York City; DeForest Hamilton, of Chicago; Mrs. Robert Purse, of Chattanooga; Andrew Allgood, of New York; also one sister, Mrs. S. A. Warthen, of this city.

From North Carolina in early childhood, Mrs. Allgood, then Miss Mary Ann Marsh, came to Georgia with her parents, who settled near LaFayette. Soon after her marriage to Mr. Andrew Allgood, the present Allgood home at Trion, noted for its hospitality, became their residence, and it was there that Mrs. Allgood resided when the end came Tuesday. To few people is it granted to live well past the four score years and almost reach the fifth score mile post with the life and vigor possessed by Mrs. Allgood until recent years, when her strength grew less. About thirty-six years ago, by the passing of her husband, she was left a widow. A wonderful courage, a sweetness of nature and unselfishness were among her lovely traits that possibly stood out most plainly and had most to do with making her life a blessing in its happiness and in the splendor of its example to everyone who felt her influence.

During the last few years Mrs. Allgood spent much of her time knitting. As many as thirty sweaters for the soldiers were knitted by her. After the war she began to knit for the Belgian children and many of her friends treasure gifts which represent the work of her hands.

Funeral services were held Thursday o'clock from the home by the Rev. Moncrief, of Rome. After the funeral service the body will be brought to LaFayette and lowered to its last resting place in the family burying ground.

IN MEMORY.

On the evening of Dec. 17, 1919, the spirit of Uncle Mart Volles took its flight from earth to that better home and to God who gave it.

Uncle Mart was 73 years of age at the time of death, and is survived by four children, three girls and one boy; five brothers and three sisters; his wife having preceded him to the grave some years ago.

Uncle Mart was confined to his bed for fourteen months with what the Drs. called paralysis, but he bore his suffering without a murmer or a word of complaint.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. E. Scott, pastor of the Methodist church, of LaFayette, and his body was laid to rest at the Kensington cemetery, to await the resurrection morn.

Written by one who knew him.

PAUL BAKER.

On Oct. 24, 1919, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Baker and claimed their only child, Paul, who had been permitted to stay with them seven years. All that loving hearts and hands could do was done to keep him with us, but a wise Heavenly Father saw best to take him to Himself to live with Him throughout endless ages where suffering and sorrow and death can never come and heartaches and partings will be known no more.

Parents, weep not for little Paul for he is safe in the arms of Jesus, who said, "Suffer little children to come unto Me and forbid them not for such is the kingdom of Heaven." We know that it is sad to give up our loved ones, but if we believe in Christ and trust Him we will meet them again where we will never more say good-bye. Let us be faithful until our Father calls us home.

Written by a friend,

Jewel Hamilton.

Rfd. 2, Kensington, Ga.

IN MEMORY OF T. J. MILLICAN.

God in His infinite wisdom has fit to transplant from an earthlome our husband and father.

Millican was born Oct. 29, 1850, professed religion early in life and joined the Baptist church. Died Nov. 24, 1919.

He leaves a wife and six sons and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss, but we have a bright hope of meeting him in heaven where partings will be no more.

So tender, so kind, so sympathetic. The family's devotion was truly beautiful. His every wish was anticipated, but alas! after all the kind demonstrations of loved ones, and the efforts of skilled physicians could not stay the ebbing tide of his life. God, who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind willed it otherwise.

We who were once made happy by his sunny presence are now made sad and lonely, but we pray that the Father of all sufficient grace may comfort our broken hearts; the void thus made is by His Providence, that some glad and bright tomorrow we shall hear his dear sweet voice and clasp his hands on the bright celestial shore.

The funeral services were held from the Antioch Baptist church on Wednesday at 11 o'clock and were conducted by Bro. Green, of Chelsea. He was laid to rest in Antioch cemetery by loving hands, his pallbearers were his six sons.

OBITUARY.

On Oct. the 19th, 1918, the death angel came to the home of T. J. Rogers and the gentle Spirit of the loving husband and father wafted back to God who gave it.

He was born Jan. 3, 1858, in Mercer County, Kentucky. He came to Georgia at the age of 21, and was married to Zodie Cochran, Feb. the 24th, 1884. To their union five children were given, of which one was waiting to greet him in that happy home above.

Bro. Rogers professed a hope in Christ at the age of 27, and united with the Baptist church at Summerville, Ga., but was granted a letter of dismission and joined the Baptist church, of which he was a member at the time of his death.

We would say to the bereaved ones, weep not as one having no hope, but look to the One that doeth all things well, for those who love and serve Him. It will only be a short space of time until the same God will come for you too. Whether prepared or unprepared, we must all go when the summons comes.

Why should we weep when the weary ones rest?
In the bosom of Jesus supreme,
In the mansions of glory prepared for the blest.
For death is no more than a dream.

MOSLEY—STANSELL

A pretty wedding and one of interest to the many friends of the contracting parties, was that of Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Aileen Mosley and Mr. James Courtland Stansell were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, at the home of the bride in West LaFayette, in the presence of relatives and several special friends.

The home was beautifully decorated with flowers, and at the appointed hour, to the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march played by Mrs. A. F. Gilreath, the bride, preceded by her bridesmaid, Mrs. Bunyan Chapman, entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Mr. Rowland Mosley, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the improvised altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. A. F. Gilreath. Rev. B. F. Guille officiated in a very impressive manner. During the ceremony Mrs. Gilreath softly played, "Hearts and Flowers."

The bride was never more attractive in her white georgette dress, with gloves and shoes to match. She wore a veil, caught with real orange blossoms, a special gift of a friend in California. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The bridesmaid wore a becoming gown of pink and white, and carried a large bouquet of sweet peas.

The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mrs. K. C. Mosley, and is popular with a wide circle of friends while the groom is a son of Judge W. L. Stansell, and is an enterprising young man of splendid ability.

Many handsome and useful presents were attractively displayed in the dining room, among the number being silver sets, cut glass ware, etc.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stansell left for Lithonia Ga., where they will be at home to their friends.

The host of LaFayette friends of the young married couple extend happy felicitations.

UNCLE JERRY BURNS DIES AFTER LONG AFFLICTION

Uncle Jerre Burns, who has been sorely afflicted with eating cancer for so long, died last Saturday. We have been personally acquainted with Uncle Jerre for over 45 years. We always found him to be the same good, clever, Christian gentleman that he was. The last time we saw him he told us he was ready to go when his Master called him. He said he could not see why he had to stay here and suffer so long and so much, but he was perfectly willing to abide the will of the Lord and suffer until his mission was completed. We feel assured he is now resting under the shade of the tree in that country he loved to sing so well about, where there are no cancers nor any other kind of sickness nor pain.

We were not able to attend the funeral which took place at Wesley Chapel Sunday afternoon, conducted by his pastor, Rev. V. B. Harrison.

He leaves a wife, two sons and three daughters, one brother and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

We tender our sympathies to those bereaved, and would wish them a happy reunion in the great beyond.

DR. CHARLES W. SHIELDS ANSWERS LAST SUMMONS

The sad intelligence of the death of Dr. Charles W. Shields, at the home of his brother, Dr. H. F. Shields, of Chickamauga, Sunday morning at 4:45, is deeply deplored by a host of relatives and friends in this section.

For several years Dr. Shields had been in ill health, and a few years ago he was forced to relinquish his dental practice here, and go to New Mexico in search of better health. His condition improved in the west, but a few months ago he received injuries from a fall and he was brought to Chattanooga for an operation. His general health condition seemed to be somewhat better however, and his relatives and friends were hopeful, until about ten days ago, he became quite ill and rapidly grew worse until the end last Sunday morning.

Surviving him are a father, J. M. Shields, of Chickamauga; two brothers, Dr. H. F. Shields, of Chickamauga and J. H. Shields of Rock Springs; and three sisters, Mrs. W. M. Prince, and Mrs. O. I. Henderson, of Chickamauga, and Miss Ruth Shields of Chattanooga.

Possessing a winsome personality, unassuming, and a young man of splendid traits of character, he made his death is deeply mourned by a wide circle of friends in this section, circle of friends in this section.

A few years before his death, while in the west, he professed a faith in Christ, and was supported by that hope during his protracted illness.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from the Peavine church, in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends, conducted by Revs. C. P. Harris and T. R. Hardin, who paid glowing tributes to the character of the deceased. The pallbearers were: Dr. Lee Bird, R. C. Wellborn, Harry Holland, J. W. Massey, Luther Abercrombie and J. L. Moore.

MEMORIAM

On the morning of Oct 1919, ere the first rays of dawn had heralded the approach of a new day, the deep stillness of an autumn night was broken by the rustle of the wings of Death as he hovered about our home in all his Majesty and with his calm command, "Come," he beckoned to the spirit of our dear sister and urged her to forsake this turmoil of earthly strife and journey with him to that Great Beyond. So hushed in the hour of death her soul took its flight to celestial realms to mingle with the blessed.

Death has mysteries which life cannot reveal. We behold life at first upon the sleeping lids of infancy. We see it in the blushing cheeks of youth as it strolls through verdant meadows, where gentle zephyrs sigh and music-throated birds entrance the listening air. And we behold life in the more vigorous forms of manhood and womanhood performing the arduous and sacred tasks which God has so designed for them and we at last gaze upon the wrinkled brow of age as it lingers upon the treacherous precipice overlooking the abysmal chasm of eternity, but look where we may, we see the indelible stain of death.

And then we pause for an instant and wonder if there is consolation on this side of the Dark River after a dear one has gone on before. We recognize our frailties and weaknesses, but where is that power that can heal the wound in our grieving souls caused by the absence of our dear one forever?

We fancy her like the rose that buds in the springtime and ere its snowy petals have blossomed forth to scatter its fragrance to a sorrowing world, it is cut down and thrown to the winds and back to Mother Earth and to the dust from whence it came.

Alma Odella Lovingood Painter was born April 22, 1889. She reached the tender age of 30 years. She was a devoted daughter, sister and wife and her sweet nature was ever her guiding star in her path that led her to multitude of friends who share with us, our loss in her untimely death. She was more considerate of others' welfare than of her own and even in her dying hour she implored us not to weep for her but prepare to meet her at that great Reunion where we "Shall know as we are known" and dwell there together throughout eternity.

Alma was a devout Christian and a member of the Missionary Baptist church. She did not fear death and when the time came for her soul to take its flight, she went into peaceful slumber and away from all earthly cares. She fought a brave fight and lost. For two years she was striken with an incurable malady and though at times her suffering was so intense and seemingly unbearable, she bravely fought against the Grim Reaper until she realized that she must give up the struggle of Life's battle and seek rest and peace in Yonder's World where pain and suffering is unknown. "UNCLE TOM BLACKWELL" PASSED AWAY IN TEXAS.

There are many in Walker county who will regret to learn of the death of Thomas J. Blackwell, who moved to Texas some thirty years ago.

He was born and reared six miles south of LaFayette, on the Broomtown road, at which place he lived until he moved to Texas. He is the last of a family of thirteen to pass away.

He was a good man and a good citizen while living in Georgia, and the following clipping from his home paper will show the high esteem in which he was held in the Texas community, where he lived and died:

"T. J. Blackwell, familliarly called "Uncle Tom Blackwell," died at his late home in the Concord community Wednesday of last week after an illness of only a few days' duration. About a week before his death he fell from a load of oats and was injured internally. Pneumonia developed and he answered the great roll call. Interment was had at Concord graveyard Thursday evening June 10, his former Pastor, Rev. Hamrick, conducted the funeral service, speaking of the consecrated Christian life of deceased and paying a beautiful tribute to the memory of the man during the ten years he served as his Pastor.

"Uncle Tom was one of the best men we ever knew. He was a member of the Baptist church at Hainesville and lived a life well worthy of emulation. He was born in Georgia 72 years ago last October. He has lived in the Concord community for a number of years and his work in the church and community will be long remembered. Three children survive him, viz: W. P. Blackwell, Jr., who lives two miles north of Quitman, Mrs. Day who lives near Concord, Mrs. Asa Flournoy who lives near Hainesville.

"He died as he lived, and passed away with a smile on his face. His attending physician, Dr. J. M. Puckett, stating that he was the first person he ever saw die with a smile on his face. Even in the cold embrace of death that smile seemed to linger. What a consolation to his loved ones!

"In their hour of sadness the Democrat would join the many friends of this good man in tokens of sympathy to the bereaved children and other relatives."

IN MEMORY.

On May 11th, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, of Chickamauga, Ga., and took from them their only child—Junior.

Junior was only twenty-four months old, but was an exceptionally bright child for his age. He had such a sweet disposition that all who knew him both old and young, loved him, and his sweet smiles will be missed by many friends and loved ones.

He was only sick one week, but suffered very much during his brief illness.

Junior's going left a vacant place in his earthly home which never can be filled, but it made our hearts sad to give him up, it made the angels rejoice to welcome him into their realm of Eternal Glory.

We know Junior has gone to rest for the Bible says, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven. So the thing for us to do to meet Junior in a better world where there will be no more suffering or sorrow is to be prepared and ready to go when our Heavenly Father says, "Come Higher."

We cannot understand why dear
Little Junior was taken away.
But God knows all things best
So He took him home to rest.
So dear friends in this sad time
We ought to ever bear in mind,
That God knows best
And took Junior home to rest.
For a purpose we know not why
But we should put our trust in Him
And be ready to meet Junior
In a far better world than this.
When our Heavenly Father
Says' "Come Higher."

IN MEMORY.

Sallie Couch, the daughter of Reubin Couch, left this world to try the world unknown on October 21, 1919. She left a father and two sisters to mourn her going away. Sallie professed a hope in Christ in her early life, a hope that when she called upon the Lord He would answer. Sallie told me several times that she did not dread to die.

No one knows how had I miss her. Sallie has been like a mother to me. She had been in bad health for two years before her death, and it is a great consolation to know that we may meet her in Heaven.

Why do we mourn departed friends
Or shake at death's alarm,
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to His arms.

Sallie is gone but not forgotten, how sweet the memories of years gone by.

The deceased leaves a widow, Mrs. Grace Williams, nee White, together with a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Griff Cubanks' baby died last Thursday at Wood Station, and was buried at Catlett Friday.

We was very sorry to hear of Ed Tinder getting killed last week. We knew both parties well. Mr. Tinder was a hard working, honest man. It certainly is bad—two families wrecked for life just by fooling with something they ought to have let alone.

IN MEMORY.

Russell Kinsey, son of J. M. Kinsey, who was born Feb. 2, 1896, died June 16, 1920.

God in His wisdom saw fit to afflict Russell in his infancy, and what he suffered no one knew, and no one but Our Heavenly Father will ever know. Living to over 24 years of age, yet he was only a child, and like a child knew and loved his people and friends.

His death came not unexpected. All that physicians and loved ones could do was done to relieve his suffering and cheer his life, not only at the last, but all through his life.

Russell was laid to rest at Fisher's Chapel, in Chattooga county, where he played in childhood; Rev. J. H. Cargal, of Dalton officiating.

He leaves father, mother and three sisters to mourn his departure. To them we would say, "Weep not for Russell, but rejoice that he is out of pain and is basking in the sunshine of God's love."

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of our dear mother, Mrs. Amanda Killingsworth, whose spirit on the morning of Jan. 6, 1920, took its flight from this world to live with God.

How sad it is for us to know we will never see mamma any more on this earth, but our loss is her eternal gain, and we know that mamma is at rest.

When she was but a young woman she was happily married to J. M.

BOWEN—COUGHLAN

A beautiful wedding of the season was that of Miss Wessie Bowen and Lieut. James C. Coughlan, U. S. A., Tuesday evening at [illegible] o'clock, at the country home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs. A. S. Bowen, near Chickamauga. Bishop R. J. Cook, of Athens, a personal friend of the family, and who officiated in the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, was the officiating minister. The nuptial music was directed by Mr. and Mrs. Alex Keese.

Miss Virginia Lee Bowen was maid of honor and Capt. James Hagan was best man. Little Elizabeth Jacobs, of Scottsboro, Ala., carried the ring. Following the nuptials an informal reception was held for the wedding party and guests.

The bride and bridegroom stood before an altar of ferns outlined with a trellis of orange blossoms.

The bride was gowned in white duchess satin, lace-trimmed, and her bridal veil was fastened with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of Bride's roses and orange blossoms.

The maid of honor wore white net over green taffeta and her shower was white roses.

The little flower girl was dainty in white organdy and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink roses, in which the wedding ring was concealed.

Lieut. and Mrs. Coughlan left for a bridal tour of Chicago and the great lakes. For a traveling suit Mrs. Coughlan was attired in blue duvetin, with gray moleskin trimmings and hat to match.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Grady Jacobs and Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, of Scottsboro, Ala., Bishop and Mrs. R. J. Cook, of Athens; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Godwin, of Dalton, Ga., Lieut. James Hagan, of Camp Funston, and Mrs. N. C. Napier and Mrs. Caroline Arnold of LaFayette.

MEMORIAM.

Sarah Evaline Moore, wife of W. B. Moore, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wells; was born in Alabama, and died at her home near Cedar Grove, Feb. 18, 1920.

She was buried at Cedar Grove cemetery. Funeral services conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. P. Harris.

She was a member of the Cedar Grove Methodist church, having professed faith in Christ in early girlhood. Her associates can testify to her loyalty to all the Christian graces.

What a beautiful heritage for her children, is the earnest, hopeful, faithful life she lived. It is above rubies.

She, like one great example, was acquainted with grief. She was bereft of a father's loving care when a little girl, her father having fallen during the last year of the Civil war.

She was married to William B. Moore March 18, 1877, who preceded her to the grave Oct. 26, 1901. Thus she was left a widow with eight children, three girls and five boys. For over eighteen years she faithfully and devotedly toiled for their support and education.

Two of her sons and one daughter died several years since, three sons and two daughters, a brother, some grandchildren and many other relatives and friends are left to mourn her departure.

She had been an invalid for some time before she died, having had an attack of typhoid in 1918, from which she never fully recovered, when pneumonia severed the slender thread that bound her to earth.

During the years of her affliction, she never murmured nor complained. She spoke of death saying, that she did not fear death, and was ready to go; though she did love to live.

A noble self sacrificing life she lived. A beautiful example for us to emulate.

My heart goes out in sympathy to her children who are bereft of her loving companionship, but the sorrow and loneliness are all theirs. She has gone where there is no sorrow, pain, nor parting, to the mansion that her elder brother prepared for her in the wonderful city of the blest. Some day we hope to meet loved ones gone before, where we will be with them, and our Savior forever.

Mrs. J. R. Shankle.

IN MEMORY.

Of our beloved sister, Mrs. Ruth Crump, who was called away from her friends and loved ones, Feb. 28, 1920. She was Born Sept. 22, 1902, joined the Corinth Baptist church, was married to Jeter Crump Oct. 13, 1917, and to this union was given two children, one girl and one boy. She leaves a husband, one child, father and mother, three brothers, one sister and a host of friends.

It was our pleasure to know Sister Ruth Crump about 4 years, but her stay among us endeared her to our hearts. All those that knew little Ruth loved her. Therefore, bt lo resolved, that Corinth church has lost a useful member, the community a kind friend and the family a kind mother and wife; and that a copy of this memorial be sent to the Walker County Messenger for publication, and also be placed on record in our church book.

So we would say to the bereaved, "Weep not for your loved ones for death is only a dream to those that are prepared to die," and let us all live in a way to meet our loved ones where there will be no more sad good byes and where all things will be well with us. There will be no sickness, sorrows, pains or deaths up there. May the Lord bless each and everyone of her bereaved ones.

The place of one is vacant,
One we learned to love,
But her soul is united
In that heavenly home above.

Mrs. Lily W.,
Mrs. Ada Dunwoody,
Mrs. Flora Headrick, Com

OBITUARY.

In the Providence of God we have been called to mourn the loss of our beloved and esteemed brother, J. R. Little, in October 1919, when death came and claimed him as his victim.

Brother Little was born about 1850 and served in the Civil war, though being only a young boy he stayed only a few months.

When he was about 25 years of age he was married to Miss Addie Easterling.

There were born to them nine children, five who are spared to breathe God's free air and to share the joys, pleasures and sorrows of this life.

When he was quite young he joined the Shiloh Baptist church, of which he was a member to the day of his death.

IN MEMORY OF J. A. PETTIJOHN.

On the evening of Jan. 3rd, 1920, the mysterious angel of death visited our community and claimed as his victim the cheerful happy spirit of our cousin, Mr. J. A. Pettijohn. His illness was very brief; he lingered unconscious until Saturday evening about four o'clock when his spirit passed sweetly away without a struggle.

Sad indeed was that sudden shock to his loving family and friends.

Joe was born Jan. 25, 1861, and in 1881 he was married to Mary Etta Sclte, and the same year he became a member of the Baptist church and lived a true Christian, and in 1914 he became a member of the church of Christ, where he remained until his death.

His life was an inspiration and benediction.

In his death the wife has lost a kind and loving husband, the children an affectionate father, the county a citizen, and the church a member whose place will be hard to fill.

We would to say to the wife, children and relatives, "Weep not for him, for your loss is his eternal gain. It is sad to part with those we love, to know that we'll never see them and hear their voice again on earth, but we feel sure and trust in the promises that God has given us and to all who obey His will. We will meet them in that land where sickness and sorrow, pain and death are felt and feared no more.

Surviving Mr. Pettijohn are his wife and five children, and one sister, Mrs. Chas. Sweet, five brothers, J. L., A. J., J. H., N. J., and J. N., and 21 grand children.

The funeral services were held from the Baptist church on Monday at 2 o'clock and were conducted by Revs. Flavil Hall and G. S. Bradley. The services were of tender and touching tributes. He was laid to rest in Fairview cemetery by loving hands.

Green by the turf above thee,
Friend of my better days,
None see thee but to love thee,
Nor name thee but to praise.
While memory bids me weep thee,
Nor thought nor words are free,
The grief is fixed too deeply
That mourns a man like thee.

Winnie.

IN MEMORY.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Carter on March 2, 1920, and took from them their loving little son, Robert T.

R. T. was born June 21, 1914 and died March 2, 1920. At the time of his death he was 5 years, 8 months and 2 days old.

He is survived by his father, mother, one brother, and one sister.—His body was laid to rest in Wood Station cemetery. He was loved by all that knew him.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
That never can be filled.

FANNIE CARTER.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE.

On Jan. 2nd the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jay and took away their little son, Herbert, aged 10 years, 3 months, and 14 days.

Little Herbert being a delicate child was the pet of the home. He had a smile and a kind word for all that he came in contact with. We miss him so much. All was done for him that human hands could do, but he was too fair a flower for this world so God called him away.

Weep not for we know Herbert is in heaven, so let us prepare to meet him, where there shall be no parting, but all is peace and happiness.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

A FRIEND.

IN MEMORY.

God in His infinite wisdom has called from earth to heaven our brother, Mr. Joe Lawrence, who was a faithful member of Shiloh Baptist church to which he has belonged for so many years.

He leaves a wife and one son and five daughters to mourn his loss, and our only understanding and consolation is that our heavenly Father knoweth best and doeth all things well.

Uncle Joe, as he is familiarly known to so many of us, was gentle, tender hearted and unassuming. Also very friendly to every one, no matter of what standing in the world.

He was always ready and willing to serve his fellow men. To his loving wife and children who were so dear to him, our deep and sincere sympathy is extended in their sad bereavement of a loving, tender and self-sacrificing husband and father.

IN MEMORY.

Of Mrs. Valeria Ellena (Partain) Underwood, born Nov. 7th, 1844. Was married to Abe Underwood, of Gilmer county, North Carolina, Sept. 19, 1860, died April 26, 1920, aged 76 years and five months. To know Mrs. Underwood was to love her. She professed faith in Christ while quite young and united with the Baptist church at Waterville and remained a faithful member of the same until she joined the church triumphant on the above date.

She was highly esteemed by her neighbors who attested their love by attending the funeral in a very large concourse of them, and the deluge of beautiful flowers that were banked on the little mound under which she is sleeping, waiting for the trumpet to sound that will wake her up to be forever with her Lord, and those who have gone before her.

She is survived by four girls and three boys: Sam and Cland and Nancy, of Texas, and Mary, Liza, Dora and Lena and George, of Walker county.

A life-long friend of hers, J. A. Wilson, said to me as the grave was being filled up: "There is the best woman I ever knew: "I have known her all my life and she spent and was spent for others."

The funeral was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Smallwood, in Duck Creek Valley, conducted by the writer, who was the pastor of her church for many years. During this long pastorate she was always one of his congregation unless providentially hindered. She, often with her sainted husband, who preceded her to the better land, visited in my humble home. It was an inspiration for her to be with us. She was one who visited the sick and was always ready to help the needy and those in distress. Her religion was deep and abiding. She knew in whom she believed, not demonstrative but flowed on like a placid, murmuring brook, coming from the fountain head. She could always give a sufficient reason for the hope that was in her, often and always ready to give testimony for her Master. She was tried and not found wanting. During my pastoral time at her church, sometimes I would become discouraged, and have often sought her counsel, and with words of strong and unwavering faith, she would always lift the burden and light through her would come.

What more can I say for Sister Underwood has grasped her harp and left us all in tears. She has gone over the last hill top on life's dusty road, gone around the bend on life's highway. She can come here no more until she comes to gather up her sleeping dust on the resurrection morn.

To her chdren she has left a goodly heritage, that of a Christian life and a triumphant death. I have no doubt that she saw the pearly gates open wide, and heard that glad welcome, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of thy Lord." So we planted her beside him who walked beside the dawn of the isle of bygone years and saw him fade and vanish through a mist of falling tears.

Then mother, sister, neighbors, we bid you goodby for only a little while. Just look for us, we are struggling up the hill of life and hope to meet on its top in the sweet bye and bye.

J. M. COLEY.

IN MEMORY.

Gordon Scott, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Napolean Scott, was born Feb. 24, 1899, died Feb. 26, 1920, being 21 years, one month and two days old at the time of his death.

He was married to Mary Massey Jan. 6th, 1918, and to this union were born two children, one of which survives him. Brother Gordon Scott leaves to mourn his absence a wife and one child, besides other relatives and a host of friends.

Brother Scott professed a hope in Christ and united himself with Corinth Baptist church, of which he was a member at the time of his death.

We would say, to the bereaved companion and relatives, "Weep not, for death is only a dream to those who put their trust in God."

Let his death be a saving grace to all who knew him and loved him. May the loving kindness of God hover around the bereaved wife sisters and relatives. May this sad dispensation of Providence draw us all nearer to God, and be prepared to meet death when it comes.

His funeral was conducted by Rev. B. H. Howard, and his body was laid to rest in Naomi cemetery, there to remain until the Lord descends from heaven when the dead in Christ shall rise again.

Our sympathies go out to the bereaved ones, but let us remember that the Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, and humbly submit to this sad, Providence and say: "Thy Will Be Done."

Done by order of the Conference at Corinth Baptist church.

GEO. WALKER KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

NEAR ROSSVILLE LAST MONDAY MORNING—GEORGE PETTIJOHN SERIOUSLY INJURED

As the result of an automobile accident yesterday morning shortly after 10 o'clock on Rossville boulevard near Chambers' store, George Walker, young farmer, of near Rock Springs, Ga., died yesterday afternoon at the post hospital, Ft. Oglethorpe, where he had been carried after the accident in an unconscious condition.

A companion, George Pettijohn, also of Rock Springs, is at the post hospital in a serious condition, but hospital authorities stated last night that chances were good for his recovery.

Walker and Pettijohn, according to information yesterday, were coming to Chattanooga on a motorcycle to attend the Labor day celebration at Warner park. Nearing Chambers' store they were met by two soldiers in a Dodge automobile coming from the city, the motorcycle and automobile running together at the curve beyond the store. The identity of the two soldiers could not be learned last night.

According to information at the post hospital, where Walker and Pettijohn were taken immediately after the accident, Walker's left leg was completely severed just below the knee as a result of being run over by the automobile. His skull was also fractured and he suffered internal injuries.

Pettijohn's injuries consist of a fractured leg and a number of scalp wounds. His left leg is fractured, hospital officials last night. Just below the hip. It is thought his injuries will not hinder his removal to his home near Rock Springs either today or tomorrow.

Just what was responsible for the accident could not be learned last night, except the statement of an officer at Fort Oglethorpe that both parties were speeding. The two soldiers in the government car carried Walker and Pettijohn to the hospital. It was said and offered every possible assistance. Walker died about 5:20 o'clock.—Tuesday's Times.

IN MEMORY.

We as an authorized committee of the church, wish to write to the memory of our departed sister, Mrs. Lullia Edwards, the following memento:

On April 10, 1920, sister Edwards was called on by the Great Life Giver, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, to give up her mental and physical labours here below, and journey with Him to that great beyond, where she, through faith, walks the realization of a life greater than the one which she has ceased to live.

Sister Edwards was born in Cherokee county, Ga., on Oct. 13, 1853. In 1900 she became the wife of C. F. Edwards, and to this union were born eleven children, four of which preceded her to the grave to await the [illegible] and seven of which remain [illegible] faithful companion of an industrious and home-providing husband, sharing with him the pleasures and trials of this life, helping him to raise and counsel the children intrusted to their care and guidance.

In Nov. 1905 Sister Edwards moved with her husband and family from Cherokee County to that of Walker County, where she resided until death called her away.

In Sister Edwards we feel that Walker county has lost one of its best women; Mr. Edwards, a good wife and her children a good and loving mother, and her church a member of whom it was proud.

We would to say to the bereaved ones: "Weep not, as those who have no hope."

We will quote John the revelator, who was directed by the Spirit to write: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

J. W. Cornelison,
J. M. Fricks,
R. H. Gilbreath,
Committee.

IN MEMORIAM.

On the 13th of November, 1919, our brother, H. C. McWilliams finished his earthly course and went back to his Father.

He was born Jan. 19, 1847, and he was married to Susan Bomar on the 20th day of Jan. 1870.

Of the four children born to them, three lived until last year, when the angel of death came and claimed the daughter, Mrs. R. E. Talley. The bereaved wife and two sons, F. L. and G. B. McWilliams and eight grandchildren are left to mourn his departure.

Never have we seen a deeper devotion than existed in this union.

Although feeble in health the wife of his youth was constantly at his side ministering unto him and comforting him through his long and painful sickness.

In the passing of our beloved out church has sustained a loss that we feel cannot be filled.

He was quiet and unassuming, at the same time he was a strong advocate for right and all that stood for the forwarding of Christ's kingdom on earth.

His life is truly an inspiration, not only to his children and grand children, but to all who knew him.

And we can say of him, this: "He spoke no evil of his fellowman." And he, who keepeth his tongue keepeth his soul.

May our Father out of the abundance of His loving kindness and tender mercy, so fill the hearts of the bereaved with His Holy Spirit that they may bow in humble submission to Him who does all things well.

And may this sad dispensation of Providence be the means of drawing us nearer to God, and strengthen the tie of brotherly love among us—until we, too, shall join our departed brother around the White Throne of God, where there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, for God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes.

"Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance shall be given,
All of our sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven."

OBITUARY

On September 12, 1919 a beautiful life was ended when God called our beloved sister, Mrs. D. L. Griffith to her Heavenly home. In early life Sister Griffith accepted Jesus as her Saviour and joined the Baptist church, being a member at the time of her death of the East Armuchee church.

In weaving the web of life she wove virtuousness in every thread of life. Never doubting her conversion, so she was a happy trusting Christian ever ready to give of her best to the Master's service. Her life was known to all to be one of usefulness and thoughtfulness to others, and the peaceful and implicit faith that characterized her life was shown in her last long illness.

Her cordial hospitality made her a favorite among her relatives and friends so that many felt the direct influence of her Christian life, and too, she was a character to the old sturdy womanhood that is fast passing away whose place will not be filled.

Sister Griffith was Miss Darcus Lucinda Keith before her marriage to Mr. Tom Griffith thirty one years ago. She was born Feb 10 1858. She is survived by her husband and a large number of relatives.

Funeral services were conducted from East Armuchee church by her nephew, Rev. M. L. Keith while a duet "Death is Only A Dream" was sweetly rendered by her niece and nephew Mr. J. W. Keith and Miss Lila Keith.

Resolved that we extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones and that a copy of this memorandum be sent to the husband and a copy be placed on our church record.

IN MEMORY

Another jewel has been placed among numberless gems on the other shore to brighten, to sweeten, to make Heaven nearer and dearer to us. This jewel as name implies was Sister Elizabeth Roper and wife of Bro. J. M. Roper, mother of Jim and John Roper, Mrs. Susan Hammontree and Joyce Hewitt.

She was born Jan. 16, 1843 and died January 29, 1920 was married to J. M. Roper, Jan. 13, 1861. She united with the Friendship Baptist church 40 years ago where she was a consecrated Christian.

A vacant place will be in her home and church but a bright light will shine in Heaven.

We shall miss her but we shall meet her
There will be one vacant chair
But we shall linger to caress her
When we say our evening prayer.

Be it resolved that we as members of Friendship church extend to the family our tenderest sympathy, and that a copy of this be placed on our church record and a copy sent to the county paper for publication.

IN MEMORY

On the morning of March 23, 1920 the Gentle Spirit of our friend and brother took its flight to his home not made with hands. Brother Fulmer was born Oct. 16, 1873; on March 24, 1901, he was united in marriage to Miss Dora Pierce, who, with eight children, survive him. Brother Fulmer professed a hope in Christ at an early age, and united with the Chattooga Baptist church, and lived a consistent member until his death.

Brother Fulmer was in declining health for several years but bore his afflictions with great patience. He often told his loved ones he was ready to go, and the Lord's will be done.

To his wife, children, sister, father, and stepmother, who were so dear to him, our deep and sincere sympathy is extended to them in their sad bereavement.

Though he is gone the memory of him shall live. It has been our privilege to know him from childhood, he was a good son, husband, father and neighbor. Those who came in contact with him were made to feel that it was a privilege to know him. His friends were numbered by his acquaintances.

Resolved.

1st. That while our hearts are sad, we bow in humble submission to him, well knowing that he doeth all things well.

2nd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our church; one sent to the family and one sent to the Messenger for publication.

Infant of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blaylock Passes Away

Little Mildred Louise, who came to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blaylock Nov. 1st was too pure and precious in our Savior's sight to stay long, so on Friday, Nov 5th, she went to be with Jesus.

While we miss her, we are resigned to His will, and feel comforted to know we have a precious babe in heaven.

She was only a flower,
Lent but not given,
To bud on earth
And bloom in Heaven.

Card of Thanks

Words fail to express our gratitude and appreciation to our many friends for their acts of kindness and words of consolation after the death of our little darling Mildred. May God reward each as He sees best is the wish of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blaylock.

TRIBUTE TO W. F. PICKLE

Ed. Messenger:

Will you permit me space in your paper to give a brief account of Brother W. F. Pickle who died at his home at Rising Fawn, Ga., Saturday night, October 8th. Brother Pickle was the only son of Mrs. Nettie Dougherty Pickle, and was born in Cherokee county, Alabama, Oct. 2, 1856, and was 64 year and seven days old at his death. At the age of 15, he professed faith in Christ and was baptised into the fellowship of Mt. Bethel church, by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Glazner. He was married to Miss Ellen Josephine Glazner, the eldest daughter of Rev. J. H. Glazner, Dec. 29, 1875. To this union four children were born; three daughters and one son, the son dying when only a small child; the daughters are still living: Mrs. Emma Hall, Mrs. Alice Gilbert, and Miss Bessie Pickle.

Brother Pickle was made a Mason in Broomtown Lodge, in Alabama, as soon as he had reached the full age of 21 years, and was a loyal citizen, a true Mason and a leader in the work of his denomination in the community in which he lived.

For more than thirty years he was a regular attendant at the Coosa Association without missing a single meeting, and was always loyal to the cause of the denomination. For more than thirty years he was a regular suscriber to the Christian Index and stood for the objects fostered by his denomination. He was a leader in the church work in his community, and always stood for civic righteousness and everybody knew where he stood on all moral questions.

On October 11th, he was buried from the Rising Fawn Baptist church, his pastor Brother Smith, and the Methodist pastor, Brother Henderson, conducting the funeral services and the burial service being conducted at the grave by the Masonic Fraternity, in the presence of a large congregation.

Truly a good man has fallen and his work has been ended here upon this earth, but his influence will live in the hearts of his family and a large host of friends during the coming days. We extend to his family our sympathy, and realize that his place cannot be filled and that there is only one to whom they can go for consolation in an hour such as this.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of little Fred Mercers who was called from earth to Heaven on the 29th day of March, 1920.

Little Fred was only spared 17 months in this old sinful world and God saw that he was to innocent and pure to live here so he snatched him from earth to Heaven.

It reminds me of the way Jesus left this world just caught up in a cloud and carried to Heaven. Little Fred did'nt have to suffer as he was taken from earth in the twinkling of an eye.

We can't understand why he wandered off down to the railroad but God does. We say little Fred was by himself but no he was not, God was with him right by his side and some day we'll understand why he was taken so suddenly and then we will rejoice that he is waiting in Heaven for the loved ones left behind.

When we saw Fred the last time his body was all bruised and mangled but now he is standing at Heaven's gates smiling just as we always found him here on earth. He always had a smile for everyone, his few months here on earth resembled a little flower just budding out.

Little Fred was just budding here to bloom in Heaven and mother and if you will only live a life as pure as little Fred's was it won't be long until you can go to live with him. For we know just where to find him, just inside the Golden Gates.

A precious one from us was taken
A voice we loved is still
A place in our home was made vacant
Which never will be filled.

A FRIEND.

CAPT. J. N. STEELE MEETS TRAGIC DEATH

AT FORT OGLETHORPE IN POLO GAME — UNTIMELY DEATH DEEPLY MOURNED BY COMRADES, RELATIVES AND FRIENDS

Capt. John Newton Steele, of the Sixth United States cavalry, was accidentally killed Sunday afternoon at Fort Oglethorpe while engaged in a polo game. Capt. Steele, who was an expert polo player, and who had won several trophies for his playing in the Phillipines, was engaged in a game when the horse of a brother officer collided with his horse, the impact bowling both horse and rider over. Capt. Steele was pinned under the shoulder of his own horse, receiving a skull fracture, which resulted in almost instant death. He was rushed to the Post hospital where he died within an hour, never regaining consciousness.

At the funeral services at the Post residence, high military honors were accorded Capt. Steele, Tuesday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock. After the brief services at the residence, conducted by Rev. B. F. Guille, who touchingly paid a beautiful tribute to the life and character of the deceased, the funeral procession was formed. Capt. Steele's own organization, Troop M, mounted and escorted his body from Ft. Oglethorpe to Chattanooga from where it was sent to Rome. Members of Troop I fired a three-volley salute over the hearse bearing Capt. Steele's body as the funeral cortege reached the Post gates and as the procession cleared the Post grounds, taps were sounded.

Capt Steele was born in Rome, Ga., March 30, 1891, being 26 and one-half years of age. He was a natural military man, securing his training at Gordon Institute, Barnesville, Ga., where he was major of instruction for four years. He was appointed lieutenant in the regular army in 1915 and was sent to the Phillipine Islands where he was stationed with the Phillipine constabulary and soon after was placed in charge of the Ninth cavalry there. In the Phillipines he rose to the rank of a Captain. Two years ago he married Miss Beulah Bale, and a few months ago came back to the States, where he was stationed at Ft. Oglethorpe. Most of his boyhood days were spent at LaFayette, where his death today is deeply mourned by this entire community.

Surviving him are his wife, and one son, John Newton, Jr., his pa-

OBITUARY

The angel of death has again visited our community and claimed our Sister Miss Ella Lail.

She was born Aug. 16, 1874 and departed this life April 2, 1920, and was a consistent member of the Wood Station Baptist church.

She was a invalid for several years but she bore it with Christian fortitude. She often spoke of her hope that she had in her Heavenly home, but she said she could not understand why the Lord let her lay and suffer so long, as she was ready and waiting when the summons come.

She lived an humble Christian life. She was good and kind to the sick. She leaves a host or relatives and friends to mourn her departure

We would say to her loved ones weep not for she is now basking in sun light of God's love. And I heard a voice saying blessed are they who in the Lord. They shall rest from their labor and their works do follow them..

Therefore be it resolved first that we bow in humble submission, to the Almighty God who doeth all things well. Her hope was built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and Righteousness.

She dared not trust the sweetest frame,
But only leaned on Jeses' name
She shall sleep but not forever
There will be a glorious dawn
We shall meet to part no never
On the resurrection morn

Done in conference and signed by order of same.

IN MEMORY

Of Mrs. Anna Barfield who departed this life Sept. 6, 1920.

She was 31 years of age at the time of her death. About 4 years ago she professed a hope in Christ and joined the Methodist church at Harrisburg.

How we will miss her in our Sunday school no one knows but us. We will miss the smiles we always expected to see. How lonesome it will seem here with out her but let us prejare ourselves to meet her where there will be no more parting and no more tears.

Everyone that knew her loved her as she had a turn to make the young folks long to be with her. She was a friend to young girls.

She leaves a husband and four children to mourn her death. dev. Oscar Barfield, Roy, Ray, Emmet and J. Hugh, besides a host of relatives and friends.

We would say to the bereaved companion and children: "Weep not for death is only a dream to those who put their trust in God." May the loving kindness of God hover around the bereaved husband and children. May this hour of sadness draw us nearer to God and be prepared to meet death when it comes.

NEAL—CAMP

A wedding of unusual interest and brilliancy was consumated at the Christian church, London, Ky., Tuesday, November 16th., at high noon, when, Rev. Price Christian, pastor of the church, joined in wedlock, Miss William Bettie Neal and Mr. Earl Franklin Camp.

The church was beautifully decorated with lighted candles, and ferns and was crowded with invited guests to witness the ceremony. One hundred and sixty of the bride's former school pupils filed into their reserved section at the church.

Miss Lela Mason at the pipe organ rendered a musical program and the wedding march. The instrumental numbers were: "A Perfect Day" and D'Voak's "Humeresque. Miss Sallie Vincent Pennington, a charming friend of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly." She was beautifully gowned in rose satin, jet and ostrich tips with a picture hat to match.

The party entered to the strains of Lohengrins' wedding march. Mendelsohn's wedding march was used as the recessional. During the ceremony "Traumrai" was softly rendered.

The bride looked beautiful in white satin with veil and pearls, the latter the gift of the groom. She carried a large bouquet of orchids and white bride's roses, showered with awansonia.

The matron of honor, Mrs. W. S. Strachan of Berea, Ky., sister of the bride, wore baby blue satin and white tulle and carried a shower of pink roses. Her hat was of white georgette and blue satin daintily touched with pink.

Miss Cecil Camp of Chickamauga, cousin of the groom, wore blue taffeta with brown net and carried a gorgeous bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Her hat was a picture hat of pan velvet and monkey fur.

The bride's maids, little Misses Sue Thompson and Mary Eberhart, were dressed in white and pink and carried gilded baskets of pink chrysanthemums.

Mr. Ashley Jewel of Chickamauga was best man.

Messrs. Ed Hackney and Raymond Poynter, both of London, Ky., were the ushers, and Master Jimmie Sipple dressed in blue velvet was ring bearer.

Little Ann Strachan, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was fairy like in white net ruffles and pink chiffon bonnet.

The ceremony was beautiful and impressive. Dr. H. V. Pennington, a prominent surgeon and uncle of the bride, gave her away, the bride and groom standing under a beautiful arch and wedding bell, the gift of the ladies of the Christian church Sunday school.

The Episcopal service was closed with a blessing, following a beautiful prayer, prayed while the bride and groom knelt on a hand-painted pillow of white satin.

Immediately after the wedding a buffet luncheon was served to the bridal party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Pennington. The bride and groom left on an afternoon train for points north but have now returned to Chickamauga, Ga., to make their home, where the groom is engaged in the wholesale feed business.

The bride is a charming young lady, possessing a sunny disposition, and has a host of friends who wish her the utmost joy and happiness in her married life.

The groom is one of our best citizens and one who gave agreat sacrifice to his country during our recent war. He has friends wherever he goes and all wish him success and happiness in this new life he has begun.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding was Miss Mary Elizabeth Elder of Chickamauga.

We might add that the gods showered their blessings upon the happy couple, for they were married in five inches of snow and the snow never ceased to fall throughout the day. It was a "Perfect Day" to the eyes as well as in the hearts of all.

J. Fletcher Smith Aged 94 Passes To His Reward

WAS A PROMINENT CITIZEN OF THE COUNTY, HIGHLY ESTEEMED AND LOVED BY THOSE WHO KNEW HIM—FUNERAL WEDNESDAY MORNING

The news of the death of J. Fletcher Smith at the home of his son, S. H. Smith, at Kensington, Monday morning at 11 o'clock came as a shock to the people of Walker county.

Mr. Smith for the past few years has been in declining health and though death might have been expected at any time, his passing nevertheless, is a shock.

He was 94 years of age, and was only preceded to the grave, last Sunday, by his wife, who died as a result from a fall last Wednesday, Nov. 24th.

Surviving him are four children, two daughters—Mrs. Roxana Hicks, of Cedar Grove, and Mrs. Mary A. McFadden, of Oklahoma; two sons—S. R. Smith, of Kensington and Alex H. Smith, of Chillicothe, Tex.

Mr. Smith was a loyal veteran of the Civil war, serving throughout the entire four years, and Walker never sent to the conflict a braver or truer wearer of the gray. For many years after the war he served as a member of the county commissioners, being the chairman for several terms. He was an ardent member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and was an elder at the time of his passing. He was one of the oldest if not the oldest mason in the county, and was a member of the A. F. Leet lodge at Kensington at the time of his demise. He had the distinction of helping to organize and being the first president of the Walker county Sunday school convention, and his interest in the Sunday school and church work never abated. His interest in young life was peculiarly marked, and many Walker county citizens can recall the good advise, the splendid example and the benediction of "Uncle Fletcher" as he was lovingly called by those close to him.

A community builder, a promoter of all good works, honest from the heart, gentle and kind, an encourager and comforter to the young and old, Walker county in his death, has lost one of her very best citizens, the Cedar Grove community a friend indeed, the members of the family a loving and faithful father, whose example is full worthy of emulation.

His death is a distinct loss, but his influence and memory will be a benediction as the years roll by.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock from Antioch Baptist church, at Cedar

LEE

On last Friday night somewhere near eleven o'clock the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wilson and took from them Janie, who for something near two years has suffered with that dreadful disease consumption. We are all made to feel very sad indeed, as Janie was just in the bloom of life, being about seventeen years of age.

Up until about three weeks ago, she kept going, thinking that she could wear the disease out, but she had to give it up.

Janie bore her suffering without any complaint. She talked a lot about how glad she would be if she could only get well. Janie was as true a Christian girl as could be found, no one ever saw her make an awkward step. She leaves a good Christian father and mother and a well-respected set of children for whom the heartfell sympathy of the entire community goes out to. Rev. Harrison preached the funeral services and Janie was laid to rest at Wesley Chapel last Sunday at 11. May the Lord bless the family is our prayer.

Friends here of J. W. Pitts will be grieved to learn of his death at his home at Summerville Tuesday night after an illness of several months. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Summerville Baptist church.

Local cotton marked Thursday morning, 14 cents.

IN MEMORY

Of our dear little Fleta Thompson, who was born Feb. 10, 1919, and departed this life July 18, 1920.

In the still twilight of Sunday morning, at the hour of two, the death angel visited this earth and took the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thompson.

God in his infinite wisdom saw fit to take little Fleta from this world of sin and sorrow, to a better world where there would be no more suffering and pain. She was only sick a short while and she bore her sufferings without a murmur. She was loved by all who knew her. Weep dear father and mother for little Fleta is at rest in that Heavenly home above.

Her little body was laid to rest in the local cemetery, funeral services being conducted by Rev. B. H. Howard. She leaves a father and mother, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss

Sleep on dear one and take thy rest,
We loved you but God loved you best.
The beautiful gates were open,
Those beautiful gates of pearl,
As she crossed over that river,
To live in that beautiful world.

Therefore be it resolved: 1st that we extend to her bereaved family our deepest sympathy; 2nd. That as an expression of our love, a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family and to the Messenger for publication.

LIBEL FOR DIVORCE

Georgia, Walker County.

Hattie Jackson Glanton vs Elbert Glanton.

Walker superior court, February term, 1921. Libel for Divorce.

To Elbert Glanton, defendant: You are hereby commanded to be and appear at the next term of the Superior court of said county, to be held on the third Monday in February, 1921, and make your answer in the above-named and stated case, as required by the order of said court.

Witness the Honorable Moses Wright, Judge of the Superior Court this 8th day of Nov. 1920.

J. L. ROWLAND, Clerk.

EDNA PAULINE STEPHENS.

On July 5th, 1920, God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to claim another jewel for His heavenly home in the person of Edna Pauline Stephens, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stephens.

Edna was born March 2nd, 1909, and departed this earth July 5th, 1920. She was an amiable girl. Her high and noble traits of character made those who knew her love and admire her quiet and noble life. Her whole life was as pure as the purest of the lillies.

She was indeed kind and affectionate in disposition. So tender, so kind and so sympathetic. The family's devotion to her was truly beautiful. Her ever wish was anticipated. But alas! The kind administrations of loved ones and the efforts of skilled physicians could not stay the ebbing tide of her life. God wanted her for an angel of glory instead of a helper on earth.

Just a short time before her death, when she was suffering so intensely she said she wanted her papa, mamma and brother to come to heaven to see her.

We meet no more on earth the generous, warm-hearted little daughter, sister, and friend, but we know that if we live aright, that we will clasp hands with Edna in the Great Beyond, for she loved the house of God, and studied His word daily and showed by walk and conversation that she was a possessor of that light that makes glad the garden of the heart.

Faithful, true, good, lovable, and gentlehearted, she will be long and deeply mourned. Tender friendship bows its head in sadness and as the clods of the valley resound upon the coffin, tears fall and mingle with the flowers that mark her mortal resting place.

The remains were interred in the Coulter graveyard; and a number of friends attested their respect for her memory by attending the last sad rites of her remains.

The golden gates were open wide,
A gentle voice said, "Come!"
And angels from the other side
Welcomed our loved one home."

Her teacher,
J. G. TATUM.

IN MEMORY

Another bright jewel has been placed in Heaven. This jewel as name implies was Mrs. Lucy Travillian. She was born Jan. 10, 1847 and died June 3, 1920. She professed a hope in Christ in April 1865, and was baptised by her father, J. D. Clark and united with Ebenezer Baptist church and in later years she joined the Friendship Baptist church, where she remained a faithful member until her death.

She was married to J. M. Travillian Sept. 16, 1866. They were blessed with eight children, all are living but one. She leaves 7 children to mourn her loss and a host of friends and relatives, her sister, Mrs. F. A. Carroll, Dalton, Ga., 3 sons, Will, Henry and John, 5 daughters, Mrs. L. L. Moulton, Mrs. Bob Pangle, Mrs Thos. Hall, Mrs. Knox Strickland and Mrs. J. C. Phillips.

She was sick 5 months. She was ready and willing to die. She will be greatly missed in her home and church.

Children weep not for she is not dead but sleeping.

Be it resolved, that we as members of Friendship Baptist church extend to the bereaved families our tenderest sympathies, and a record of this be placed on our church record and a copy sent to the county

Notice hereby given that I will pass on said application at my office in LaFayette, said county on the first Monday in January next. Given under my hand and official signature, this Dec. 6, 1920.

W. L. STANSELL, Ordinary.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Uncle J. F. Smith and wife In our young manhood days it was our pleasure to board quite awhile in their pleasant home and I can say truthfully that in their deaths Walker county has lost two of its best citizens Outside of the inspiration given us by our own dear parents the advice of no others has been more helpful to us than that of Uncle Fletcher and Aunt Roxanna Smith. Many times in his talks at the Sunday school Association of which he was president so long, have we heard him say, while others were depositing their treasures in banks, he was depositing his treasures in a bank on the other side. We are satisfied that now he and his faithful partner are now able to draw checks on the inexhaustible treasure. Since we first knew Uncle Fletcher, 38 years ago, most of the old settlers of Cedar Grove have passed to their reward, such as Capt. J. Y. Wood, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evatt, Mr. and Mrs. Seab Weathers, Mr. and Chas. Evatt, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Forester, Mr. and Mrs. Ed White, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Mira Evatt, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Talley, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Moore, Mr and Mrs Sandy Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Cass Camp and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rowland and others whom we have forgotten. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bell still reside at Cedar Grove or Trickum as it is called.

Peace to the ashes of all of them.

J. B. Dovers is smiling over the arrival of a ten pound boy who came to brighten their home a few days ago.

OBITUARY

On the evening of May 23, God in his infinite wisdom removed from our midst Sister Fannie Jones, who was born Dec. 29, 1867. She professed a hope in Christ at the age of 16 years and united with the Wood Station Baptist church and had been a devoted member until God called her to dwell with the angels above She said she was ready whenever called.

She was the mother of eleven children, four having preceded her to the great beyond. She leaves a husband, five sons and two daughters to mourn her loss.

We would say, "Weep not dear husband and children she cannot come back to us, but we can live so as to meet her." She was a good wife a devoted mother, a kind neighbor, and a true friend. She always had a smile and kind word for everyone.

May God be with us till we meet. And behold our dear one in Heaven so sweet.

Resolved that we extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved husband and children and relatives and pray that God who never leaves nor forsakes his own will comfort them in their hour of sorrow.

IN MEMORY

On May 29, 1920 death came as a great relief to Bro. Jerry Burns. He had been suffering for many years from a cancer on his face. I visited Bro. Burns very often and I always found him with a strong hope in Christ. He loved to talk of his home Heaven. Amidst all his sufferings he would sing and pray and rejoice and wish for the time when he could depart from this life.

By request of Bro. Burns, I will write a short history of his life.

Bro. Burns was born March 8,1842, and was married to Mrs. Amanda C. Day, January 22, 1867. He had one step daughter and 9 children of his own. The step daughter and 4 children preceded him leaving 5 children and the dear old mother to mourn his loss, with a host of friends and relatives.

Bro. Burns was 78 years old. In 1861 he volunteered to fight for his country in the Civil war and joined Capt. Frank Long's. Co. H. 23 Reg. in west Armuchee and stayed with him till 1862. Jack Hazlerig took his place on the 17th day of Sept. 1862. Hazlerig was killed on the battlefield at Sharpsburg, Md., Reece B. Neal, took his place and stayed until the Surrender. Bro. Burns said he never missed a roll call durlog the war.

His mother had to him make her a promise before he left home that he would not drink or gamble or keep bad company. This promise he said he kept true.

Bro. Burns was converted in 1874 and united with the Methodist. In 1874. He was a steward in the church for 41 years. He was not only a soldier for his country but a soldier for his God, fighting for the prize of the high calling of God. In Christ Jesus therefore he had laid up treasure in Heaven. From these treasures came blessings more and more precious than gold. From these treasures came blessings that have never been told.

The funeral services were conducted by B. H. Howard and Van B. Harrisbn, at Wesleys Chapel after which the body was carried to the cemetery and laid beneath the sod, where it will remain until it hears the voice of the son of God and then it will come forth an incorruptible body then he will put on that starry crown that he said so much about.

Then I would say to his friends and love ones weep not as those who have no hope for he is not dead but sleepeth.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth, yea saytth the spirit that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

B. H. HOWARD.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. W. H. SANDERS.

On March 2, 1920, as the sun was sinking in the west the death angel glided into our home and bore away the sweet spirit of our dear mother.

She was sick 4 long months, but bore her sufferings with much patience. All that doctors could do was done, but nothing seemed to conquer her disease, for God saw fit to take out of this world of sin and sorrow into a better one

So God sent His angel and carried her away on the wings of love to that house not made with hands.

She professed faith in Christ in early life and joined the Methodist church at Boyington Ga., where she remained until her death. Mother was 53 years old at the time of her death and was the mother of 4 children, 2 boys and 2 girls one of whom preceded her to that better world 16 years ago.

She was always ready to lend a helping hand to the widows and orphans and administer to those in the time of need

She had toiled a long time in this old world of troubles and trials. But now her troubles and sufferings are over and she has gone to join the angel band.

She leaves a husband, 3 children, 3 brothers and 2 sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her passing away.

Tis hard to break the tender chord
Where love has bound the heart.
Tis so hard to speak the word,
We must forever part.

IN MEMORY

Sovereigns of woodcraft a sturdy tree has fallen in our midst. The entire community was shocked when the news came to us Oct. 20, 1920, that Robert Wilson Moore had happened to a fatal auto accident.

While driving his car the steering gear went wrong his car became uncontrollable, running him into a telegraph pole and resulting in his death in a very few hours. He was immediately rushed to the hospital where all aid that man-kind could give was given but the Supreme ruler saw fit to call him away from the busy scenes of life to follow his dear mother whom God had called when Robert was a small boy.

Robert Moore was born in LaFayette, Oct. 29, 1894 and was 26 years old at the time of his death. He leaves a father and one brother besides a host of friends and relatives to mourn his death.

He will be missed as a citizen, as he was quiet and law abiding and peaceful. As a sovereign in Maple camp no 310 of which he was a member having joined Nov. 7, 1919, we can truly say that Bob was true to every tenet of the order, always willing to respond to whatever he was called upon to do, willing to help in any way to carry on the work of the camp or to help lift a distressed sovereign and he shall not be forgotten by his fellow sovereign as kind acts and pleasant words shall be treasured as priceless gems which our minds will love to dwell in the fondest and most sacred recollections. He has fulfilled his earthly destiny, the stern, hard battle of life has been fought, and life a true woodman he has never surrendered to any obstacles of his duty.

Let us pause and reflect upon the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death; like the wink of an eye or draught of the breath he was snatched away from the blossom of health to the paleness of death. The considerate mind to design and the willing hands to execute are powerless for their task today.

When about 13 years of age Robt. made a profession of faith but had never united with any church.

When the world war began he was among the first to be sent over to help fight for the rights of others, and for life and liberty. He was enrolled in service about May 1, 1918, and was a member of the 101 Engineers Co. A Y. D. Div., and was held in service until April 4th 1919 giving 11 months service to help the cause of suffering humanity.

Funeral services were held at the local Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. I. S. Leonard assisted by Rev. J. W. On Oct. 6th 1920 the death angel made its visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Keown and softly bore the sweet spirit of their little girl away to Heaven.

Ninna Lee was born Nov. 25, 1916 and died Oct. 6th 1920. She was only with them a short time and she was too pure for this world so God took her to dwell with him.

She had only been ill a few days when the messenger came that was to convey her spotless soul into the presence of God.

We extend our tendernat sympathy to her parents and commend them for consolation to him whose grace is sufficient for all.

'Tis sad that from our midst she was taken.
Our darling whom we loved so well
But yet tis sweet to know that now
In Heaven with God she dwells.
We miss her tender voice and love
As each day passes by.
Whatever we do, where'er we rove
We pray to meet on high.

Just as a new day was dawning on Oct. 30, the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Montgomery and took from them their niece Lena Lumpkin.

Lena was one of the brightest jewels of her grand fathers home I would say to grand father Hatfield weep not for she is at rest but live so you can meet your loved ones in the home not made with hands.

She leaves to mourn her loss, a grand father and several uncles and aunts. Her father, mother and sister have gone on before.

Lena was always patient daring fear to do as if to say, "All is swell, fear to die, as if to say, "All is well my savior with me." Lena was kind and loving, and always had a kind word for everybody.

Lord keep her near thy throne.
Within thy tender keeping.
Till we shall cross the sunset bar
Thy blessed kingdom seeking.
We would not question thee,
Or doubt thy wisdom in bereaving
And if 'tis wrong to weep for her
Then O forgive the grieving.

Of J. A. Eaton who departed this life Sept. 18th, at the home of his son Edgar. He had been in failing health about three months but complained very little. His children with whom he spent his last months did not realize his time on earth was so short. He was only confined to his bed five days. When he realized he was growing weaker he was very anxious to go to Edgars.

Everything was done that could be done for him. He gave his children sweet assurance that he was in peace with God and man. Being an old soldier he talked to Maude of the coming reunion in Texas but said our reunions here on earth will soon be over. We will soon be all gone. He was 74 years old.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of his son's by Rev. Hudson and his body was laid to rest in the Methodist cemetery in Ball Ground, Ga., beneath a mound of flowers and by the side of a grand child.

He is survived by three children, Mrs. Maude Williams, of Alton Park, Tenn., Mrs. Homer Stanfield, of LaFayette and Edgar of Ball Ground, Ga., several grandchildren and great grand children. Maude and Edgar were with him when he died. He looked so peaceful in death. Us children now have mother, father and sister waiting for us over there.

GRIM REAPER CLAIMS MRS. T. A. JACKSON

WAS DAUGHTER OF THE LATE CAPT. A. R. STEELE—FUNERAL SERVICES MONDAY MORNING AT 10:30

Mrs. Mary Steele Jackson, wife of T. A. Jackson, and daughter of the late Capt. A. R. Steele, died at her home on Cherokee Ave., Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one sister, Mrs. P. D. Fortune, and two brothers, Capt. W. H. Steele, of Washington, D. C., and R. S. Steele, of this city.

Mrs. Jackson was frail of body and was afflicted practically all of her life, but only this year her health gave signs of rapid decline, and the last few months it was clearly seen that her strength was rapidly diminishing and that she could not live very much longer. The devotion of her husband was beautiful. During her long affliction he was so kind and tender, and everything possible was done for her comfort and happiness. He never seemed to tire of his ministry, with unfeigned affection he did all that mortal man could do to help make her burdens lighter.

During all her illness, Mrs. Jackson exemplified a wonderful Christian fortitude; she bore her sufferings bravely, belitting her strong Christian faith. She was fearless in what she thought was right, and with her hypocrisy, was the great evil. Endowed with a generous heart and with impulses to do good, she bestowed blessings oftentimes of which the world knew nothing. She loved little children, and the warmth and constancy of her unaffected friendship was felt most by those who were closest to her. And her death is mourned today.

Several months ago she realized the end was near, and she made arrangements for the day of her burial. "My Faith Looks Up To Thee," was the song, and the 14th chapter of John was the passage, and at her own request the following friends acted as pallbearers: Dr. J. H. Hammond, Dr. E. M. Osborne, Dr. D. W. Herndon, F. M. Shaw, W. H. Shaw and S. A. Hunt.

Funeral services were held from the residence Monday morning at 10:30, conducted by Rev. B. F. Guille, assisted by Rev. J. W. Brunsfield, in the presence of a number of relatives and intimate friends. The floral tributes were beautiful tokens of esteem. Following the service at the residence, the body was carried to the cemetery and lowered to its last resting place.

HAMMOND-McKOWN WEDDING BEAUTIFUL EVENT OF DECEMBER 22.

The wedding of Miss Maude Hammond and Mr. William E. McKown was a beautiful event taking place at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 22nd at 3:30 o'clock.

The church was attractively decorated for the occasion with potted plants, Christmas greens and cut flowers. The windows were darkened and a wonderfully impressive effect was given by numbers of cathedral candles lighted about the altar, in front of which hung an immense wedding bell of white and green.

A delightful musical program was rendered, Miss Foye Rhyne singing "At Dawning," just before the ceremony.

The wedding party preceded by the ushers Mr. Tom Rhyne and Mr Harry Center, entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March rendered by Miss Susie Hammond. The maid of honor, Miss Ruth Hammond, entered alone, the bride coming in on the arm of her father, Mr. C. J. Hammond, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. W. A. Enloe.

Rev. L. S. Leonard was the officiating minister, and during the very impressive ring ceremony, Miss Hammond played "Traumerei." Mendelssohn's March and the march from Tanhauser were played as the party left the church.

The bride was most attractive in her traveling suit of midnight blue tricoline with brown hat, shoes and gloves. Her bouquet was of brides' roses and valley lilies. The maid of honor was becomingly gowned in rose Georgette crepe over black satin, with large black picture hat, and her flowers were pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McKown left on a short wedding trip and are now at home to their friends at the home of Mrs. J. R. Little.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hammond and popular with a wide circle of friends, while the groom is a young business man of sterling character, and holds a responsible position with the Consolidated Textile Corporation.

IN MEMORY

O. E. W. C. [illegible]
July 28, 1868 at [illegible] Ga. and died at Kensington Ga. Jan. 26 1921
With the exception of [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] Methodist Church.

Endowed by nature with an unusually vigorous mind he entered the mercantile business before he reach of the years of [illegible] making that his business he gained recognition as one of the leading merchants and business men of the county. But being an active business man was only a small part of Bro. Lott's real worth. He became a member of the Baptist church when 22 years of age and in 1903 became a member of our church. He was ever ready to help the cause of either.

His manhood is emphasized by our broadness of thought our sterling worth as a citizen our daily walks and acts our devotion to our God our country and our fellowmen. Bro. Lott was ever ready to be a good hearer of his church a citizen was patriotic to the core, thoughtful of his family and always appreciative and kind to his friends.

The ones knowing him best were the ones to appreciate him most, the the ones who talked with him most are the ones who recall most clearly his deepest convictions to Christ, his loyalty to honesty and truthfulness.

So we as a fraternal order realize our loss as do lots of friends realize their loss but we are only able in a small way to realize what the loss means to his immediate family.

Therefore we wish to express our deepest sympathy to the family and though he is gone we will ever feel the influence for good from having known him and realized as every man would live with the same thought in mind that Bro. Lott demonstrated each day "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you" we would all be nearer Christ and as in his case enjoyed the more when we have gone to our reward when the dust are given their dues and we are free from all earthly trials and tribulations.

We as the committee from A. L. Leet lodge no 266 F. & A. M. again express our sympathy to the family and ask that this memorial be published in the Walker County Messenger and a copy sent to the family, and entered on the minutes of the lodge.

BALE—DENMARK WEDDING

The marriage Wednesday afternoon Jan. 12th., at Rome, of Miss Helen Bale to Mr. Rufus Alexander Denmark, will be of interest to the many friends of the bride here and in this section. Following is the story of the wedding, published in Thursday's Rome Tribune Herald.

"A lovely wedding of yesterday afternoon was that of Miss Helen Latimer Bale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bale and Mr. Rufus Alexander Denmark which occurred at the home of the bride's parents.

"In the living room where the marriage took place an alcove was made of foliage plants and ferns. Silver candelabra which were the bride's great grandmother's lodge, white tapers stood on either side of the altar. Vases of pink roses narcissi and silver candle sticks holding pink unshaded candles were used on the mantel and book cases which were banked with smilax. Smilax and bamboo were also used to outline the window and door frames.

The bride entered through an arch way with her mother who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man Mr. T. Edgar Smith. The impressive ring ceremony was read by Dr. W. T. Irvine presiding elder of the Rome District.

The bride wore her traveling suit which was a new spring model of blue tricotine, hand-comely embroidered and opening over a blouse of blue georgette and Eclet lace. Her hat was of blue straw adorned with feathers of grey, and her shoes and gloves were of the same shade. Her only ornament was a platinum pin set with diamonds and sapphires, the gift of the groom. Her corsage was of bride's roses and valley lilies.

"Mrs. Bale, mother of the bride, wore a pretty toilet of black satin and lace with a purple hat. Her corsage was of Russell roses.

"An informal reception followed the ceremony. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Denmark left for points in South Georgia and upon their return will reside temporarily at the Lindale Inn."

IN MEMORY

Of Robt. Edwin Campbell who was born April 6, 1890 at High Point, Ga., and died Feb. 20, 1920 near Garrets Chapel. At the time of his death he was 29 years, 10 months and 15 days old. He leaves a wife and five small children father, mother, 3 brothers, 2 sisters and a host of friends and relatives far and near.

He professed faith in Christ six years before his death and joined M. E. Church at Garrets Chapel.

Truly a good man is gone but God knows best so we bow in humble submission to him. Thank God we do not sorrow as those who have no hope.

He suffered only nine days and all was done for him that loving hands could do but the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away so let us try to learn the lesson that he meant to teach in this sad event.

We miss Mr. Campbell in our community for he was always willing to help in anything.

He said he was ready to die and we are sure he is now resting with God.

John Lockharte Holleman Celebrates Ninth Birthday

At the residence of Mrs. I. H. Holleman on the afternoon of Jan. 13, there gathered a throng of happy girls and boys to celebrate the ninth anniversary of their popular little host, John Lockharte.

After enjoying many jolly games the little folks were shown into the dining room, which was prettily decorated in green and white.

The snowy birthday cake graced the center of the table surmounted with white lighted tapers, the puffing out of these minature candles affording the little guests much amusement.

Delicious cake and pink and white block ice cream was then served. After refreshments little Miss Eloise Johnston delighted all by reading, "The Night Before Christmas." Many pretty gifts were received by the happy little host.

IN MEMORY

On Sunday night Dec. 13, 1920 the death angel made its visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Del... and softly bore the spirit of their little son away to Heaven.

Varnell was born Nov. 4, 1918 and died Dec. 13, 1920. He was only with them a short time as he was too pure for this old world so God took him to dwell with him.

He had been sick only a few days when the messenger came that was to convey his spotless soul into the presence of God.

We extend our tenderest sympathy to father and mother and brothers and sisters.

Sleep on Varnell and take thy rest. We loved you,

But God loved you best.

GUSSIE SWAFFORD

IN MEMORIAM

At her home in West Armuchee Valley, on Sept. 2, 1920, Mrs. W. P. Blackwell went home to God after much suffering.

She is survived by her devoted husband and son. Her gentle and refined spirit was the embodiment of those beautiful graces which make up true womanhood.

Her home was her kingdom where she reigned with devotion and fidelity, unexcelled in housekeeping and abounding in hospitality. She truly loved her friends and found great joy in ministering in any way to the comfort of others. She glorified the home in which she dwelt. The heart of her husband trusted in her; she church was very dear to her, she loved its service and when able was a faithful attendant. She was deeply interested in its welfare and loyal and devoted to her pastor. She was always a help and comfort to them. Her life was rich in deeds of kindness and sympathy and her heart was full of charity, never speaking an unkind word to anyone.

The heritage of such a christian wife and mother is beyond estimation.

To the devoted husband who so lovingly and tenderly walked by her side comes the blessed hope of the life beyond where these broken threads will be joined together and where there is no parting nor pain.

He can with the eye of faith see that fond mother perfectly blessed in her Saviour's presence yet loving and longing with a sacred mother's love for the loved ones precious to her in time and for eternity; Heaven grows more real, eternity more glorious when lifes dearest friend, mother, God's first and best gift to man is there.

She is and will be most sadly missed from the home community and church. Her husband, son and relatives and a multitude of friends are to cherish her memory and mourn their loss.

May the God of all Grace and comfort minister to their sad and bruised hearts.

LAFAYETTE, R. 2.

Born last week to Mr. and Mrs Terry Vanhorn a fine 9 pound girl.

OBITUARY

On Oct. 29, 1920 God saw fit to take from this life the gentle spirit of ~~Mrs. Sudie Hill. She had been sick~~ for nine months but she bore her long sufferings with great patience. She expressed a desire if it was her God's will to live to look after her children but he was willing that His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

When it was revealed to her that her life would soon end she said that she was ready to go to meet God.

The remainder of her time she spoke in warning others to live for God. She was called the peace maker of all those around her which added a great blessing to her. For Christ said blessed are the peace makers for they shall be called the children of God.

She leaves a husband 2 sons one daughter, her mother, one brother, three sisters and numberless other friends and relatives to miss her presence.

Why should we mourn dear ones? We know that God doeth all things well. Heed her warnings to obey His word and when the Lord shall bring forth them that sleep at his coming then there shall be great rejoicing.

May God be with us until we meet, And see our dear ones in Heaven so sweet.

LAFAYETTE, R. 2.

Our settlement was shocked by the death of Mr. Stanfield last week. We were sorry to hear of Burl's death. He was in the prime of life. Burl had bought land and started out to make his mark in the world but was cut down when least expecting it. We know that he suffered awfully from the time the tree fell on him until he died. His wife and little ones and relatives have our sympathy in their trials of bereavement. His wife and children moved Saturday to Rock Springs with her people.

We were shocked again Monday early afternoon when E. G. W. Jones passed away. Mr. Jones had been on the sick list at times for the past three months but was able to go about his work until last Thursday night when he had a bad spell but his friends were not at all alarmed until Monday morning when they realized that the end was near. His wife preceded him to the grave about eight months. Mr. Jones was a good friend of mine in fact he had a host of friends for he was an open hearted man always ready to do what he could for his friends. He will be missed in our little settlement and our county. He was of our house lively and in very good spirits. His family and relatives have our sympathy in their dark hours of bereavement and troubles. Mr. Jones was good to his family and his children will sure miss him.

IN MEMORY OF CARL E. HARP

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low.
Thou no more will join our numbers,
Thou no more our sorrows know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled.
And in Heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Call not back the dear departed
Anchored safe where storms are o'er.
On the border land we met him
Soon to meet and part no more.
When we leave this world of changes
When we leave this world of care
We shall find our missing loved one
In our Father's mansion fair.

Through all pains at times he'd smile
A smile of Heaveuly birth
And when the angels called him home
He smiled farewell to earth
Heaven retaineth now our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps
And the sunbeam love to linger
Where our sainted brother sleeps

Precious Carl he has left us
Left us, yes, forever more
But we hope to meet our loved one
On that bright and happy shore.
Lonely the house and sad the hours
Since our dear one has gone
But in a brighter home than ours
In Heaven is now his own.

We have lost our darlin, brother
He has bid us all adieu
He has gone to live in Heaven
And his form is lost in view.
Oh! that dear one how we loved him
Oh how hard to give him up
But an angel came down for him and removed him from our flock.

It is sad that one we cherish,
Should be taken from our home,
But the joys that do not perish,
Live in memory alone
All the years we've spent together
All the happy golden hours
Shall be cherished in remembrance,
Fragrance sweet from memory's flowers

The vacant place the empty chair
We see them day by day
And Oh it fills our hearts with care
Since our loved one went away
Not now but in the coming years
It may be in the better land
We'll read the meaning of our tears
And there sometime we'll understand.

Sent in by father, mother, sisters and brother.

IN MEMORY

Of Lowery Partin who departed this life Aug. 26, 1920, There was an Angel Band that was not quite complete; so God Took our dear father to fill the vacant seat.

He was sick but a short time following a stroke of paralysis. He was 75 years of age. It is sad to know that dear father will never be here to give us any more advice, He will be sadly missed throughout the whole community but Oh how much more he will be missed at home but God doeth all things well.

He was good and kind to everybody and was always ready to help anyone he could. He did not belong to any church but that did not keep him from living a Christian life. We should live for God on this earth so when he calls us we should be ready to meet him.

Why should we mourn dear ones when we know that God doeth all things best. Heed his warnings to obey his word and when the Lord shall bring forth them that sleeps at his coming then there shall be great rejoicing.

He leaves three girls and three boys and a host of other relatives and friends. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Tom Smith at Garrets Chapel and the body was laid beneath a flower-laden mound to await the resurrection morn.

May God be with us until we meet
And see our dear loved ones in Heaven so sweet.

Virgil Lumpkin Dead As Result of Shooting Affray Wednesday

TRAGIC AFFAIR NEAR VILLANOW LATE WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON WHEN WILLIE LUMPKIN KILLS HIS BROTHER—WILLIE ENTERS PLEA OF SELF-DEFENSE AND THE WARRANT AGAINST HIM IS DISMISSED AT COMMITTAL TRIAL HERE THIS MORNING.

The warrant against Willie Lumpkin, charged with the killing of his brother, Virgil Lumpkin, near Villanow Wednesday afternoon late, was dismissed in the Justice Court, at the committal trial here this morning.

From the evidence brought out in the trial before Justices Harmon and Brown, it appears that Virgil Lumpkin had threatened to kill his brother some days ago. Willie Lumpkin was living with his uncle, Mr. Townsend and on Sunday Virgil came to the Townsend home with a shotgun and stated that he would kill everybody in the house. Willie, who was not in the house at the time, came up later and Virgil told him that if he didn't clear the house of the people, he would kill him. Virgil fired a shot through the window of the house in the room where Mr. Townsend, his wife and several small children were, but no one was hit. Evidence revealed the fact that Virgil was a trouble-maker, dangerous, and that he had no home, but resided about in the neighborhood. After he fired into the house Willie caught him and kept him from firing again. Virgil then drew the shotgun on Willie.

It appears that Virgil went off and later sent word to his brother, Willie that he intended to kill him if he was ever caught away from the Townsend home. This was the testimony before the Justice Court Thursday morning.

Wednesday afternoon Willie went to a field where Sam Stansell was plowing and shortly after Virgil appeared and stated that he had heard that Willie, his brother intended to kill him. This Willie denied. Then Virgil asked him to step back five paces, that they would have it out right there. Willie plead with him not to shoot, that he had no intention of doing him harm and that he didn't want to kill him and wanted no trouble at all, whereupon Virgil fired a shot at him with a 44. Willie then drew his revolver, which stated to the court he carried as a matter [illegible] he knew his

D. A. BORDERS LAID TO REST WITH FULL MASONIC HONORS

Funeral services over the body of D. A. Borders were held at the Baptist church last Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by his pastor, Rev. I. S. Leonard, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives. A special quartet rendered impressive music, and the pastor paid a splendid tribute to the life and character of the deceased. The floral offerings and the tremendous crowd of friends and relatives who had gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased, bore eminent testimony to the high esteem in which Mr. Borders was held.

Immediately following the funeral services, the remains were taken in charge by the Masonic fraternity, of which the deceased was a member, and borne to the cemetery, where the deceased brother was accorded full Masonic burial rites.

The grief stricken family have the deep sympathy of their friends.

News of the death of Rev. C. H. Wright, at Warrenton, Ga., on Feb. 27th., who was for a number of years pastor of the Baptist church here, will be learned with deep regret by his many LaFayette friends.

—o—

The sudden death Tuesday night of Dr. S. Y. Jameson, at his home in Atlanta, comes as a shock to his numerous friends in this section. For a number of years Dr. Jameson was president of Mercer University, and at the time of his demise he was superintendent of enlistment of the home mission board of the Southern Baptist convention, and one of the best-known Baptist educators in the South. A number of times he was present at the Coosa Baptist Association meetings in this county, and was known and loved by a host of people in this section.

Friends were suprised to learn of the marriage of Miss Ruby Dudley, formerly of Walker county to Mr. Robert Sharpe of Decatur Tenn., on March 15. Mr. Sharp is a member of one of the oldest families in Meigs County Tennessee. The couple will reside at Mr. Sharpe's home near Decatur. We wish for them a happy and prosperous future. xx

IN LOVING MEMORY

On the evening of March 1, 1921, the sad angel of death hovered in our midst and as noiseless as the falling snow crept into the happy home of J. L. Pettijohn and laid its cold icy hands on the loved wife and mother.

Mrs. Pettijohn had only been sick a short while and her death came as a shock to her family and also her many friends.

She was a faithful wife and loving mother and her sweet smiles and kind words of advice will be missed in the home, but look up dear husband through the dark vale of tears and have faith to say, "Thy Will Be Done."

In the cemetery at Rock Springs her body was laid away beneath a mound of flowers to await the coming of Christ.

The vacant place, the empty chair
We see them day by day,
And O it fills our hearts with care
Since our Loved one went away.
Not now but in the coming years
It may be in the better land.
We'll read the meaning of our tears
And there some time we'll understand.

Written by one who loved her.

WARREN

Mr. Mason died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. Anderson, after a lingering illness of paralysis. The body was carried Sunday to Gordon county where interment was made.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. ALLIE BLAKE.

On the morning of May 9th, 1920, Mrs. Allie Blake passed on to her reward, leaving to mourn her going away, five daughters and four sons, Mrs. Cary Henley, Mrs. Nanty Walker, Mrs. Eliza Dunn, Mrs. Cora Williams, Miss Mary Blake, Jessie Isaac. Robert and Roy Blake and a host of other relatives and friends.

She was only 48 years of age. We are made to wonder why such a faithful mother and sister should be called in what seemed to be the very height or summit of life, but it is not ours to question the judgement of the Lord. She had been a faithful child of the heavenly Father and at the time of her death was a member of the Missionary Baptist church.

Her body was placed in its resting place at the Chattanooga Valley cemetery to await the great Home-Coming. With that blessed thought in our hearts we do not feel that her death was defeat in a battle with a grim monster, but triumphant victory in the salvation of Christ.

Let us not look back to the sad hour
When the Father called her away,
But with a forward look press onward
To the Great and Perfect Day.
When God in His mercy and power
Shall call us before His throne,
Up there we will find her waiting
In our eternal home.

Her Sister, Mrs. Dora Phillips.

On November 25th, 1920, she was called home Although she lived to the great age 88 years and 6 months. Like a multitude of good mothers she was supremely unselfish in life and disposition. She actually took a pride in taking the least and poorest of everything for herself and in getting the best out for others and she had a passion for finding something that was plain and harmless, yet durable and useful for herself to wear and in seeing that others were clad in something that was nice.

Comely and beautiful not only was she unselfish but absolutely impartial in her love. The last few days she suffered much but was wonderfully patient and cheerful.

In loving remembrance this little tribute to her worth is paid to her sleeping dust and departed spirit by the children whom she so dearly loved and served with so much devotion.

Mrs. Smith was of a deeply religious nature of the pious conscien-
